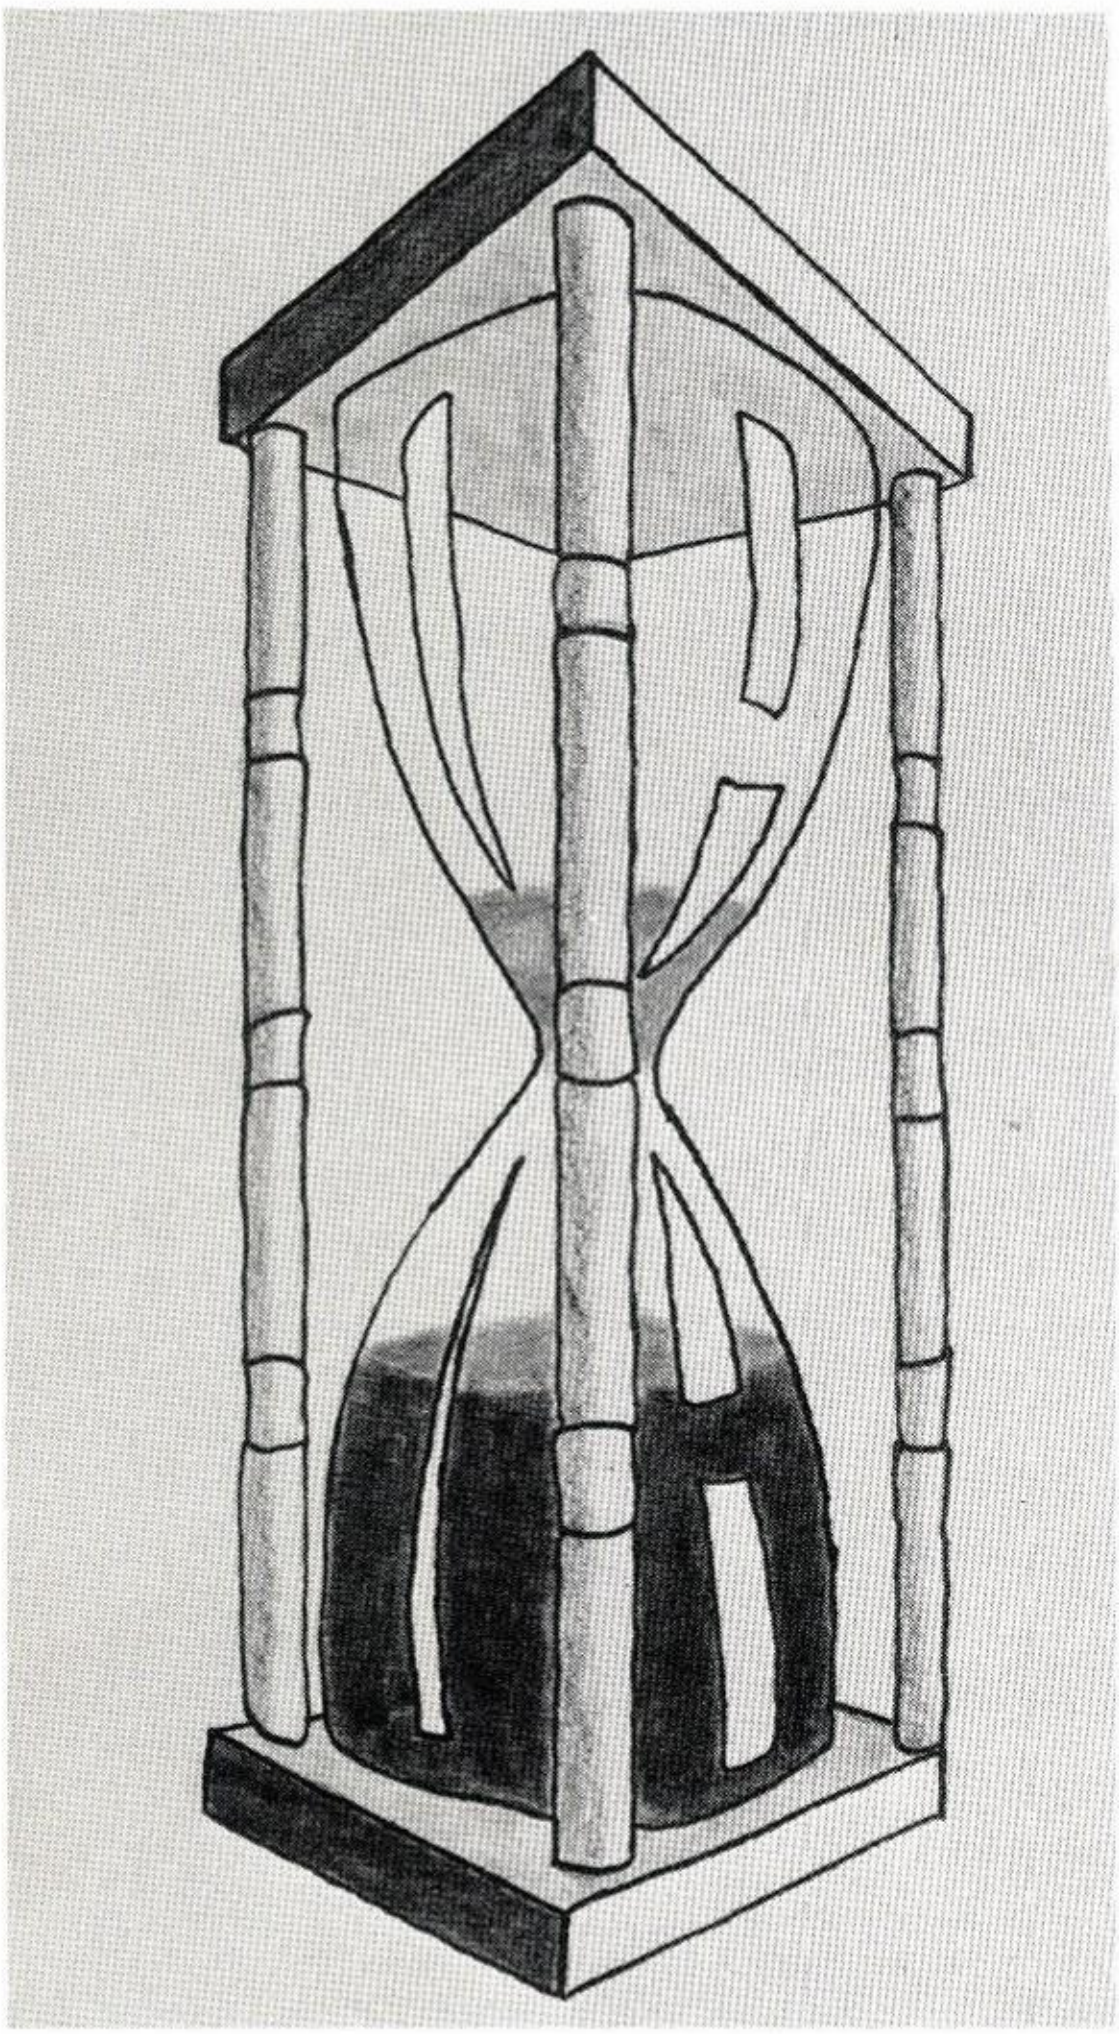
Dedication

The Yearbook Staff wishes to dedicate the 1972 Phalanx to the Martin Luther Ladies' Guild. We would like to thank them for all the support they have given our school in recent donations to the Physical Education and Science Departments and also for patronizing our yearbook. Thank you for helping make Martin Luther High School a reality.



A TIME TO LIVE

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

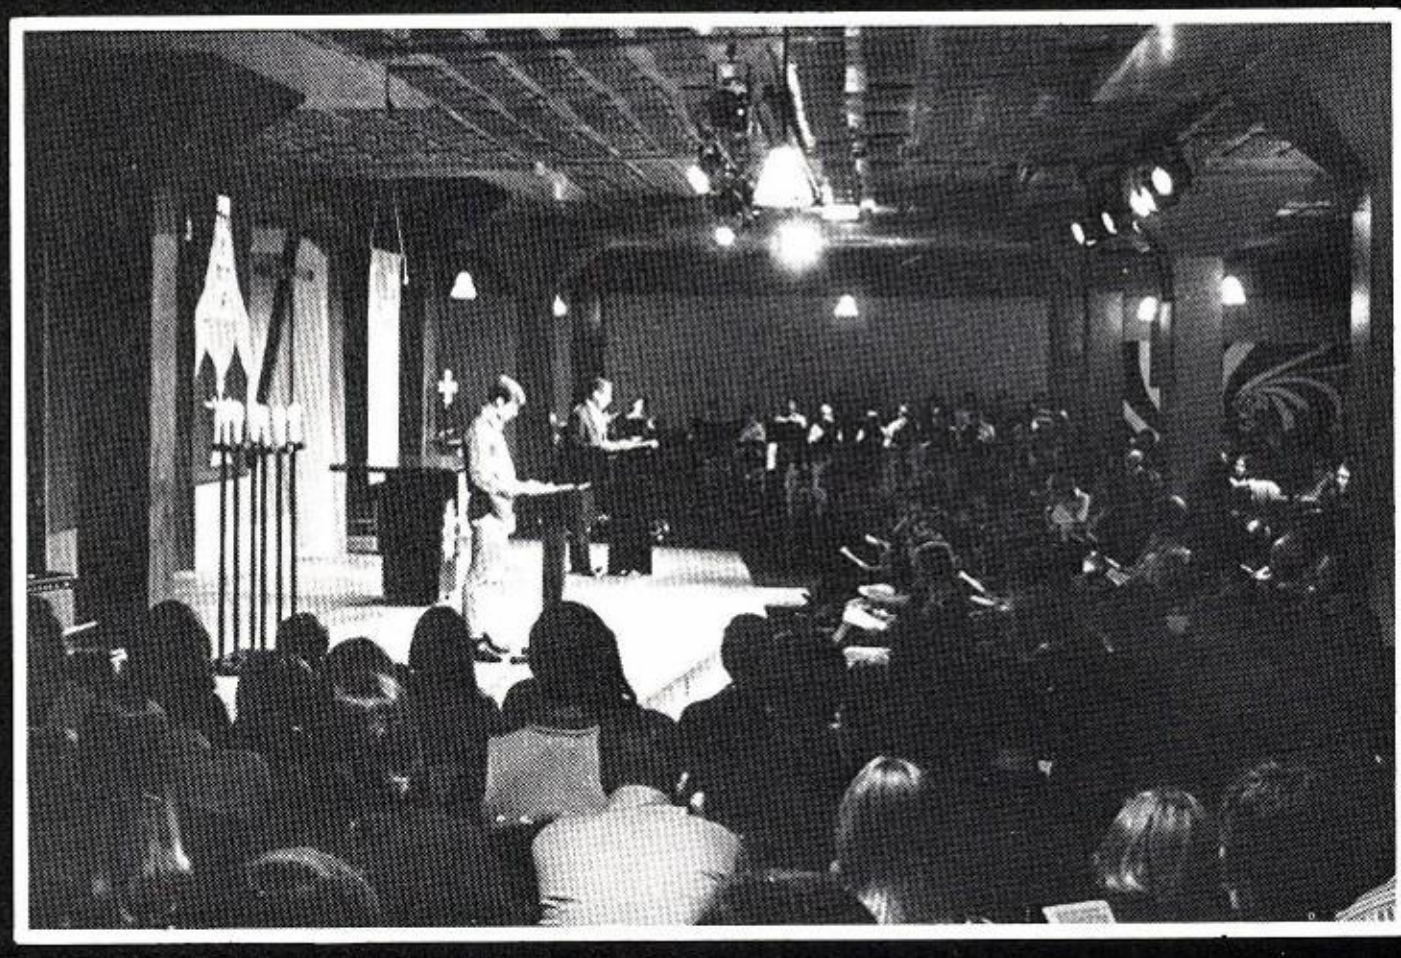
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

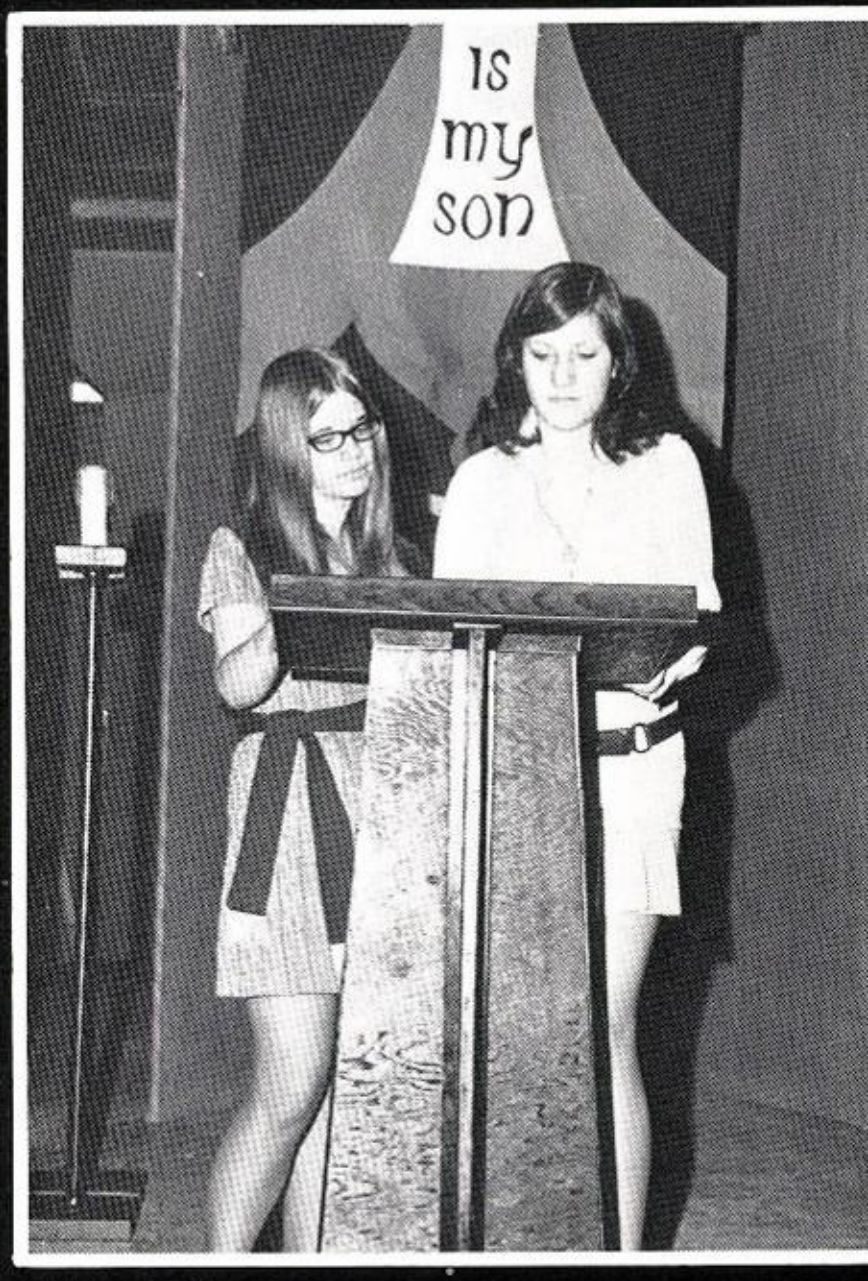
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.

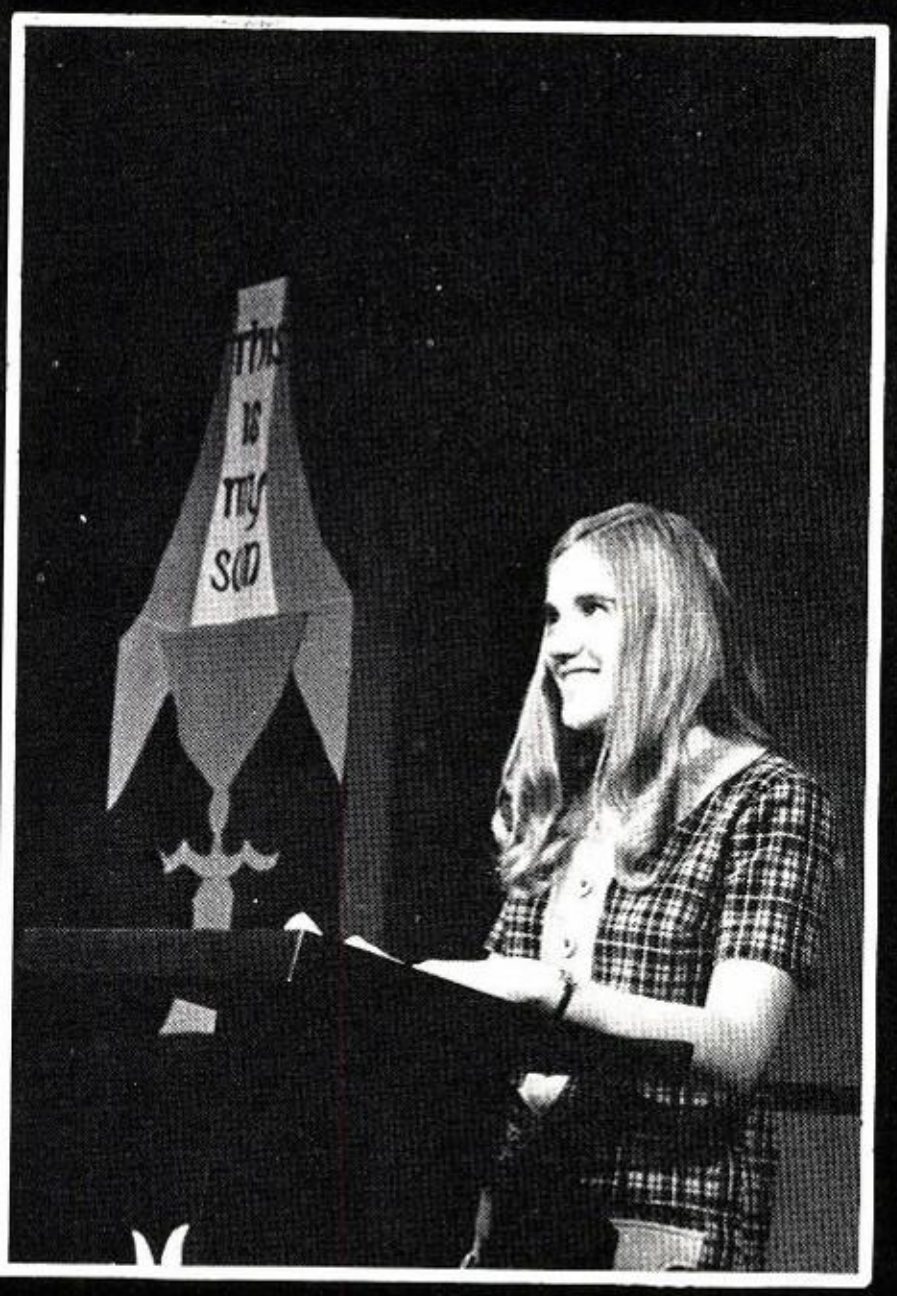
Ecclesiastes 3:1-8



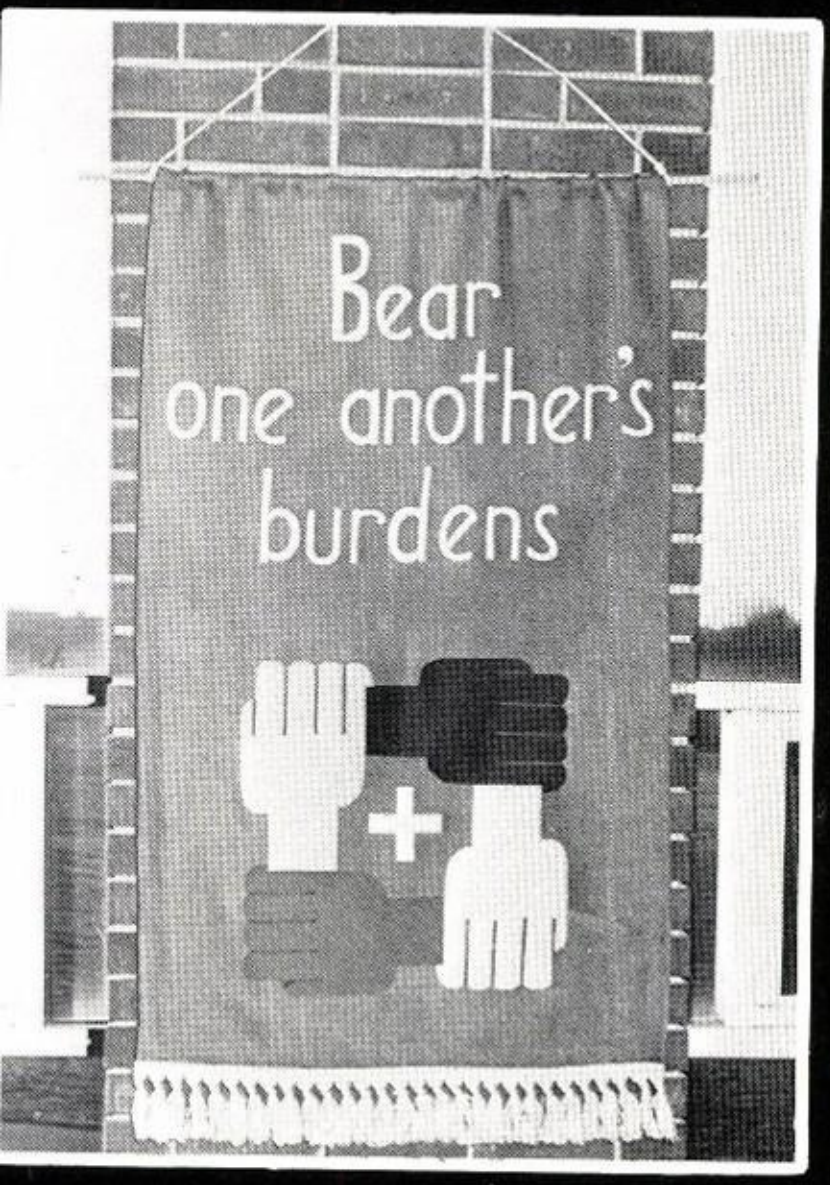
A Time to Worship

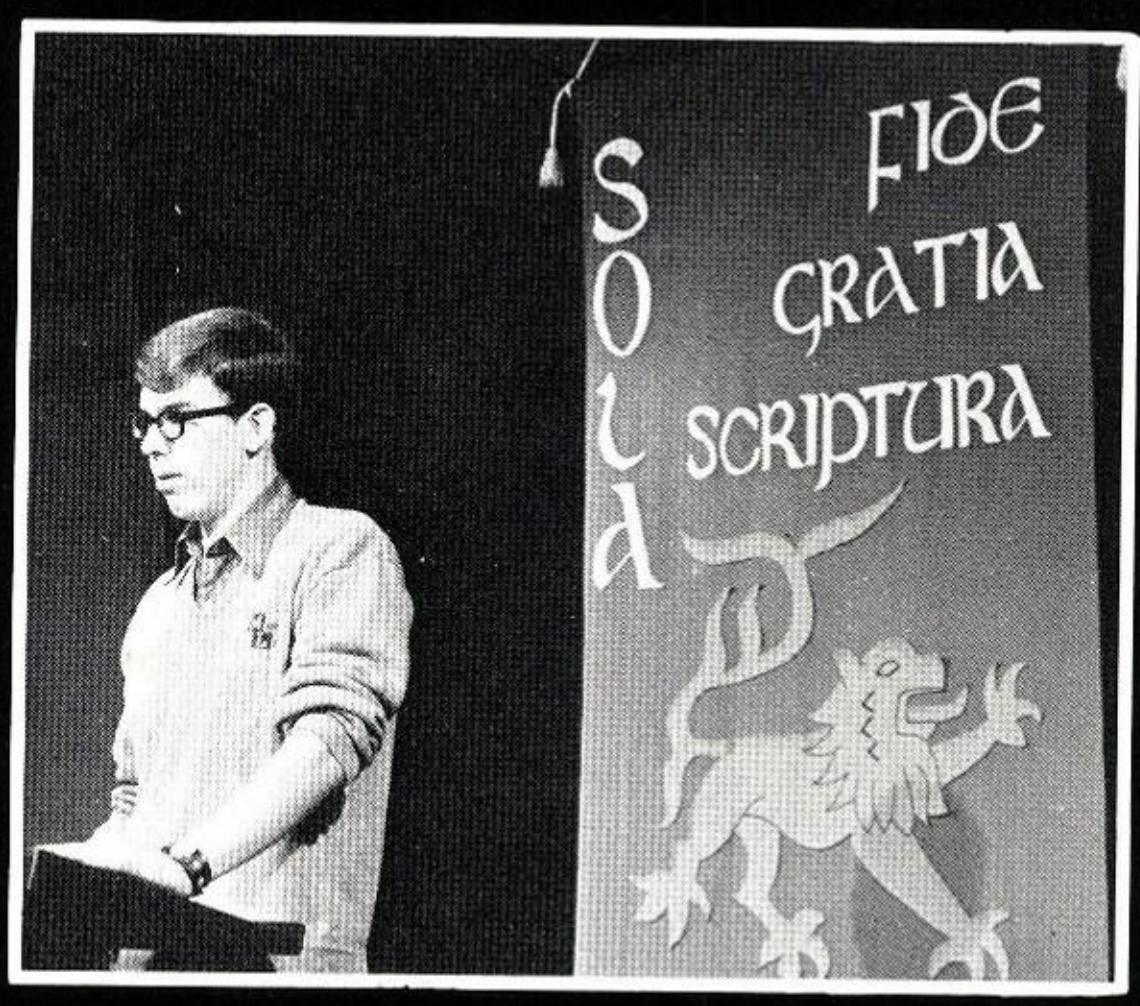


At a Christian School such as Martin Luther, it is fitting that we begin each day with a prayer or corporate worship, but our daily lives serve as perhaps an even more striking witness of our faith.

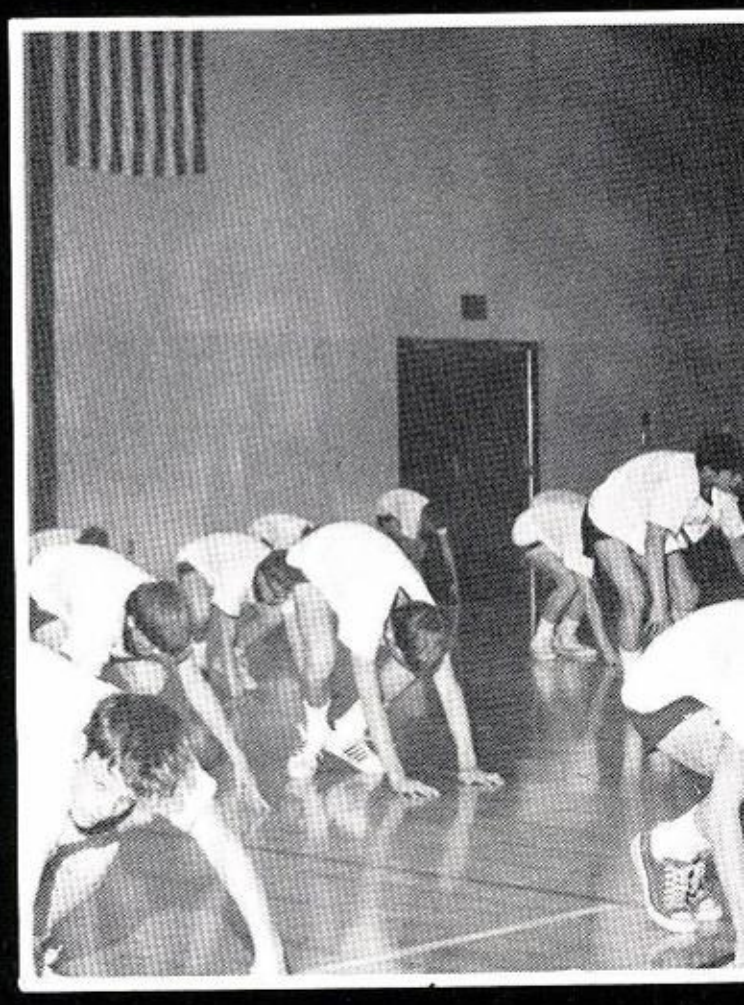


Teachers and students alike participate in the presentation of chapel services. Whether it be in the form of a sermon or a drama production, these various worship forms add a new and more meaningful dimension to our worship life at ML.

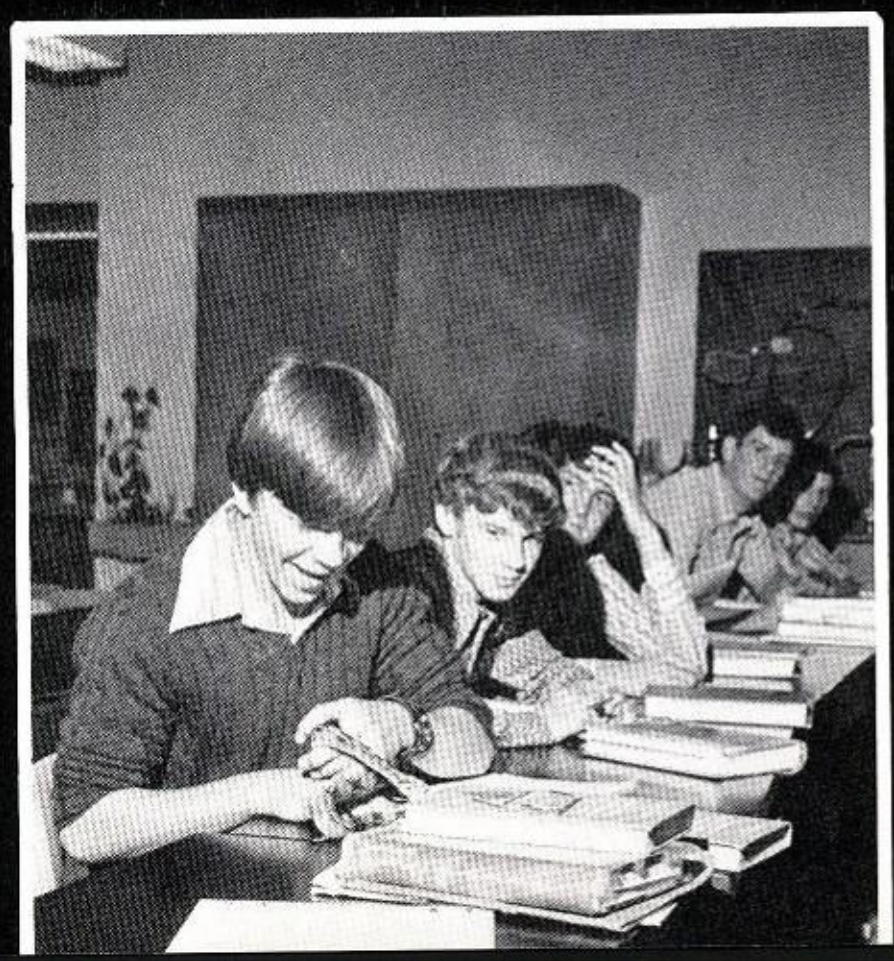


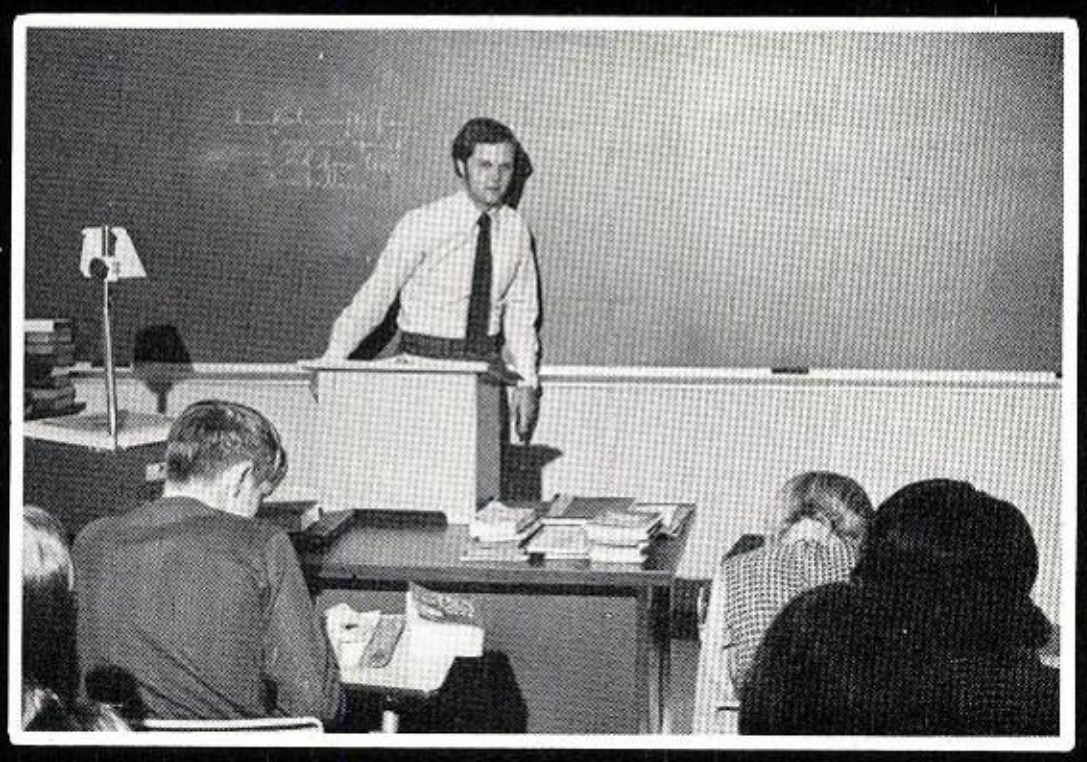


A Time to Learn



The curriculum at Martin Luther provides students with a well-rounded education whether they are going on to college or not. There is opportunity for students to enter many fields such as Art, Music, and Home Economics. Beginning Typing (UPPER LEFT) is only one of the many business courses that ML offers. Freshman boys learn the fundamentals of keeping physically fit in P. E. class (UPPER RIGHT). The Science Department offers a variety of courses for science-minded students. The Plant Science class (CENTER) and the Biology class (LOWER) are two examples of this type of course.

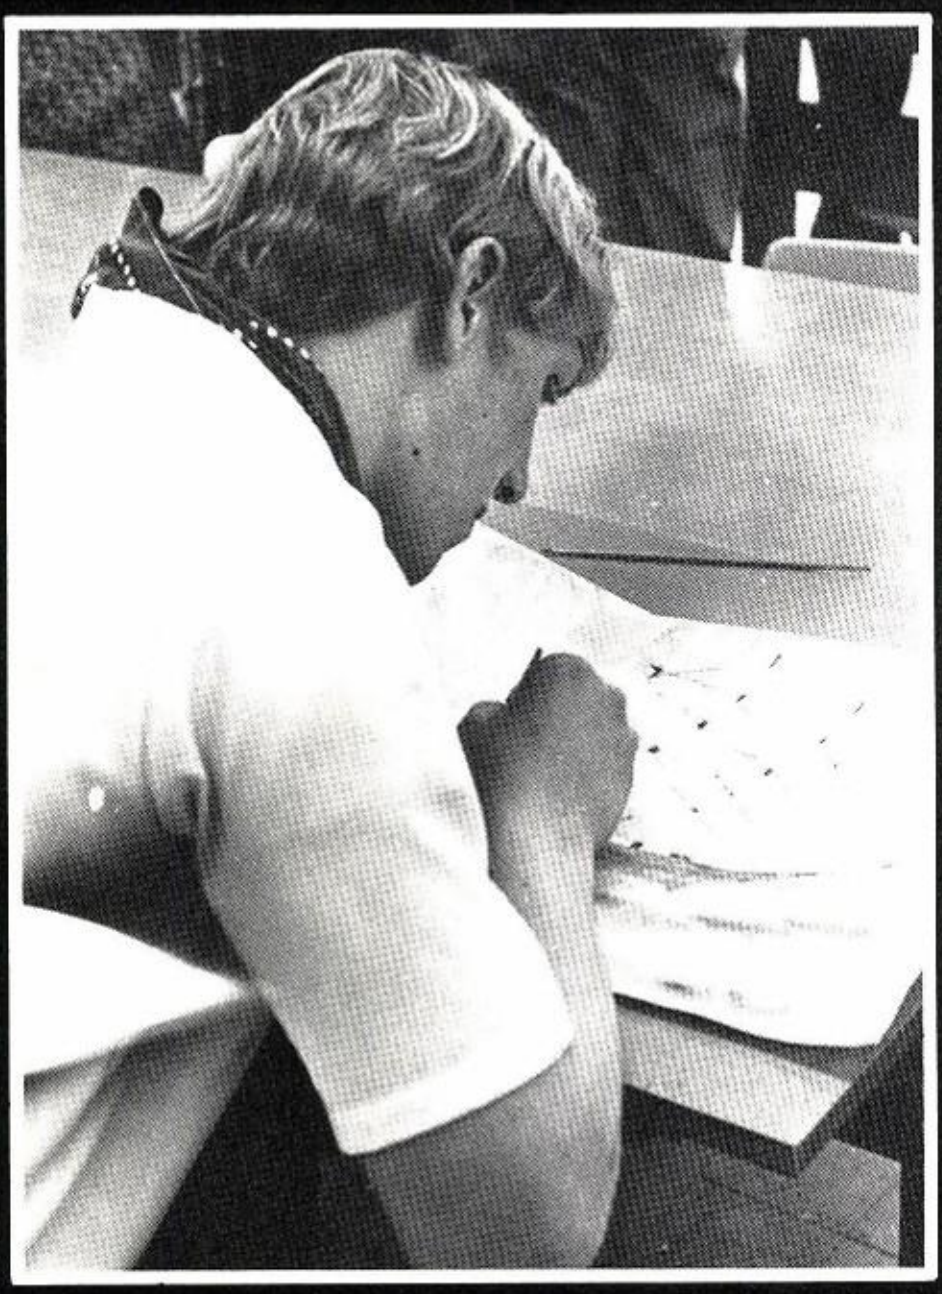


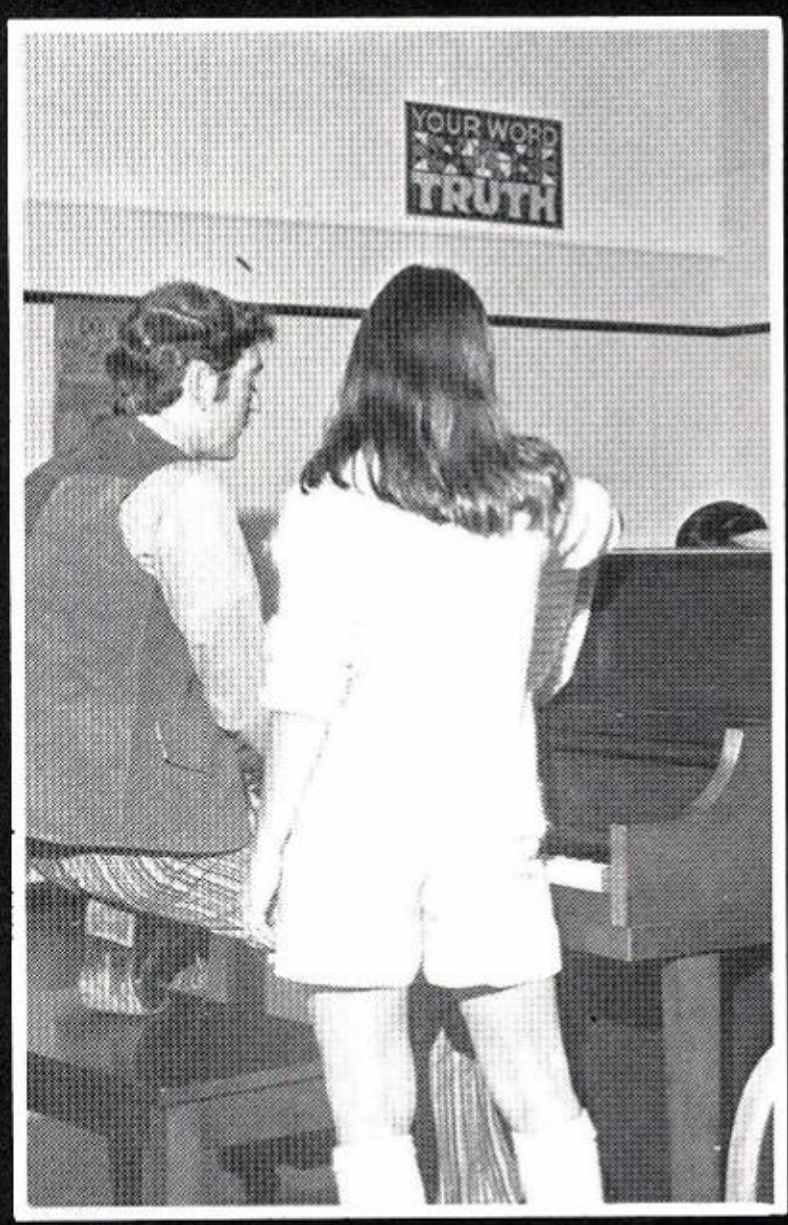


A Time to Teach

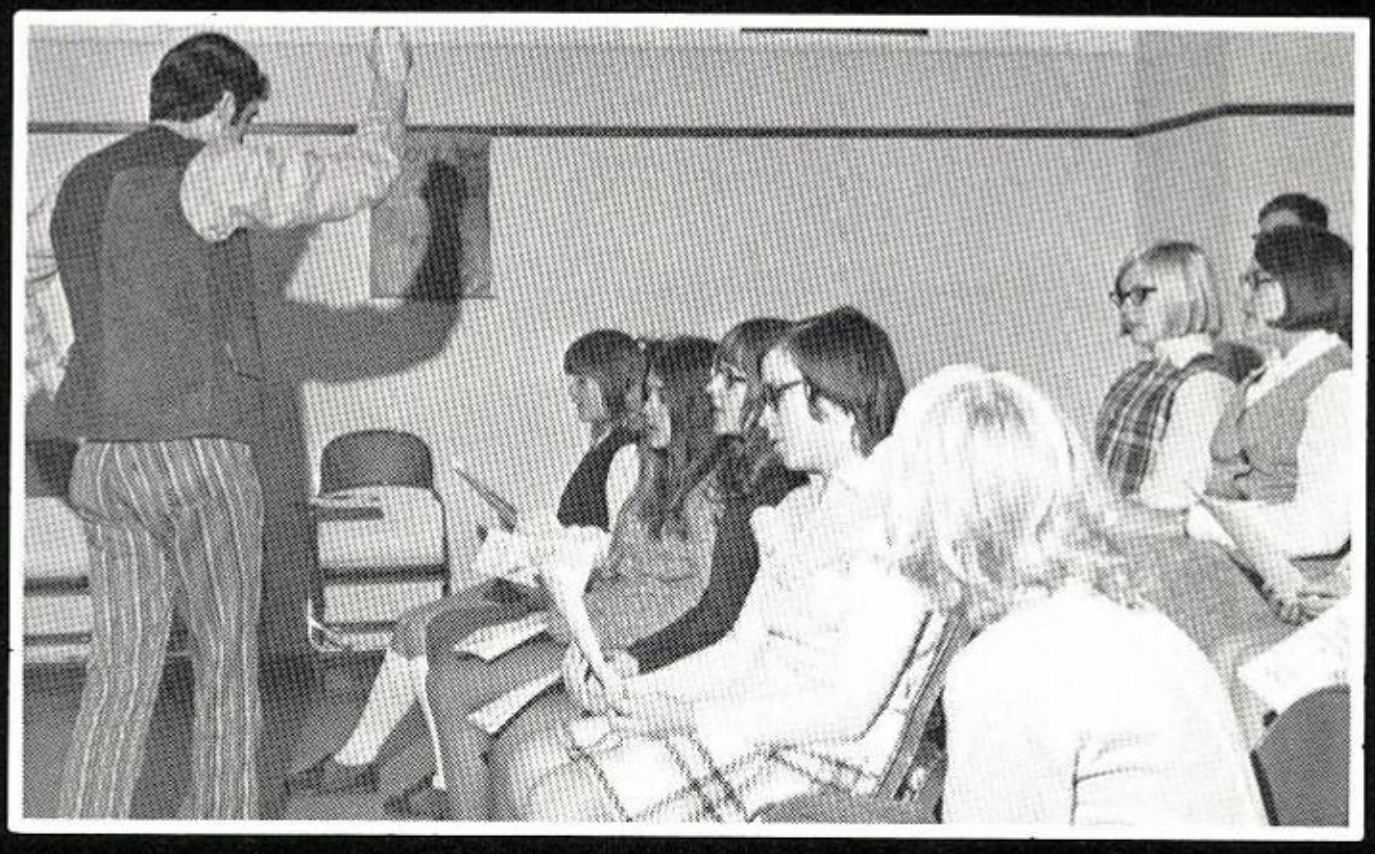
A large amount of time, work and dedication is necessary for any teacher to be successful and every teacher at ML has displayed these characteristics. The development of new ideas has helped teachers to carry out their jobs as well as possible. Mrs. Erdmann (UPPER) teaches American History to the juniors. Mr. Widenhofer teaches a course in Old Testament History to a group of freshmen (CENTER). Two chemistry students receive help with a lab experiment from Mrs. Roeglin (LOWER).

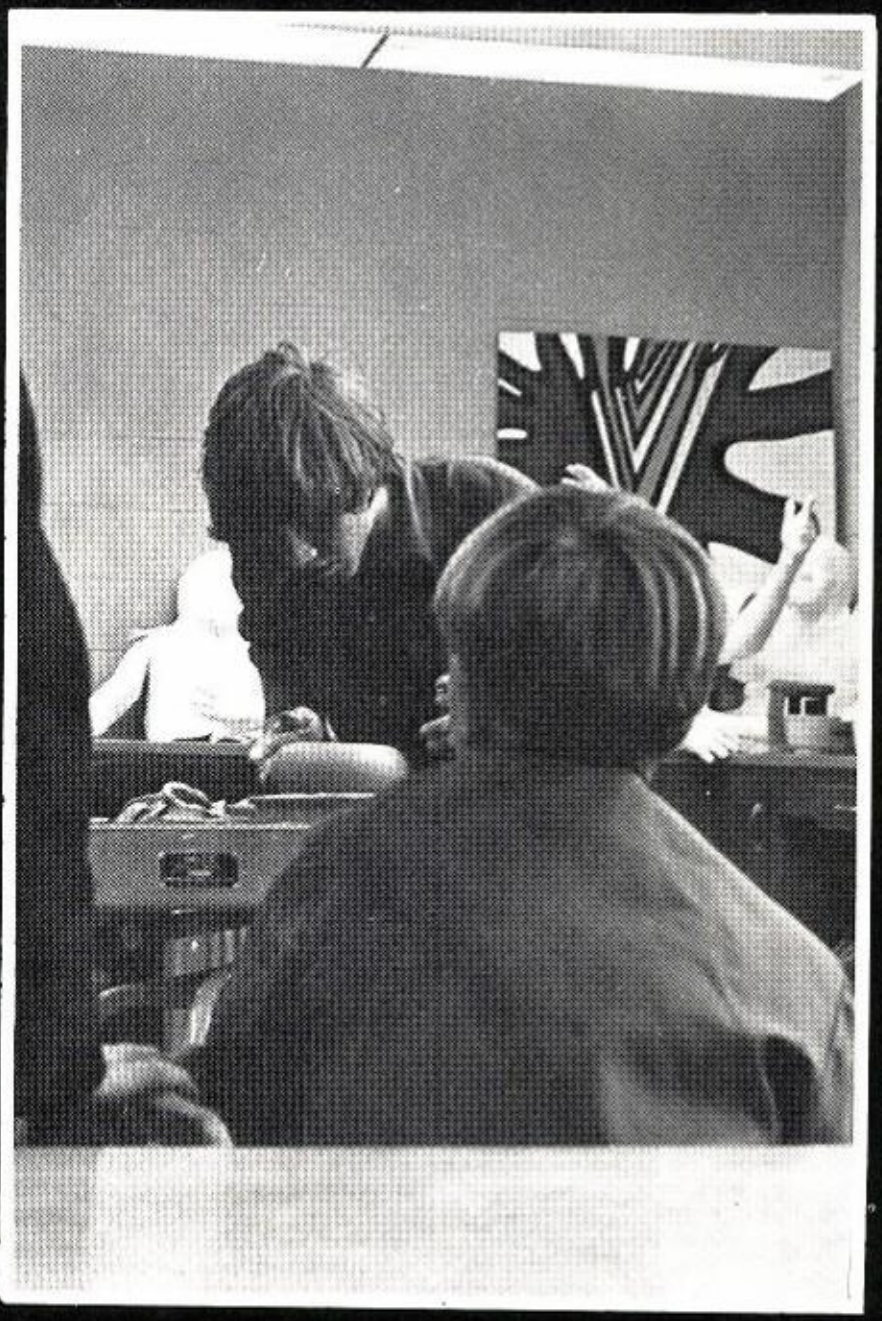
A Time for the Arts

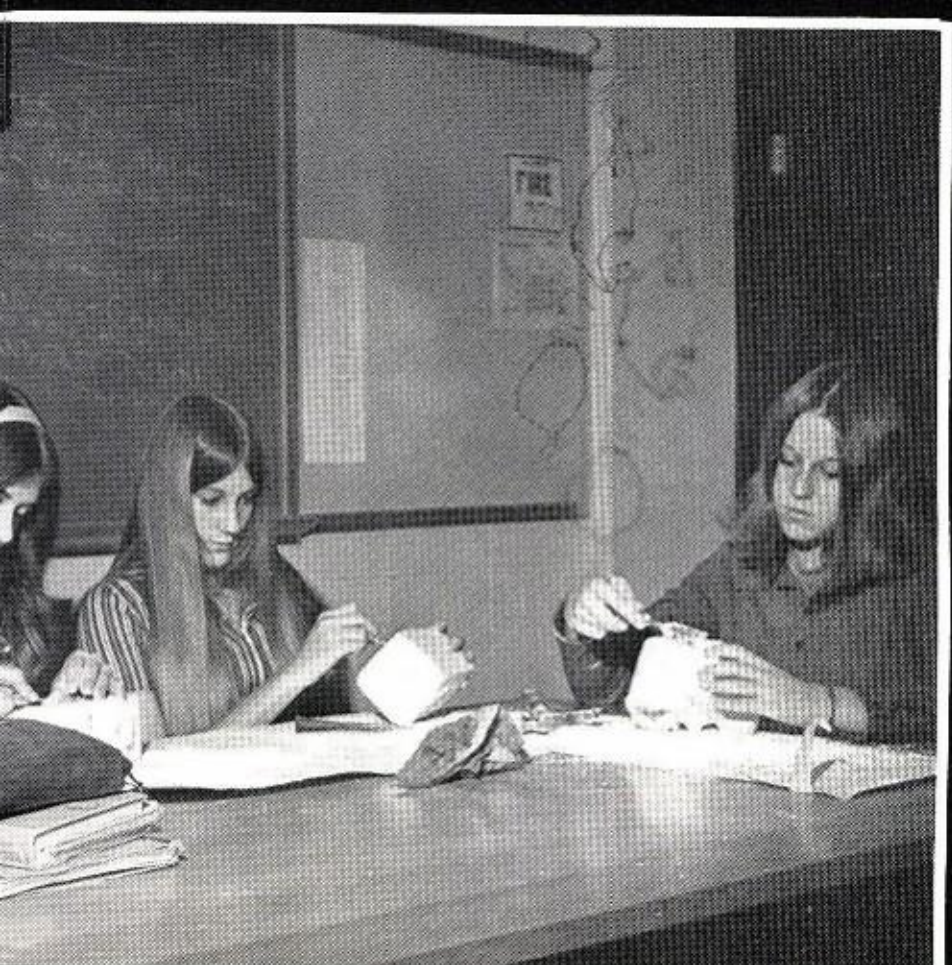


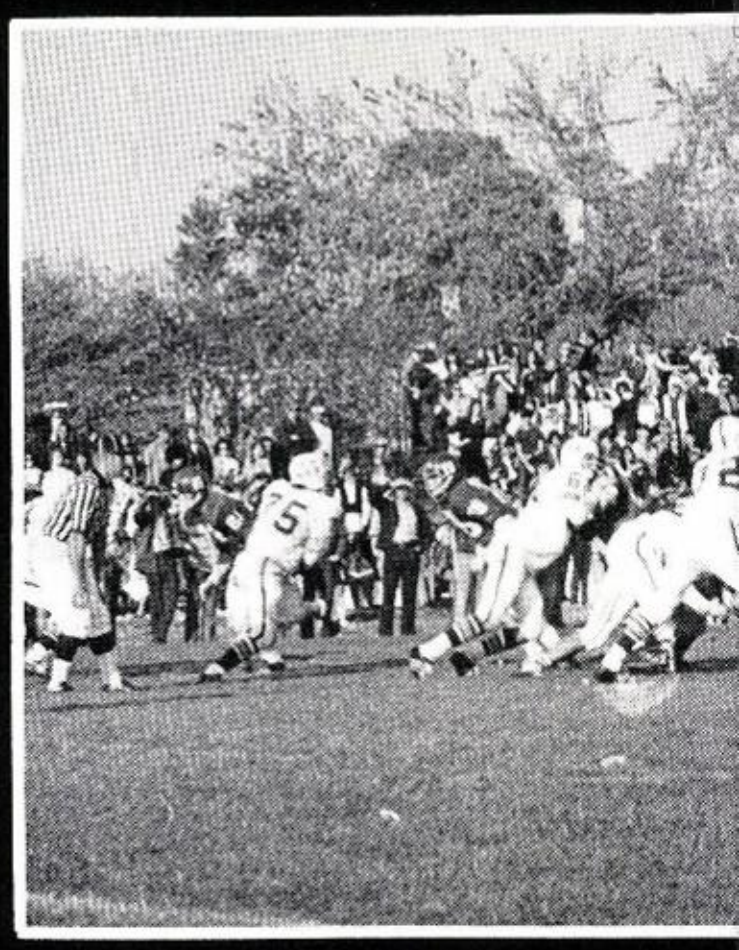


Participation in the Arts is an important part of life at Martin Luther. Concert Choir and Freshman choir rehearse daily under the direction of Mr. Lohmeyer. The band, directed by Mr. Krubsack, also has daily practices to prepare for concerts and other performances. A variety of art courses offer students a good background in different fields of art such as sculpture, ceramics, and painting.

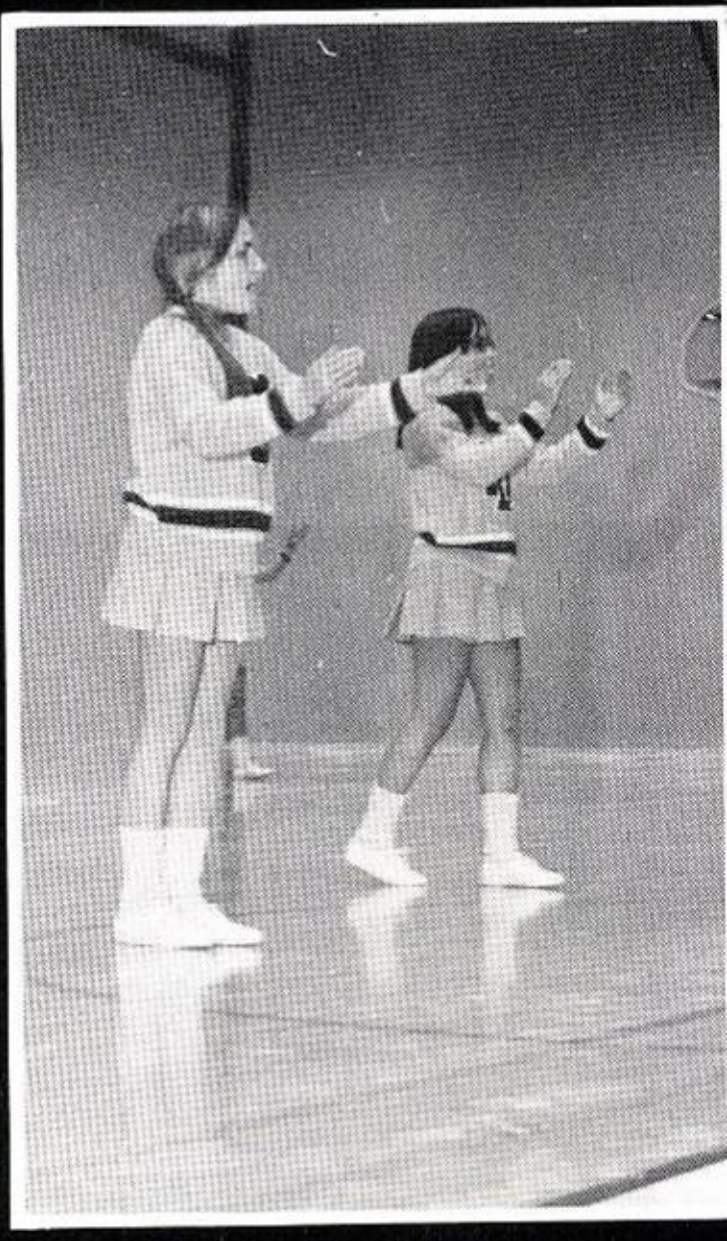


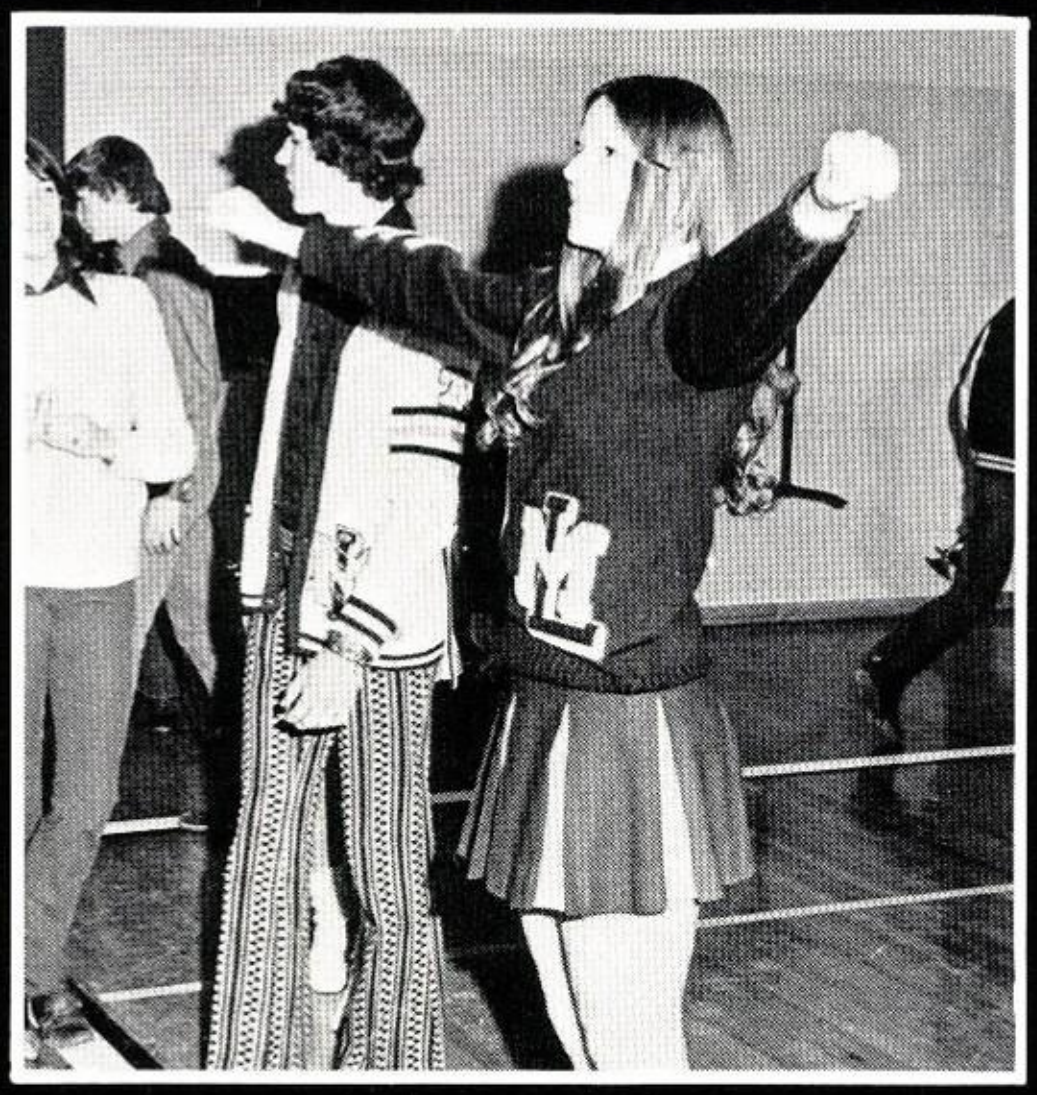




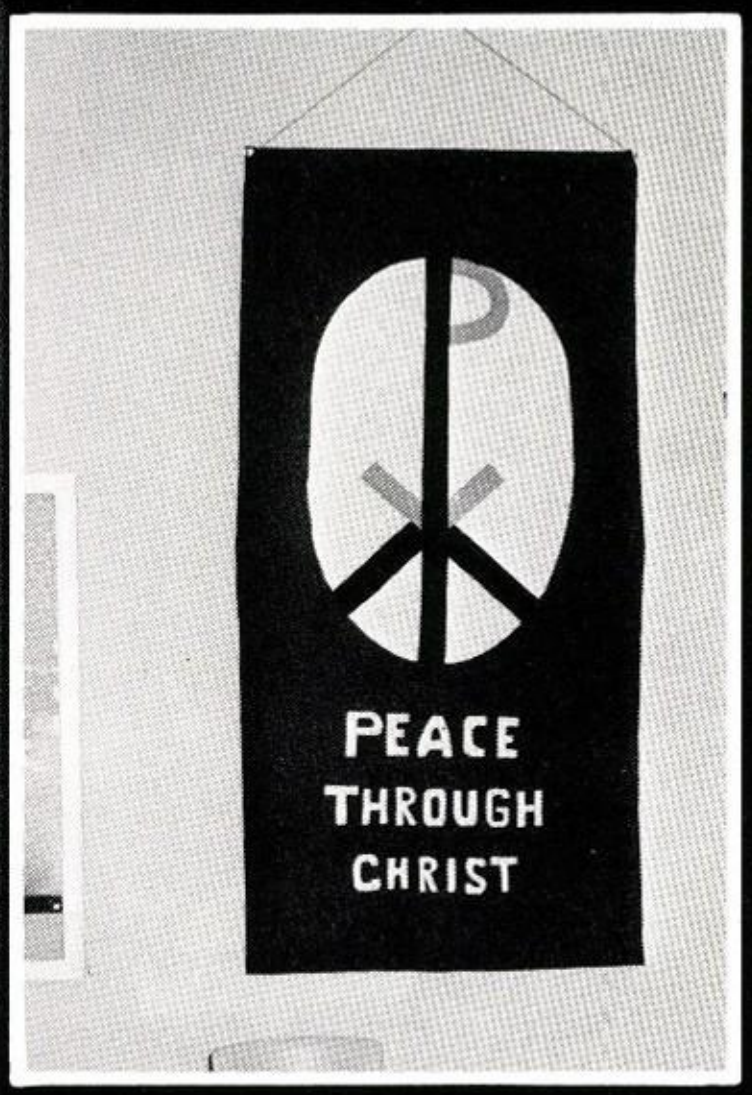


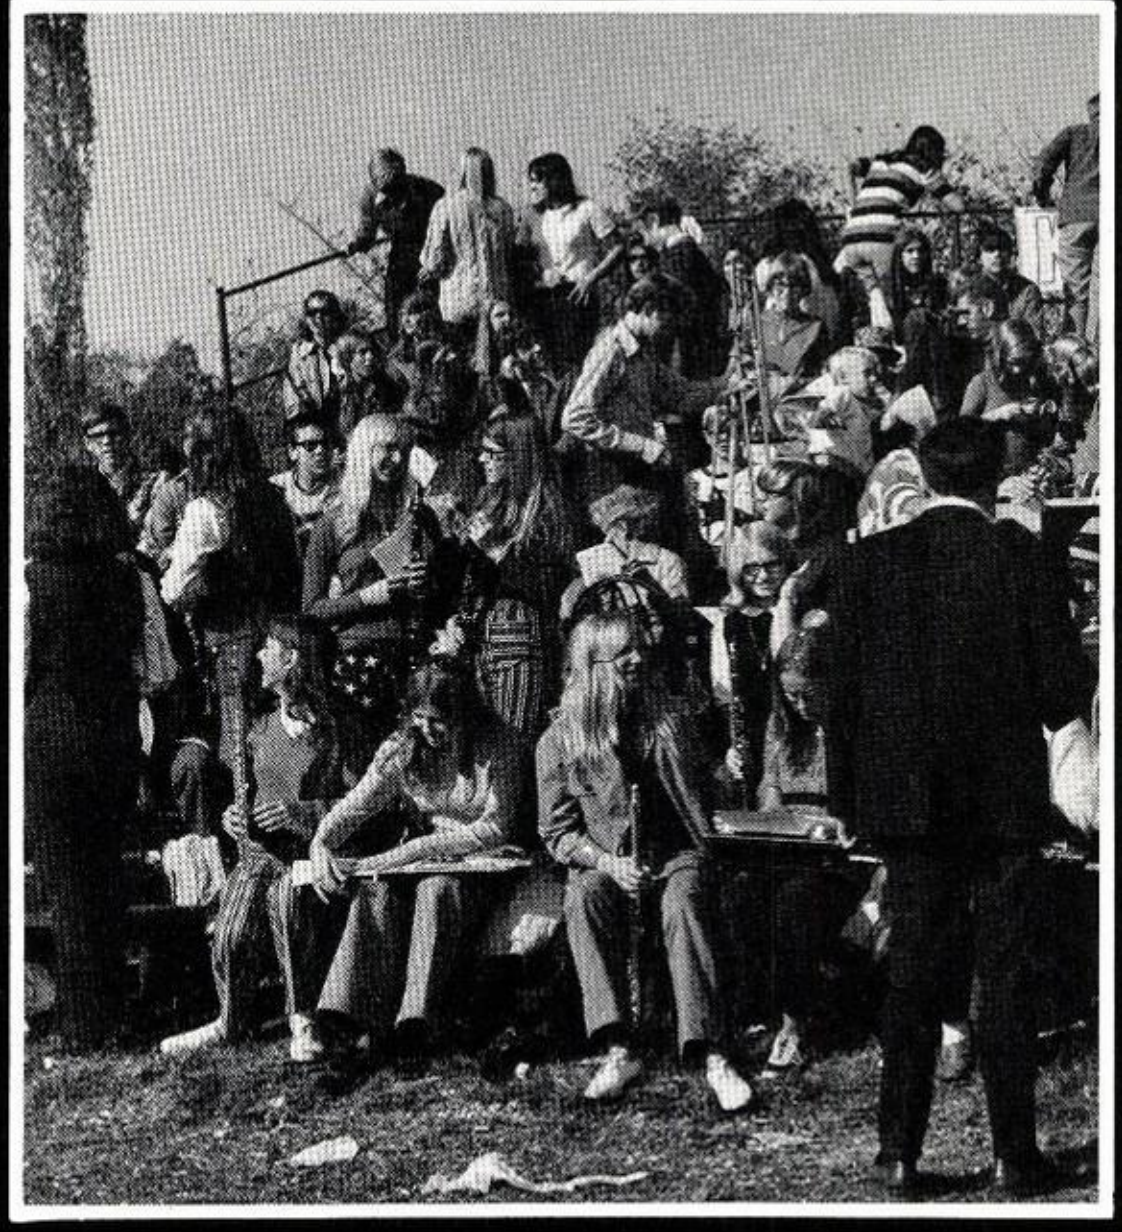
A Time for Spirit



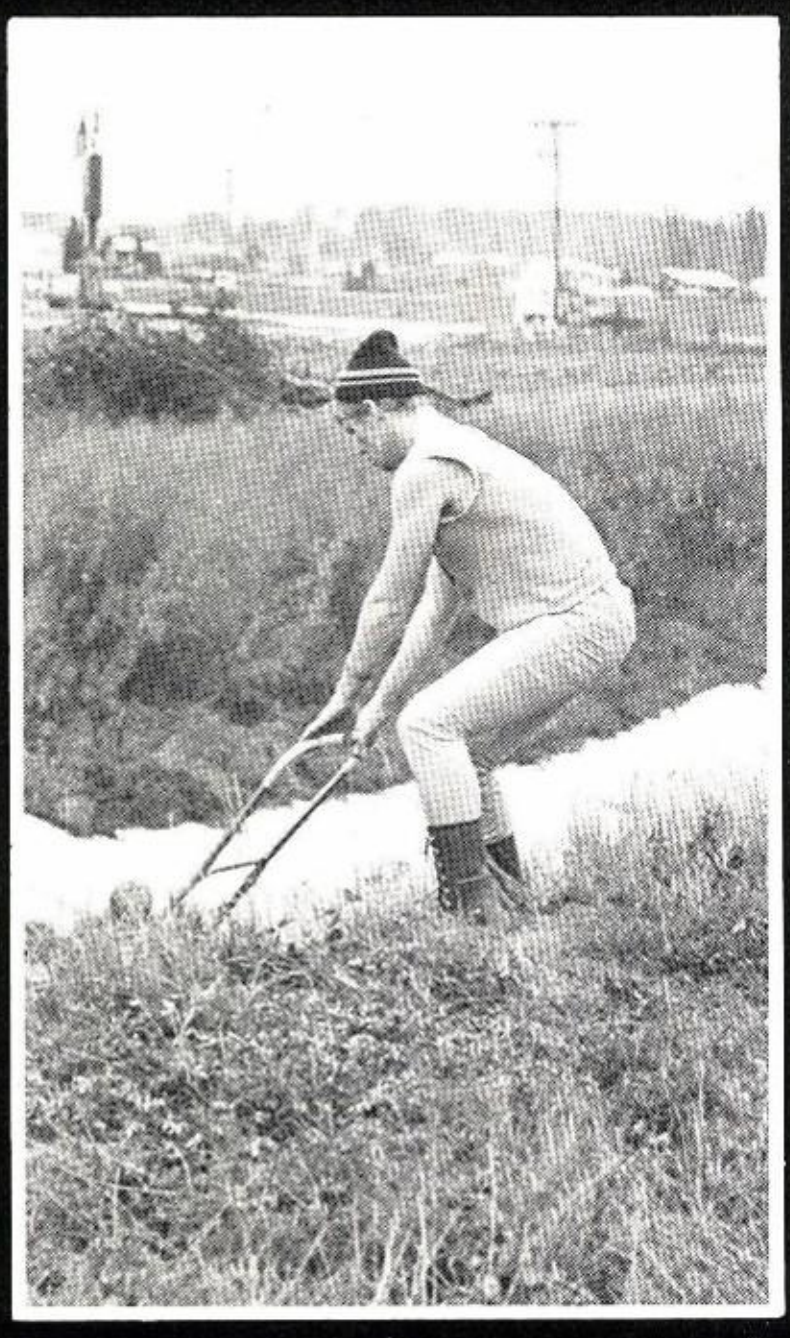


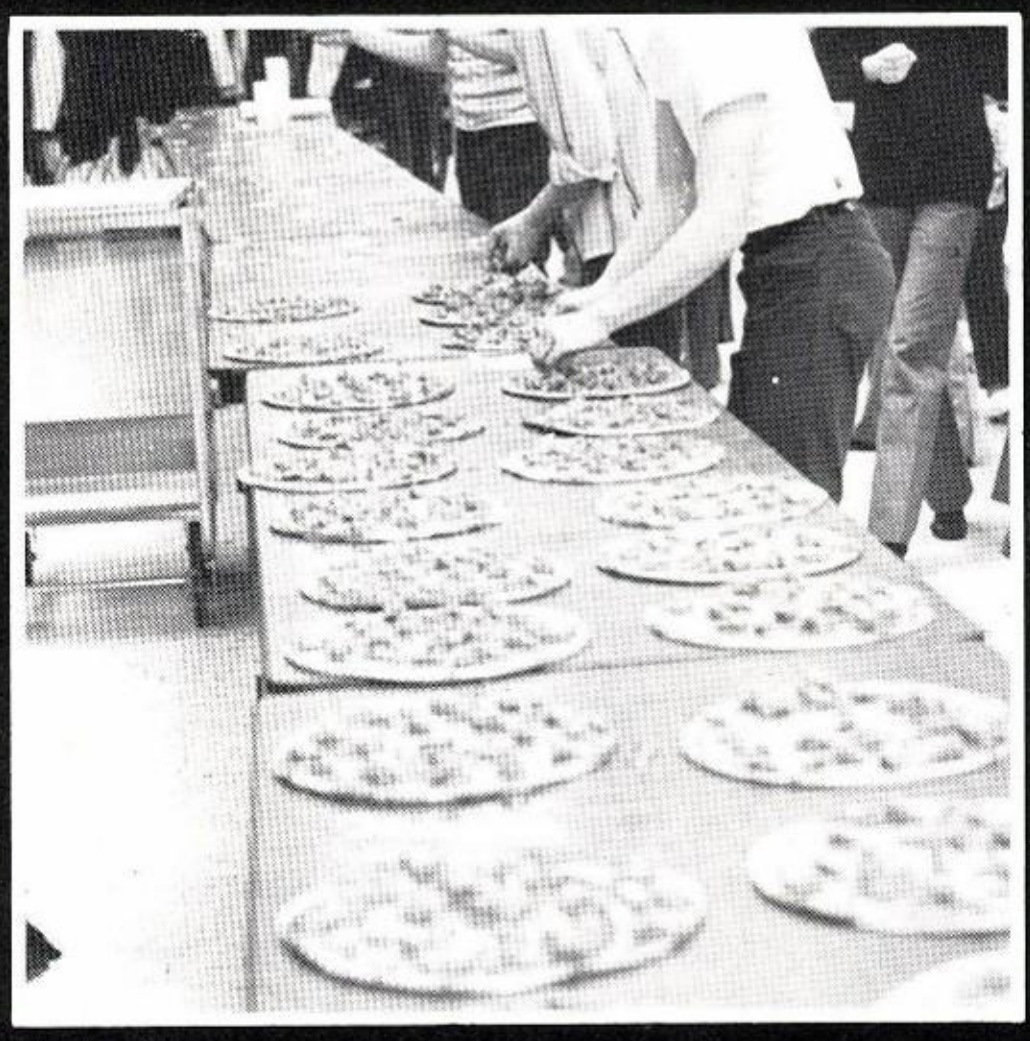
Spirit is an improtant part of all phases of life at ML. Spirited fans have cheered the football and basketball teams on to many victories. Participants and spectators alike take pride in their school and show it by displaying their talents. Cheerleaders and Pom-Pom girls generate an all-around feeling of spirit among the crowds. The most important feel- at ML, however, is the spirit of Peace through Christ as the banner displays. It is this peace that lays the groundwork for the pride that ML students have in their school.

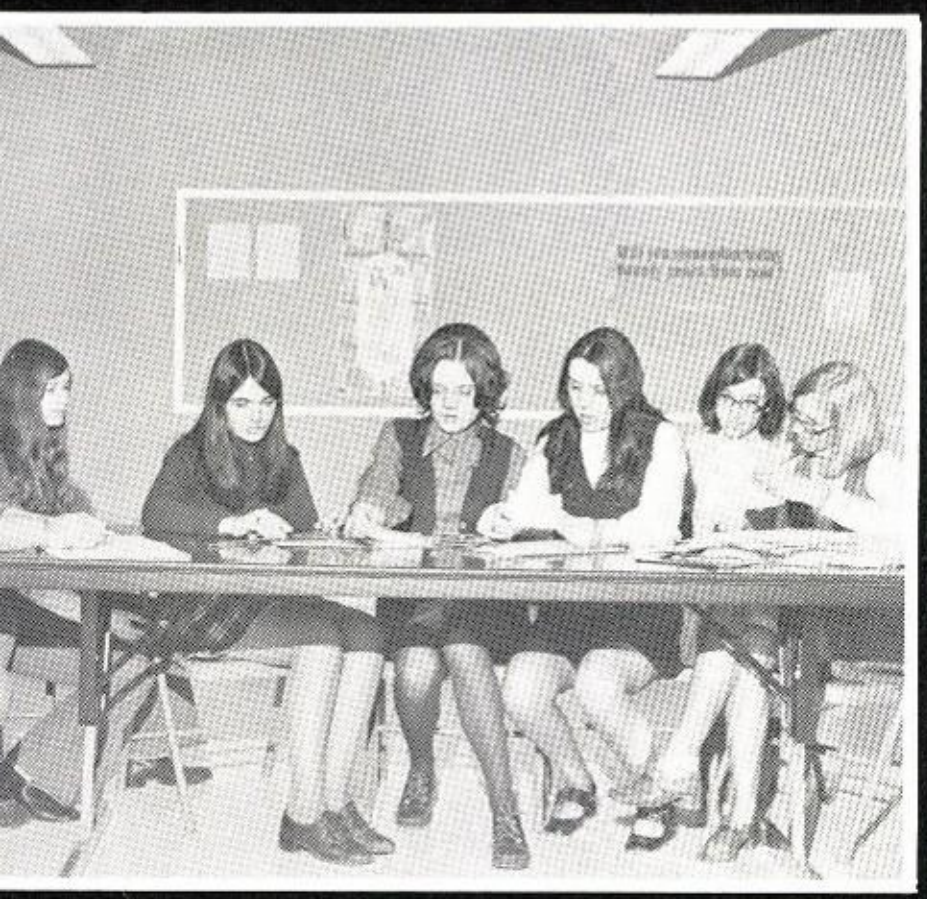


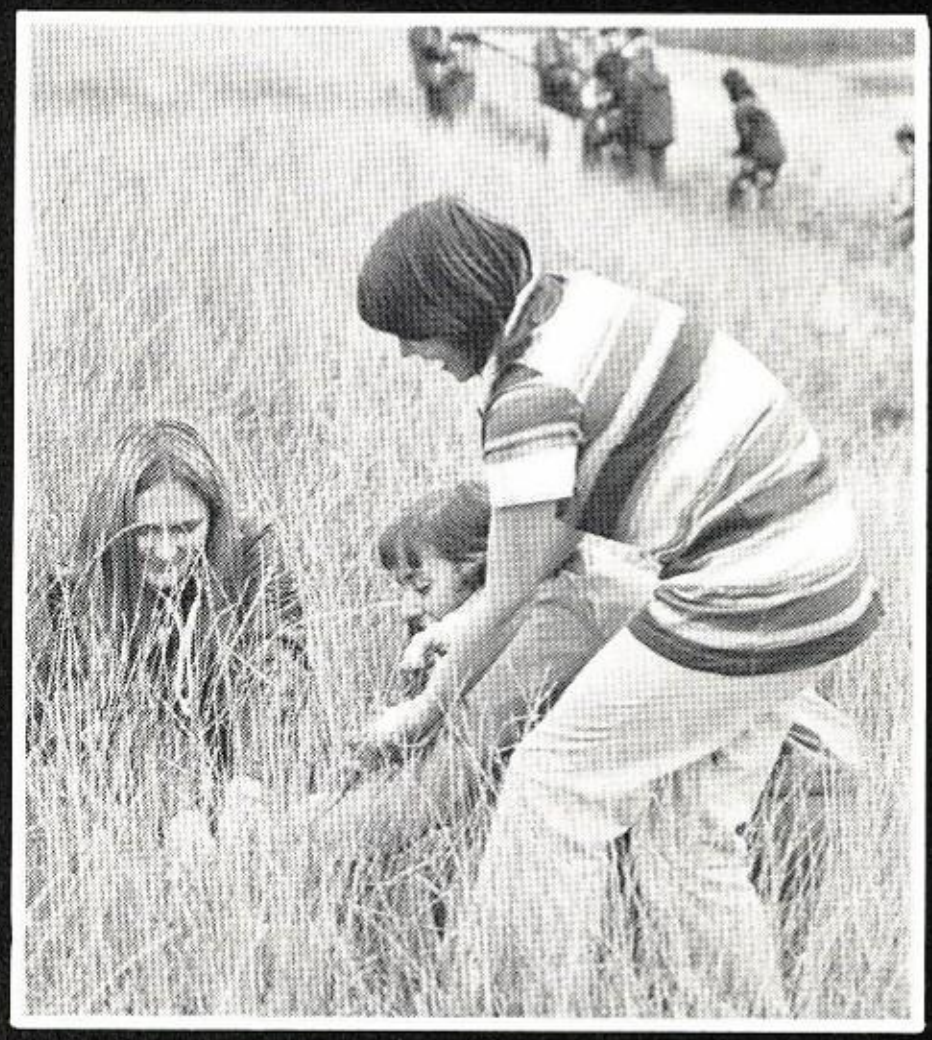


A Time to Work





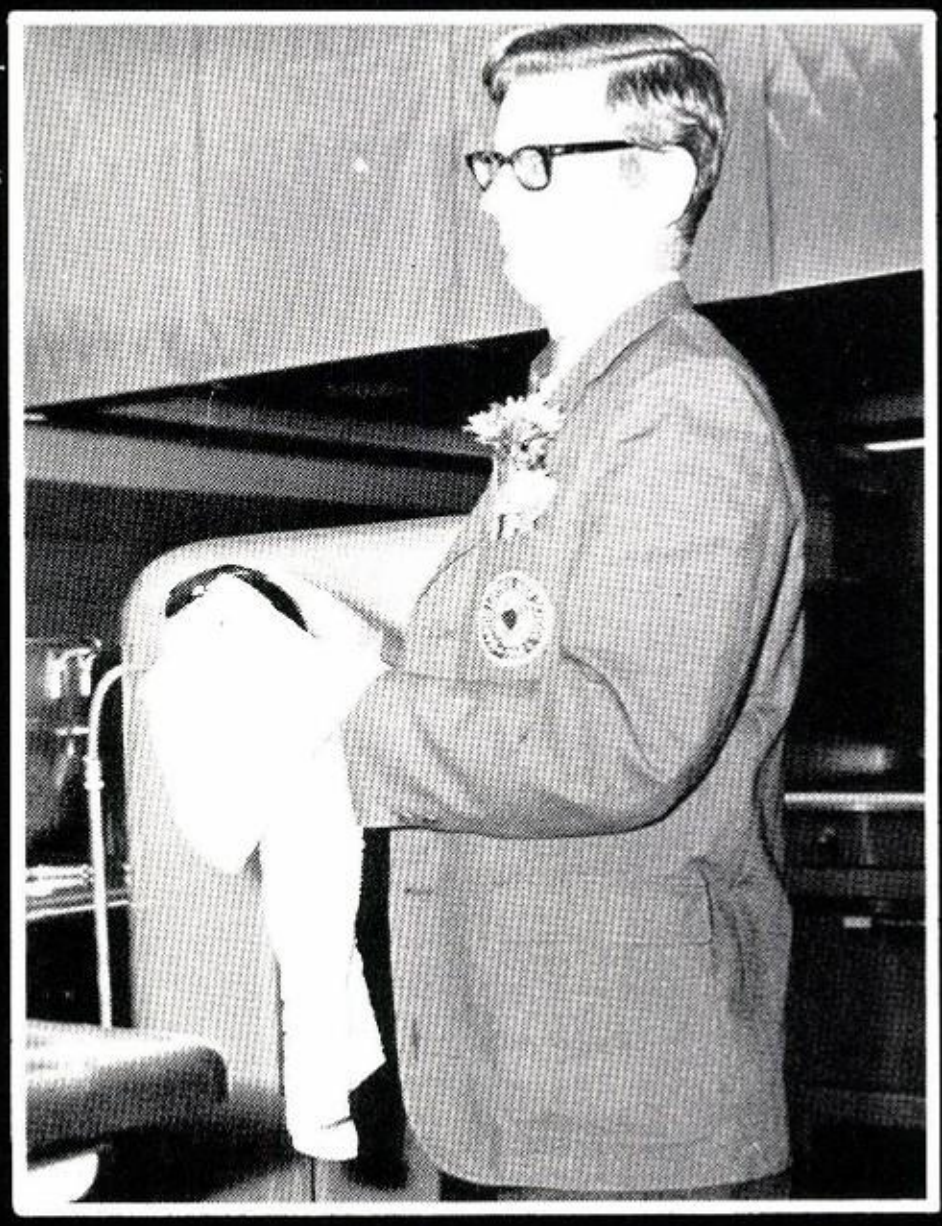


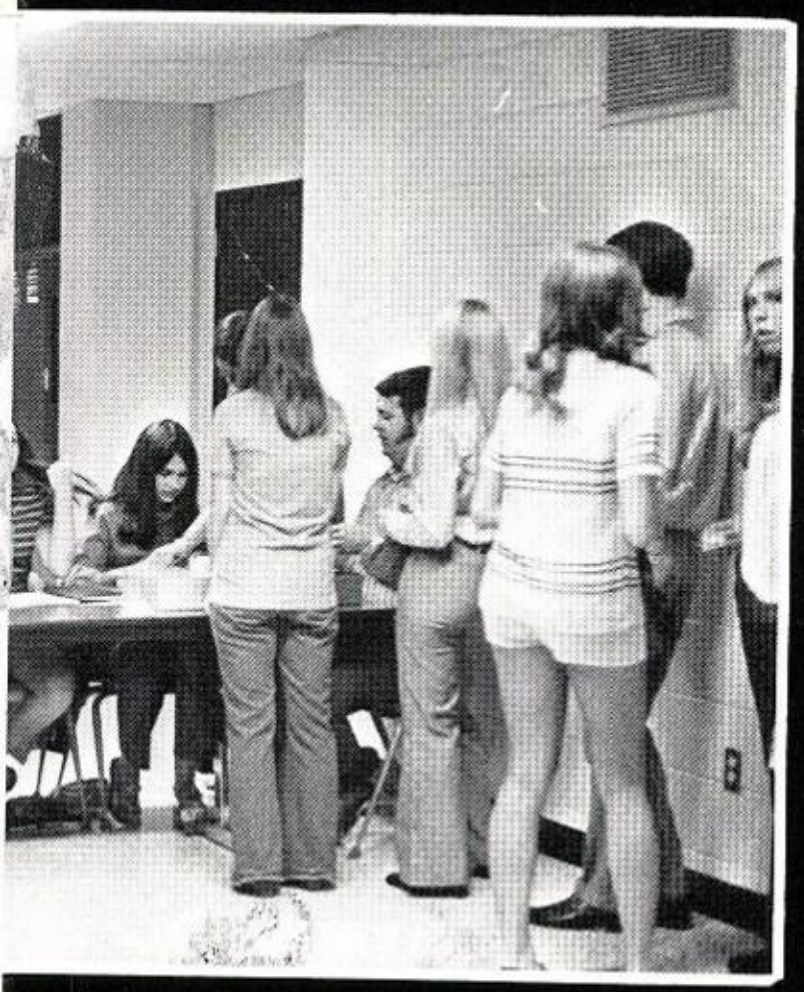


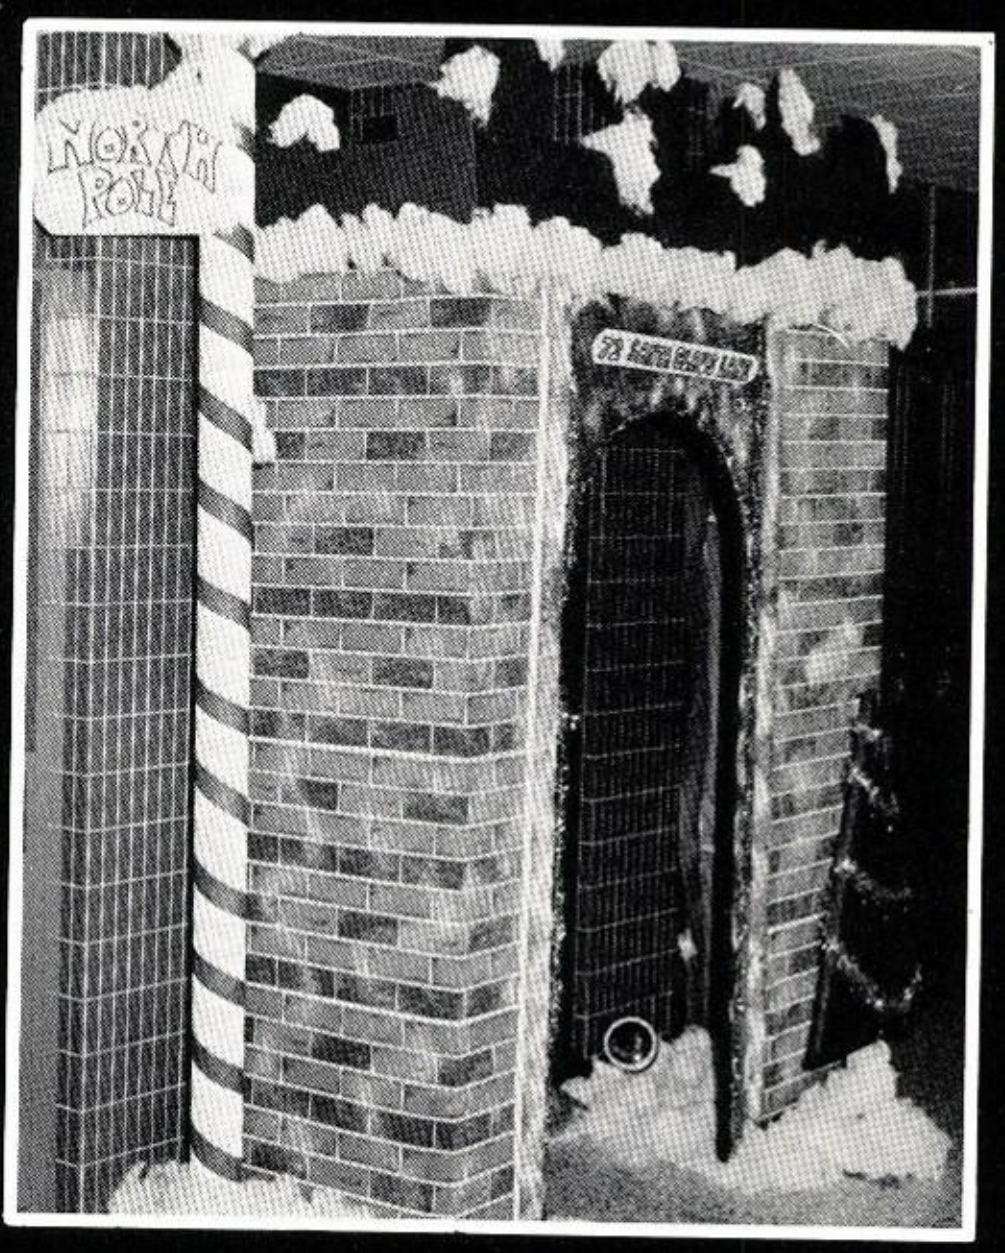
ML students work outside of school, too. Making pizzas (UPPER LEFT AND LOWER CENTER) was a long, monotonous process, but at the same time was a lot of fun. Many students and parents pitched in to get the job done and make the Pizza Sale worthwhile. The Phalanx staff (UPPER CENTER) puts in many hours of work to make up a good yearbook. Mr. Gabler gives up a great deal of time to be the advisor. Arbor Day (UPPER RIGHT AND LOWER LEFT) proved to be a big success when everyone did their part to clean up around school. Al Wiel (LOWER RIGHT) counts out the chapel collection.

A Time to Have Fun

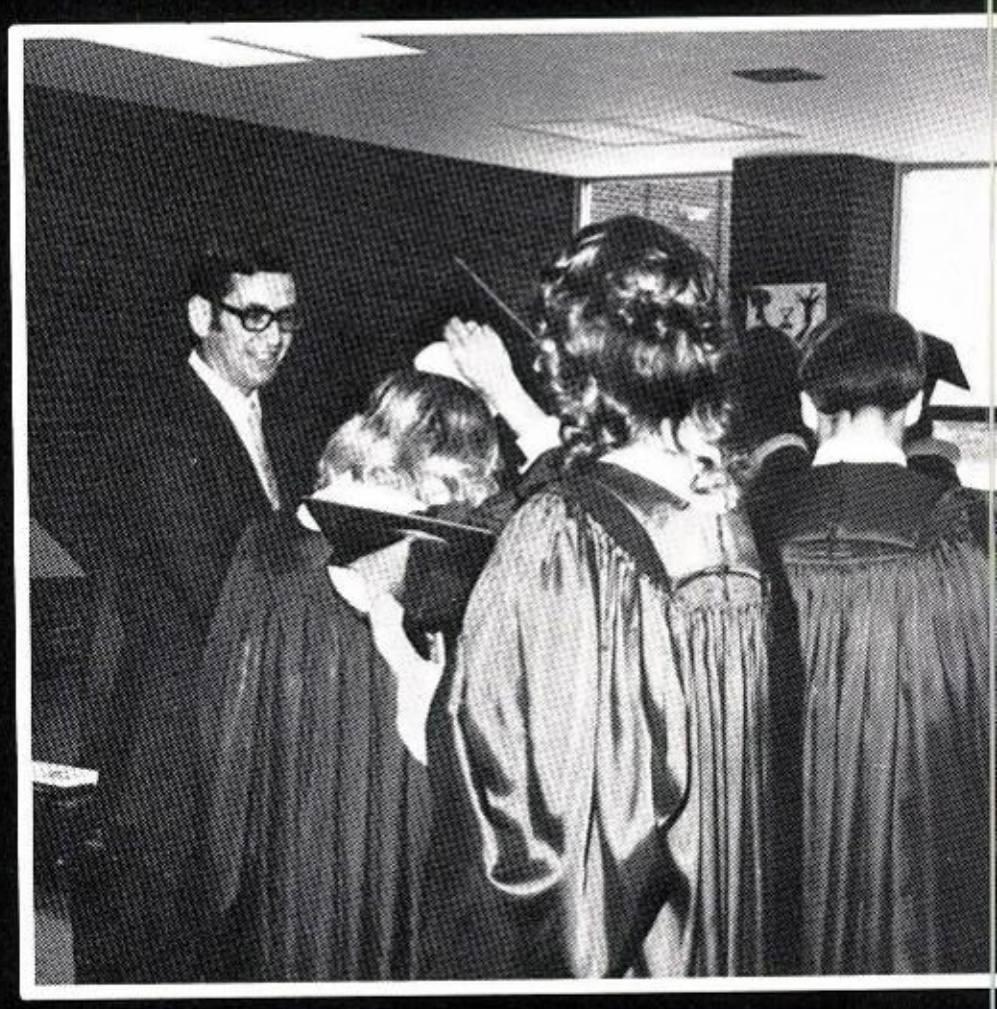
There's a time for fun at ML too. Whether it takes the form of a football game, a troubador performance, a yearbook dance, decorating a homeroom, or making posters to raise the spirits of a crowd of spectators, all is done in the Christian spirit of having fun. Teachers as well as students take part in turning a job into something less tiresome.







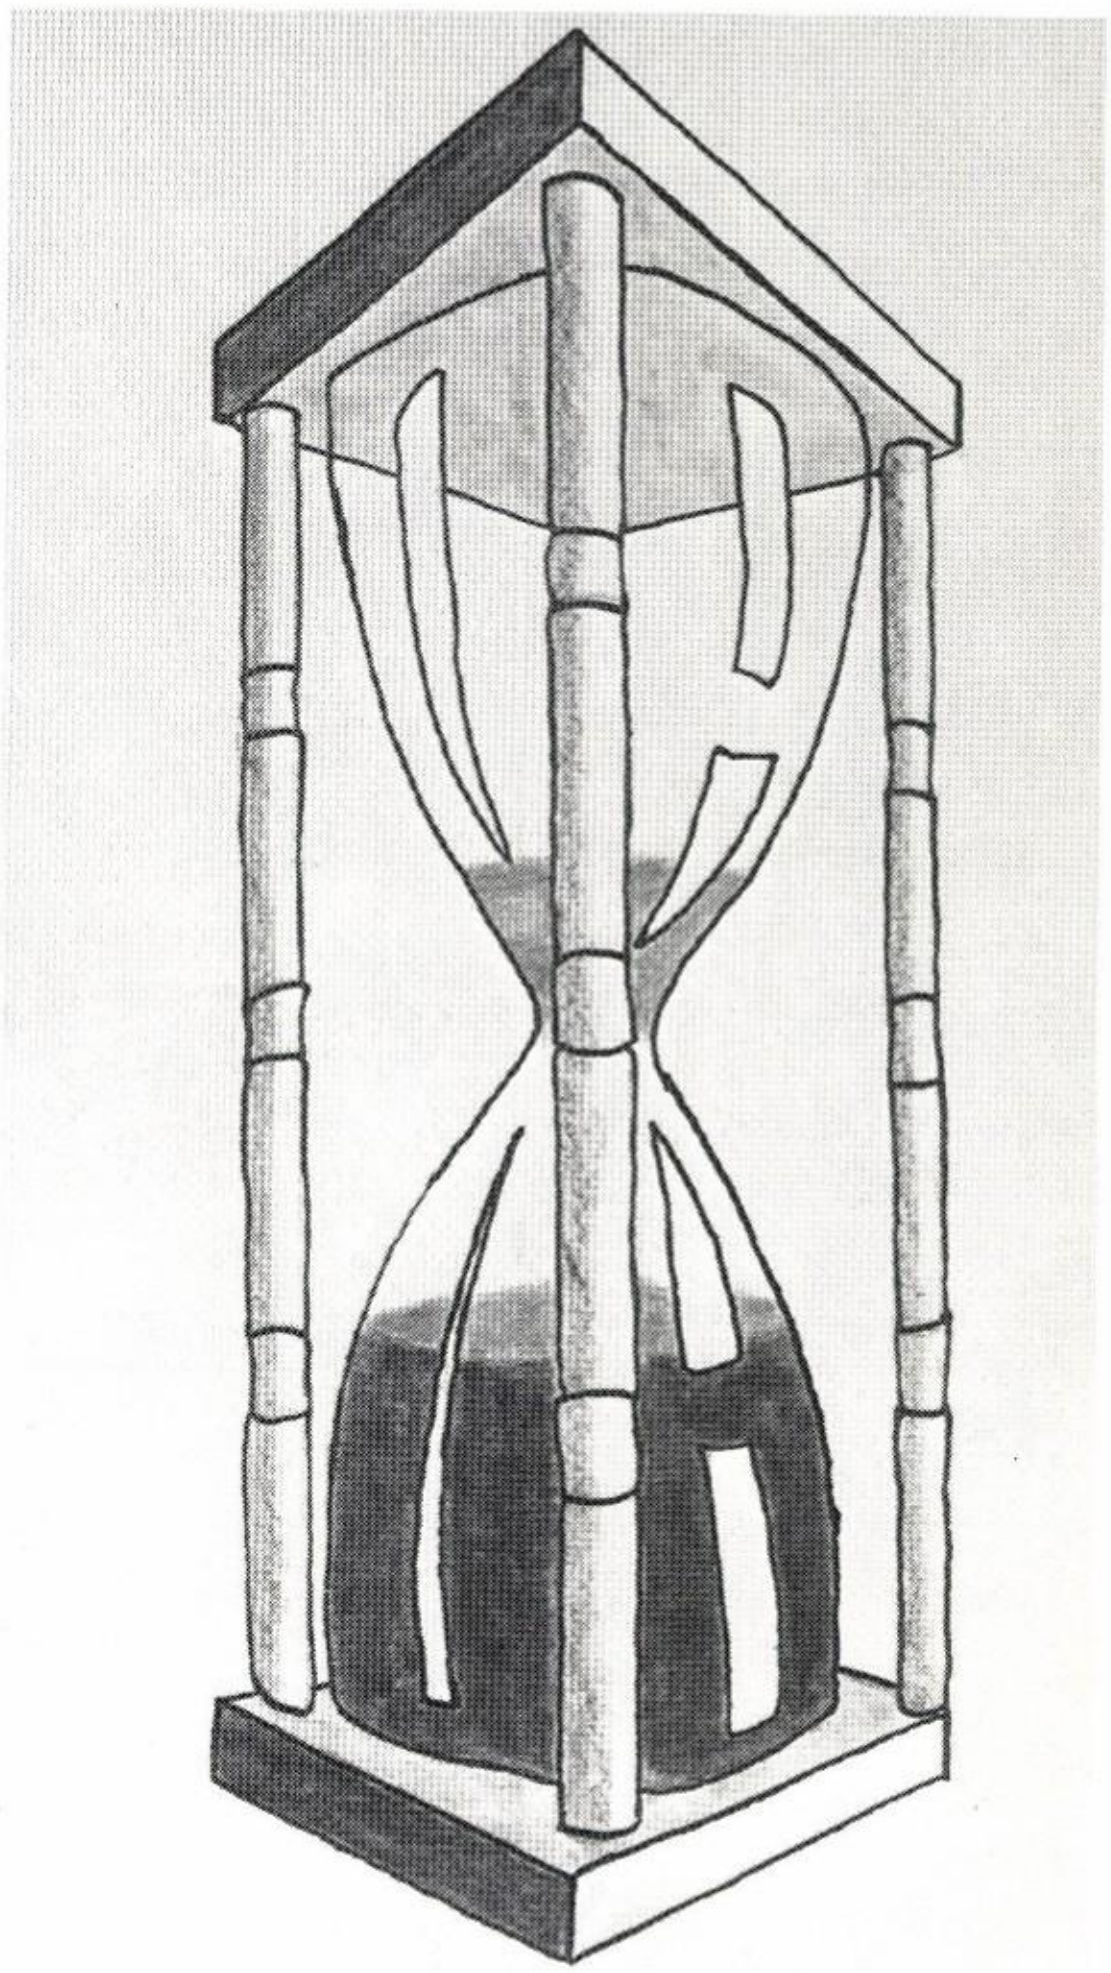
NORTH POLE



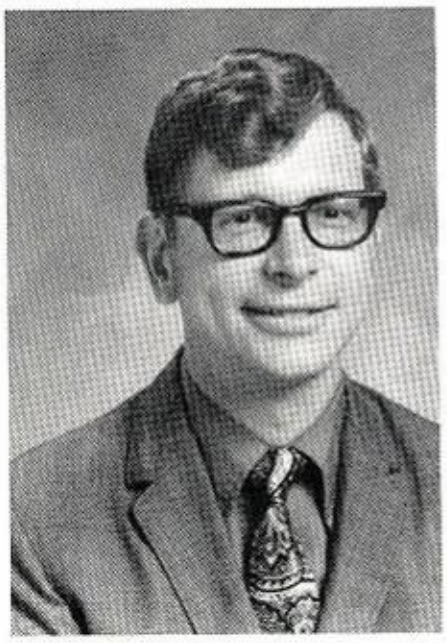
A Time to Say Good-Bye

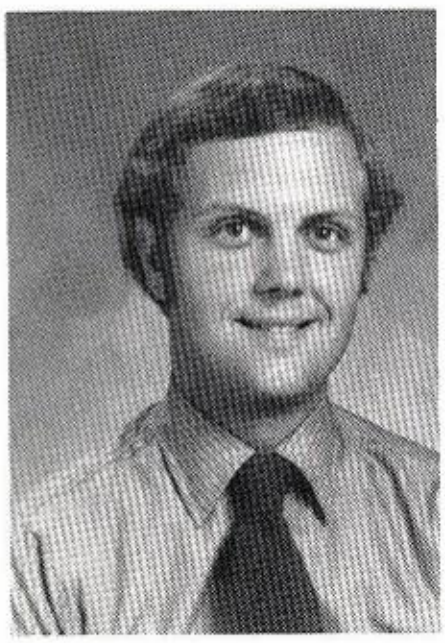
It has been said that all good things must come to an end. For 55 students, high school life at ML ended with gra graduation. The first first class to have completed four years at ML said good-bye to their teachers and fellow students.

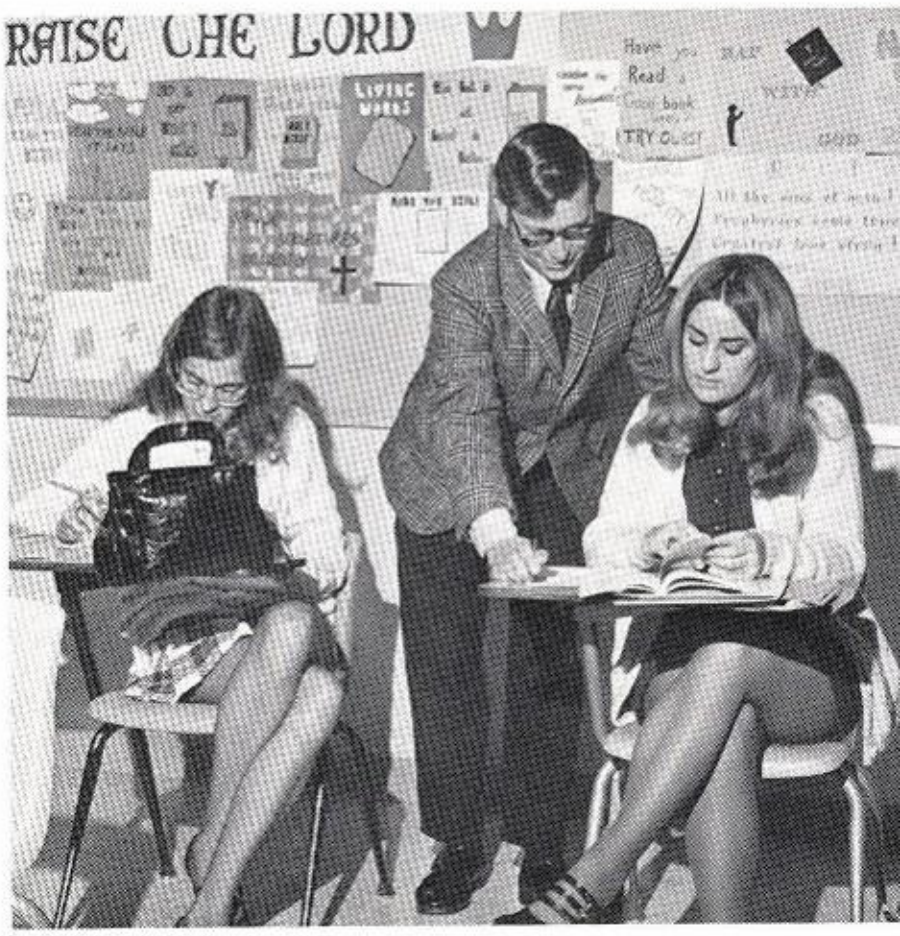
Along with the graduates, Martin Luther is seeing other students and teachers move on to other cities and higher positions. To all these people, we wish God's love and blessings and look forward to the day when we will be reunited.



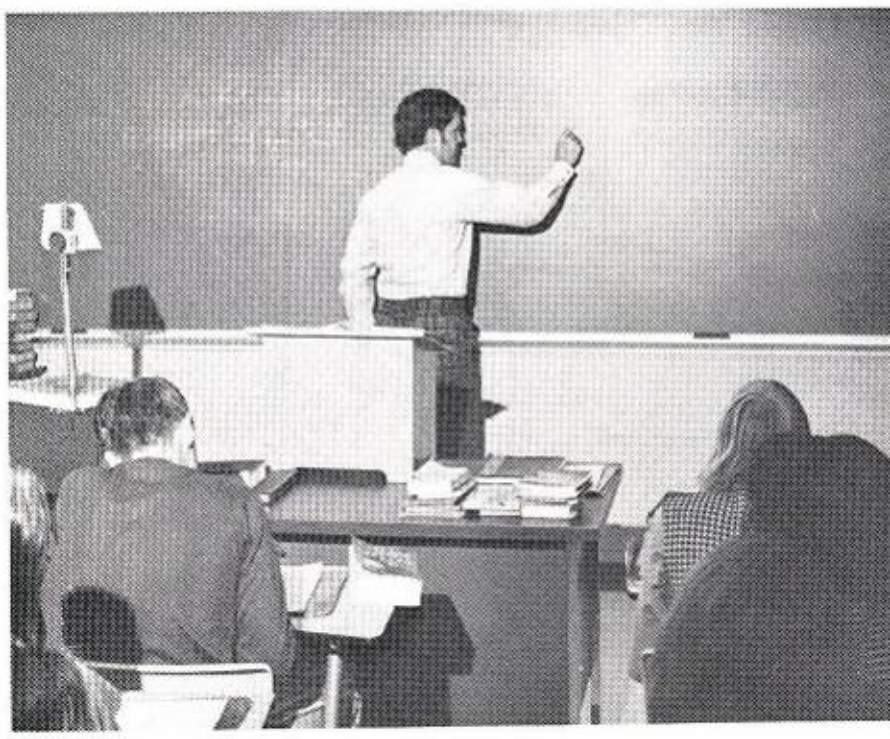
A TIME TO INSTRUCT



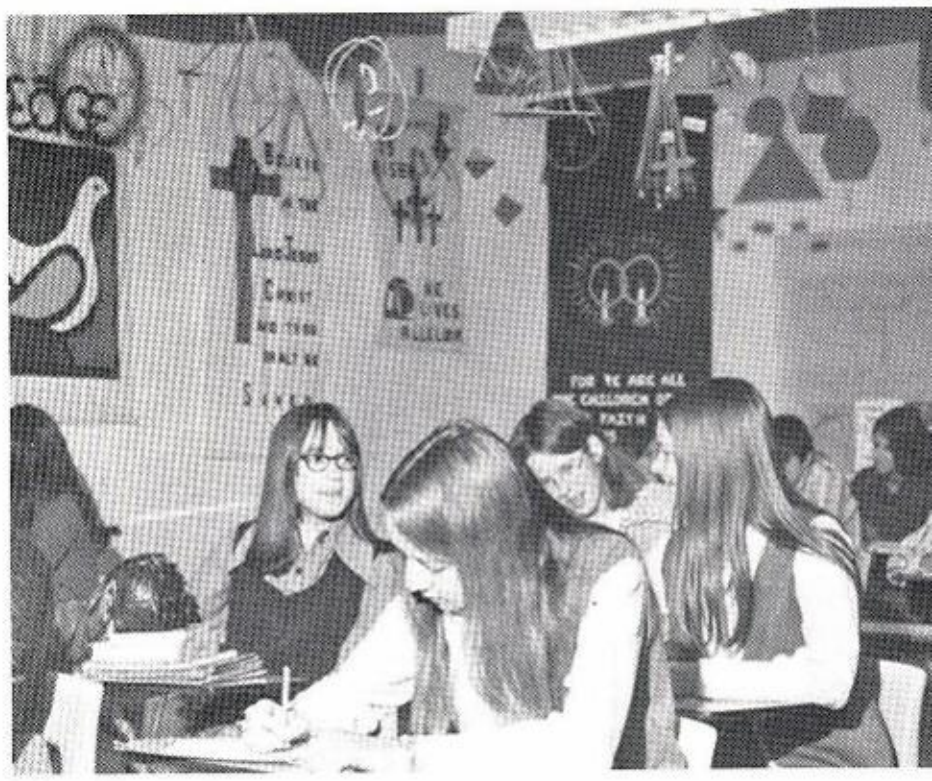




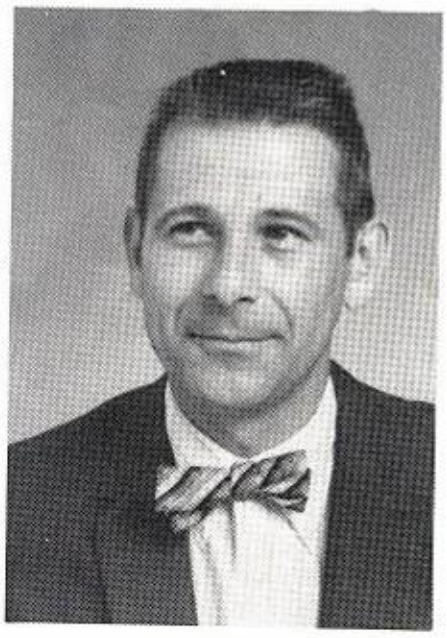
Religion

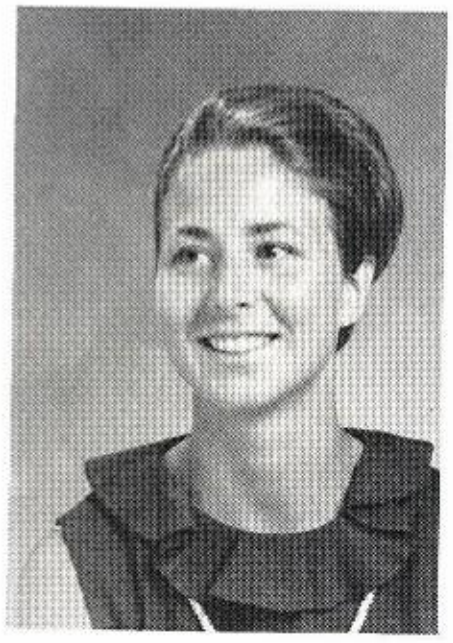


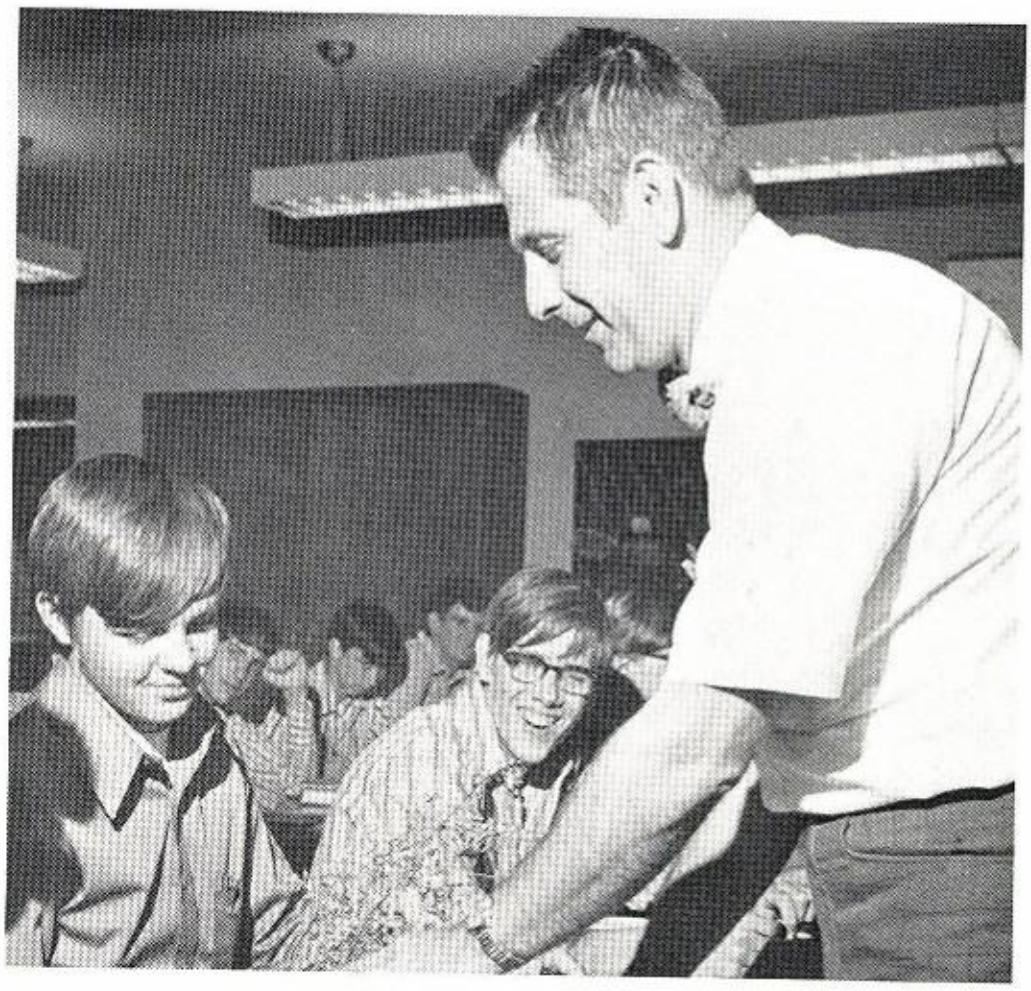
"In our religion courses at Martin Luther we attempt to be meaningful to each and every student whether he or she is up or down in spirit, enthusiastic or bored, sharp or dull, alive or apathetic, in or out with classmates, sociable or unsociable. To meet these varied circumstances in every student, who is a unique creation of God, is "Mission: Impossible" for any teacher or any curriculum designed. And yet each and every one of us, as different in looks, feelings, and circumstances of life as we may be, have basic needs around which our religion courses are centered. First of all the need to remember daily that we sin much against God and our fellow man and deserve nothing but God's wrath and punishment. Our second need (whether we are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, or teachers) is to remember daily that God forgives our sin, even that of poor spirit, boredom, dullness, and apathy toward God and toward our fellow men. We constantly need to be asking and finding answers for two questions about our Religion classes: 1) Do religion courses apply to the personal religious life of the students? 2) Do the students apply religion courses to their personal religious life?

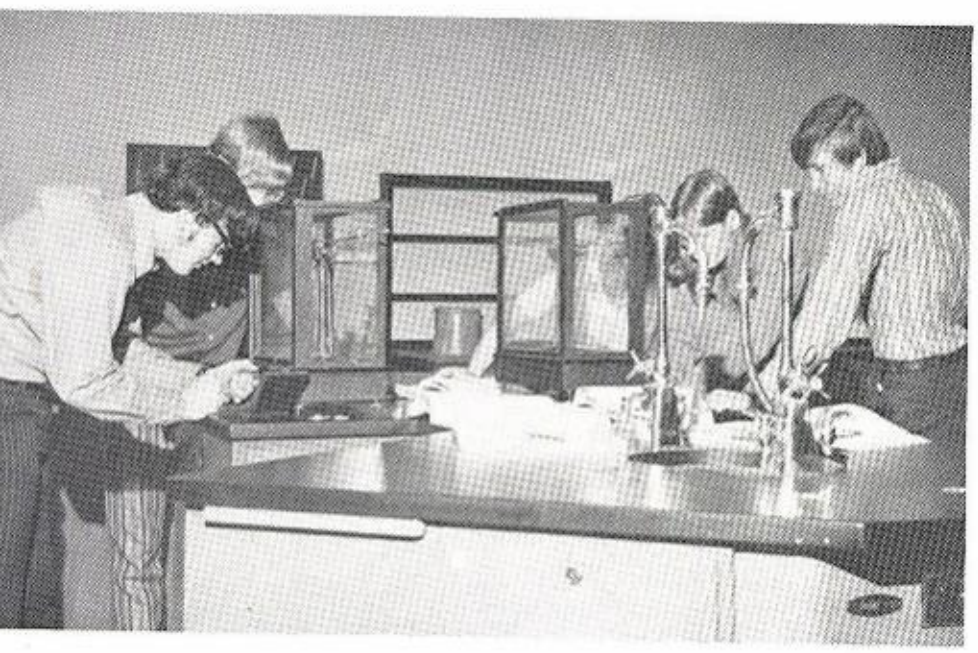


Science





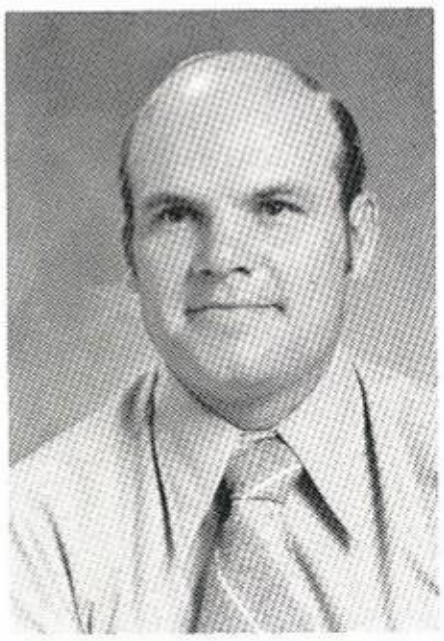


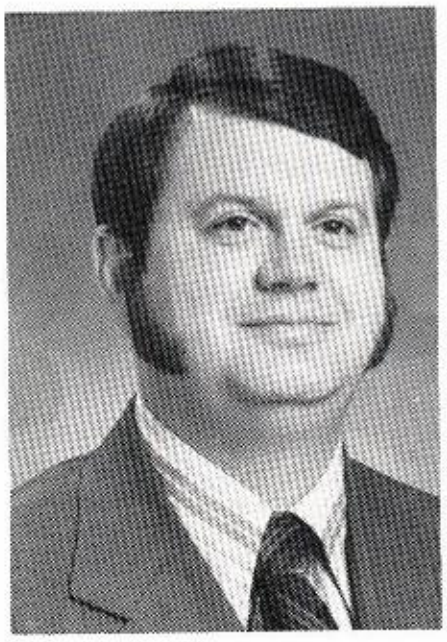


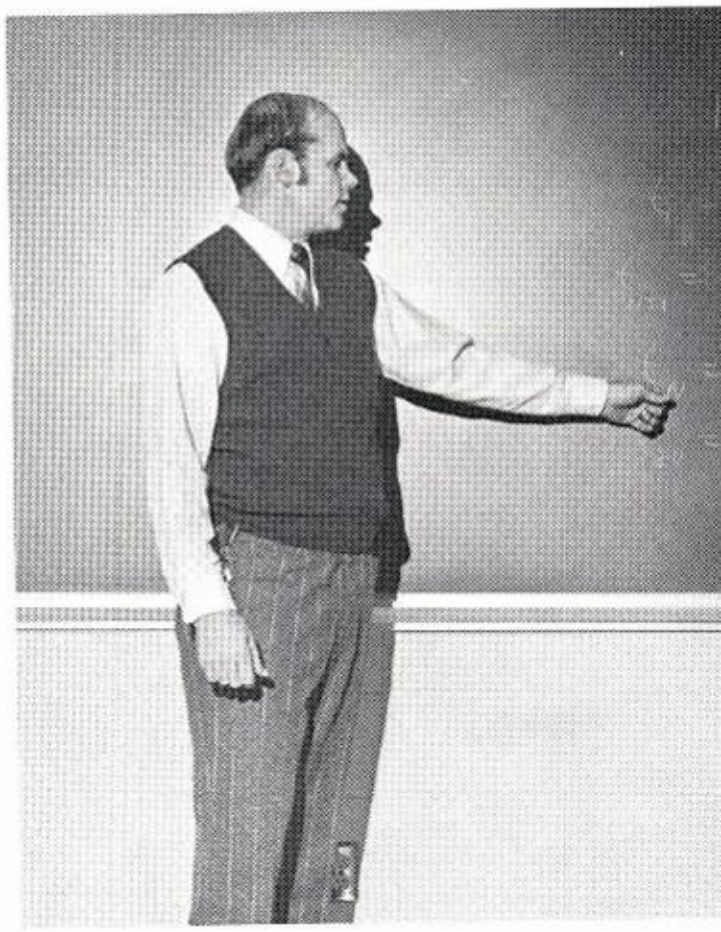
"In all science courses, the ultimate goal or objective is to acquaint the student with the elements of God's creation as it applies to the areas of science thereby enabling the student to recognize God's omniscient, creative power as well as His love and graciousness in maintaining this universe. With this knowledge in science, the student hopefully will feel a compelling desire to praise God for the products of His creation and endeavor to better serve Him in whatever manner or field his God-given talents direct. It is hoped that an exposure to both the physical and biological sciences will enable the student to better adjust to his life here on earth and aid in the choosing of the vocation of his preference."

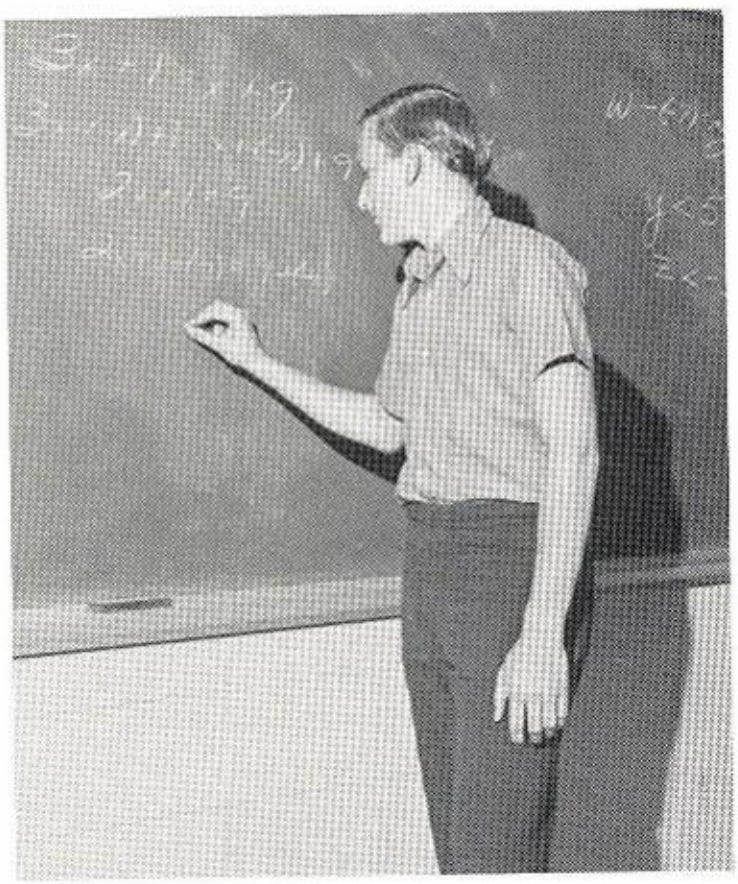
Mr. R. Schneider

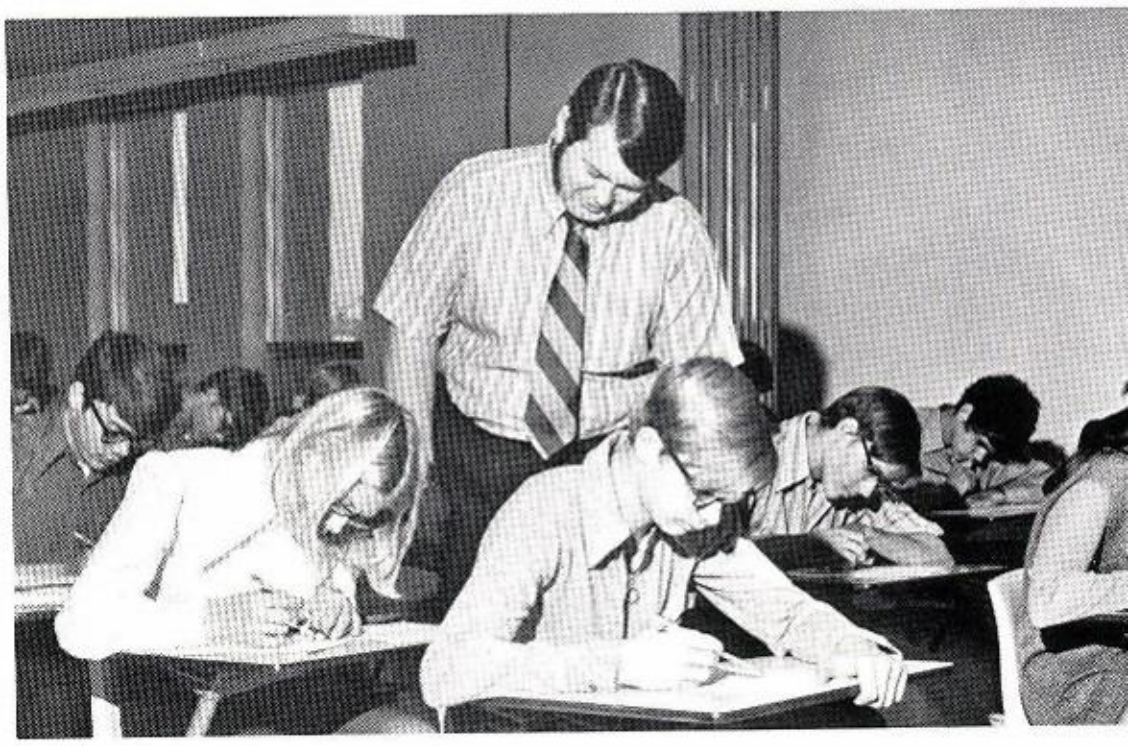
Mathematics





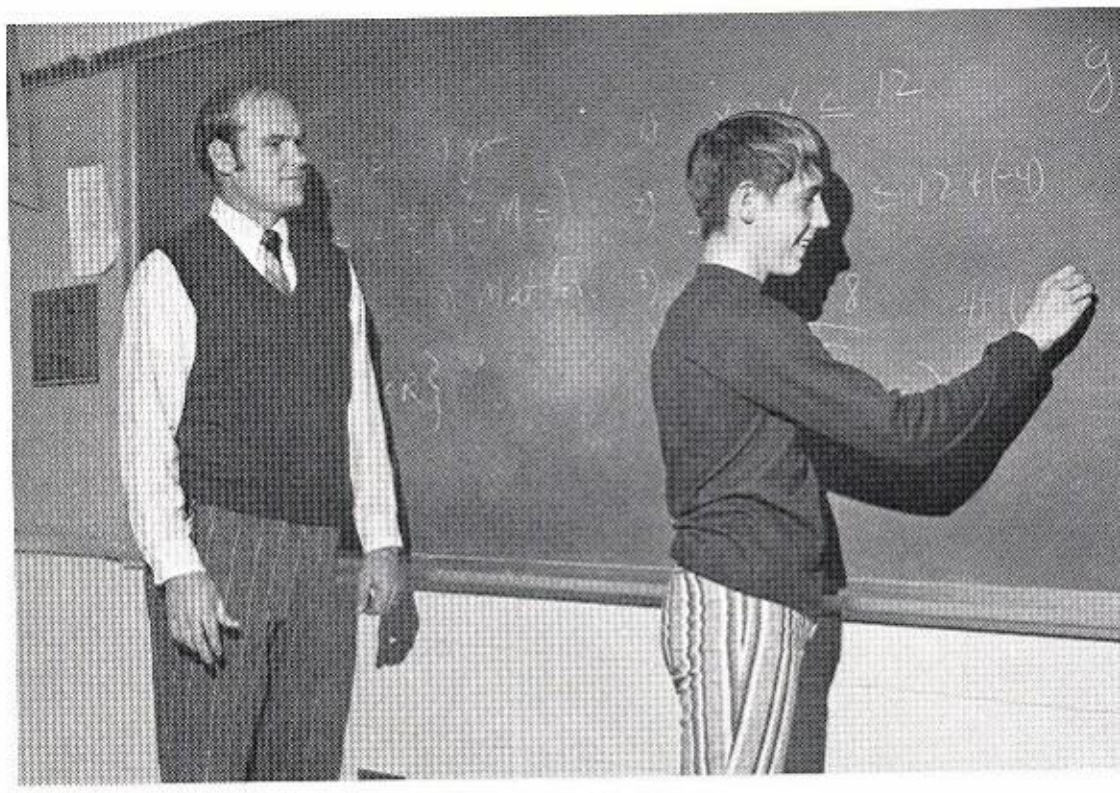


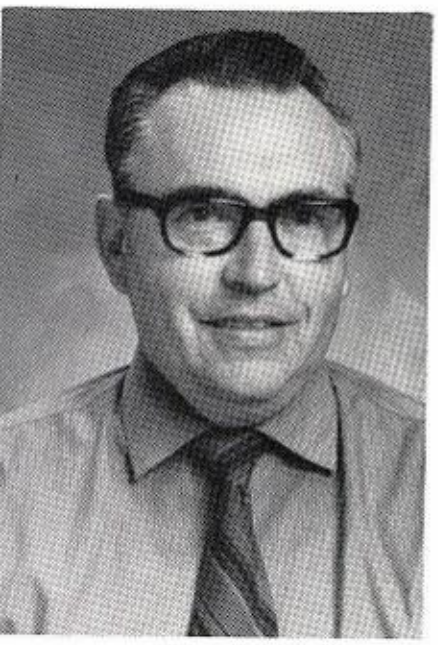


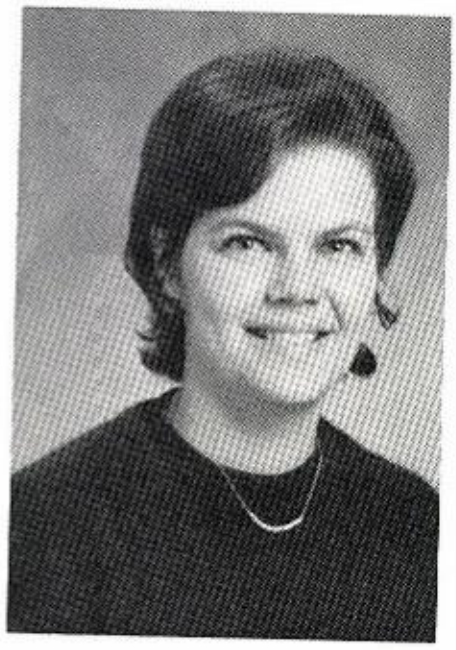


"Mental discipline is a distinctive characteristic in man which is learned, not inherited. Every student, especially those not going on to college, should continually strive to develop this important quality. Upper level mathematics or science, foreign languages, or any other highly academic courses are excellent means for achieving this asset. A person's success is not determined by what he makes in life, but by what he gives. Mental discipline on the part of students will lead them to richer discoveries, and a more productive and meaningful life."

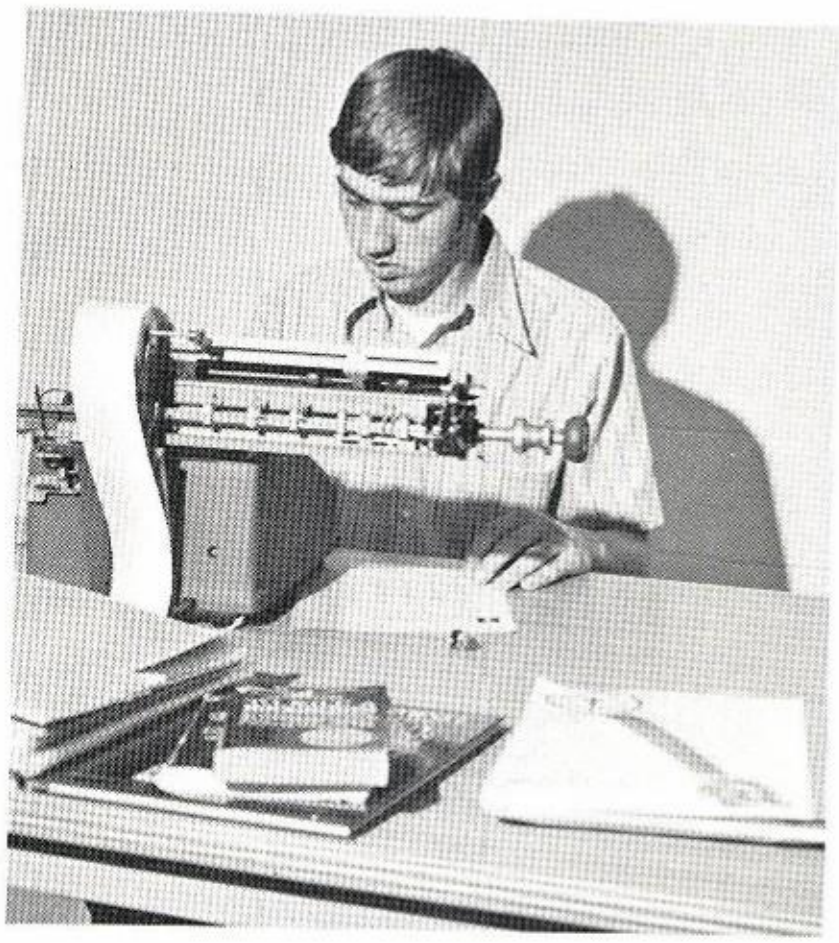
MR. MANGELS

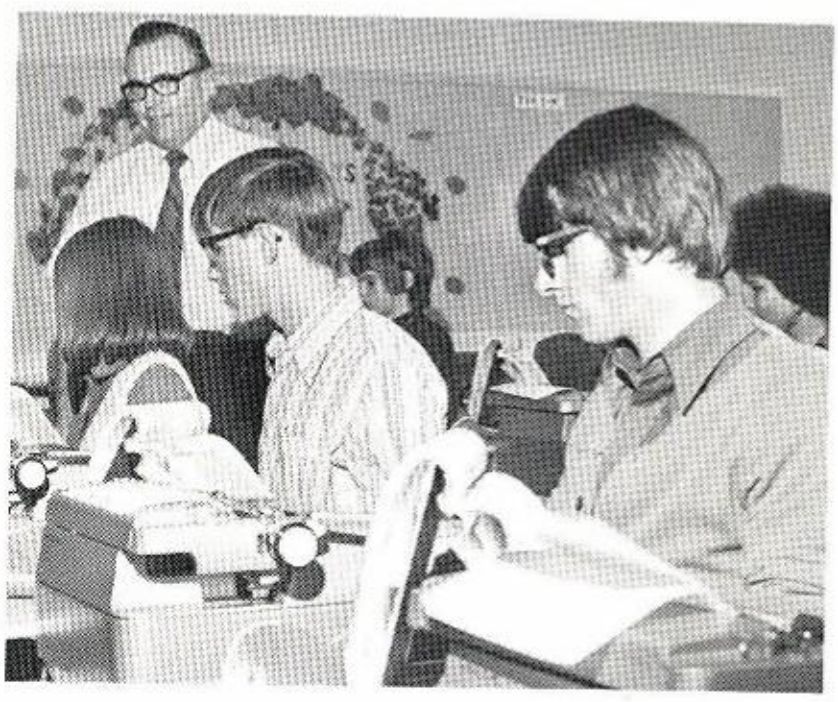






Business



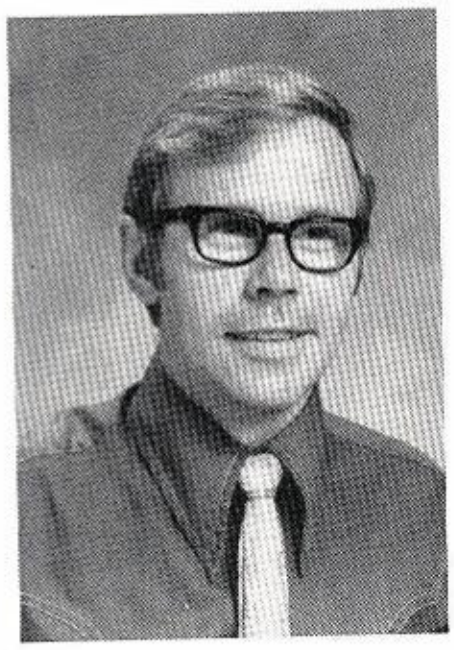


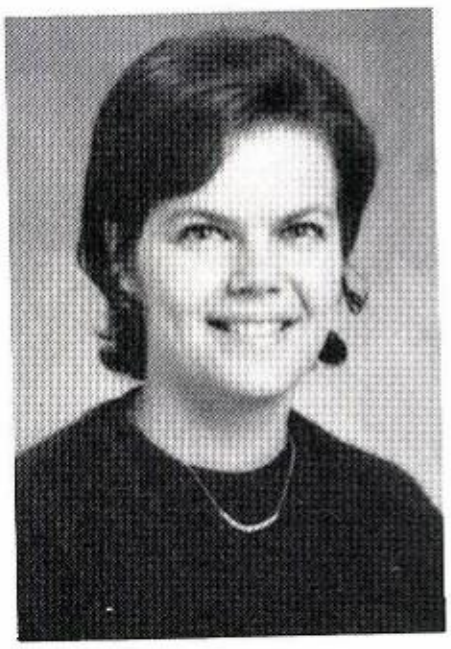
"The development of the computor age of the sixties has so affected the business machines field that it is difficult to place priorities. Programs in vocational schools and office education can be taken by the dozens as automation continues to develop. However, contrary to popular belief, automation has created more jobs but it also requires all of us to be more of a specialist. This necessitates retraining at all age levels."

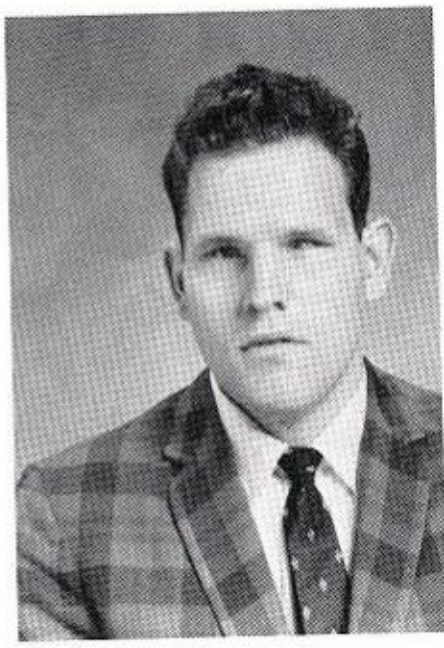
"At the present time, business machines can be classified as hand operated, electro-mechanical, and electronic. All these types are still being used with the trend toward electronics. So, in a high-school situation, it means we must remain flexible but still offer the opportunity for employability with a basic skill on the various types of machines."

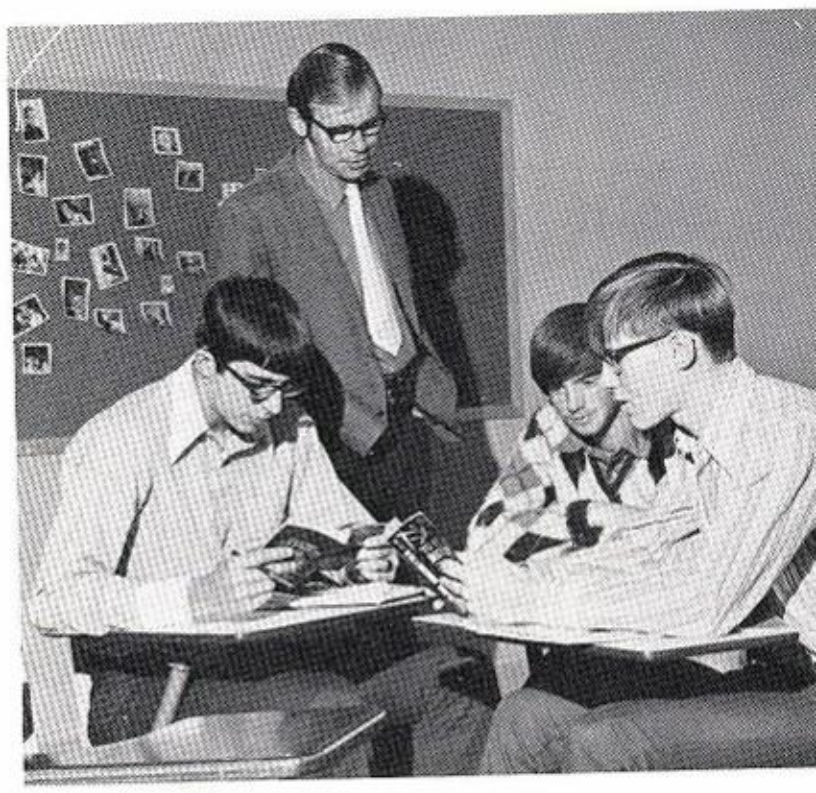
MR. HAFEMAN

English



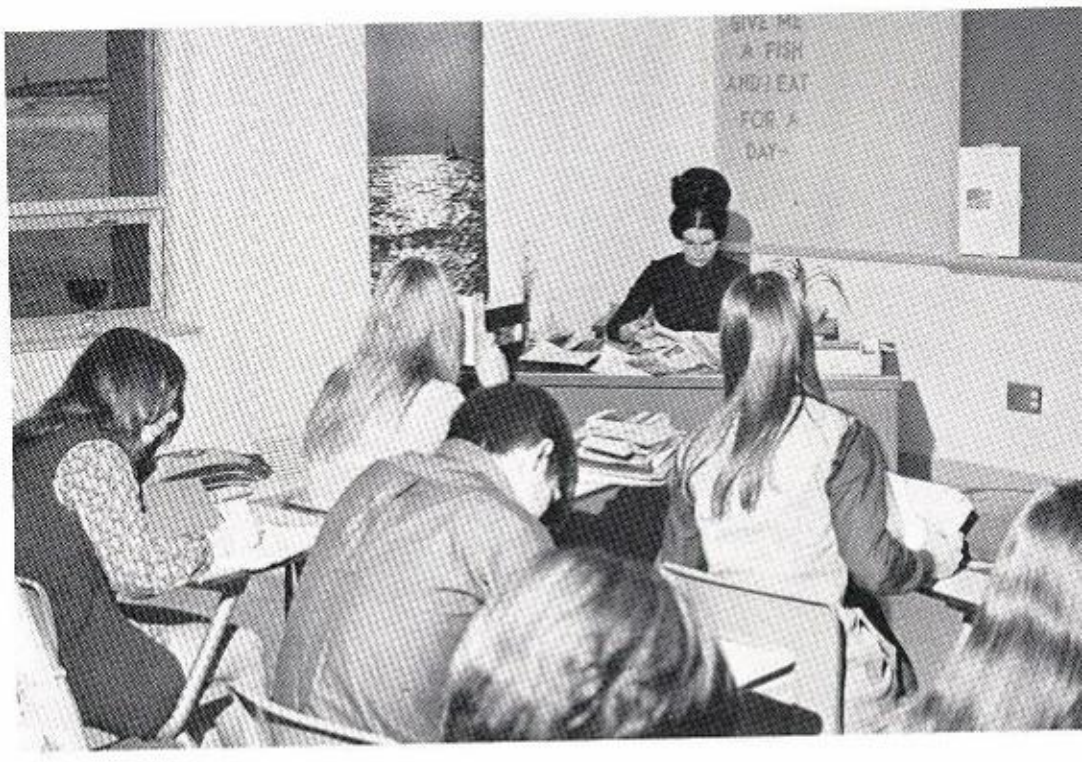


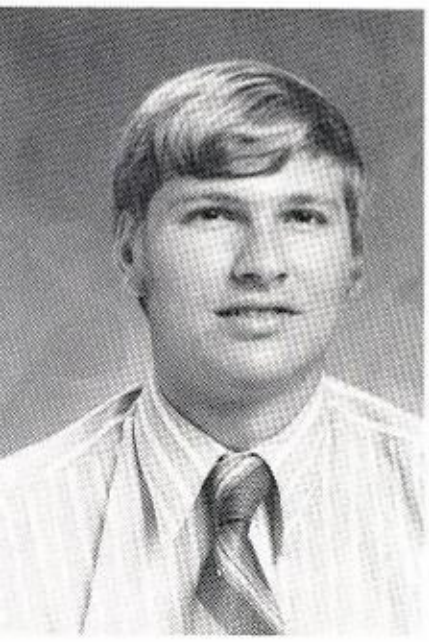


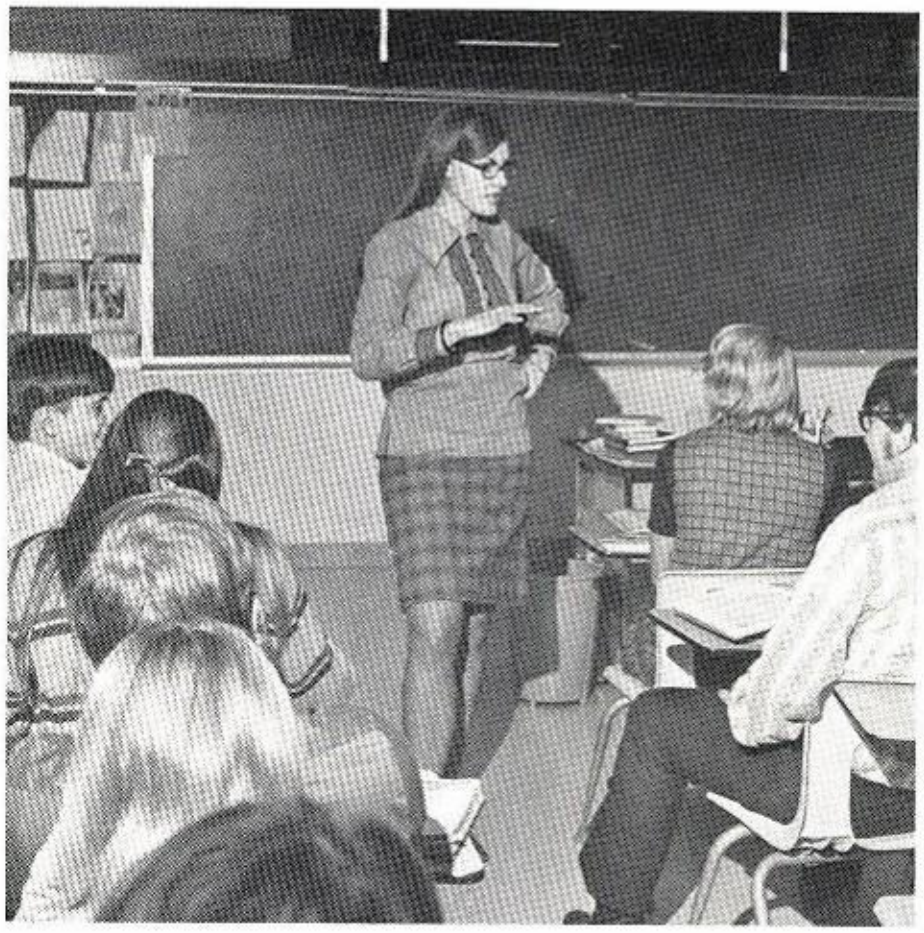


"Educators have argued long and loudly about what constitutes a "good" English program in the high school. There is little difficulty deciding WHAT we want to do - stated simply it's this: a graduate of our school should be able to read a paragraph and tell me what it says, and he should be able to write a paragraph so that I can tell what it says. OUR problem lies in HOW to get this task accomplished in four years. Our English department has chosen to stress the fundamentals of a language arts program; that is, reading, writing, mechanics, grammar, and vocabulary development."

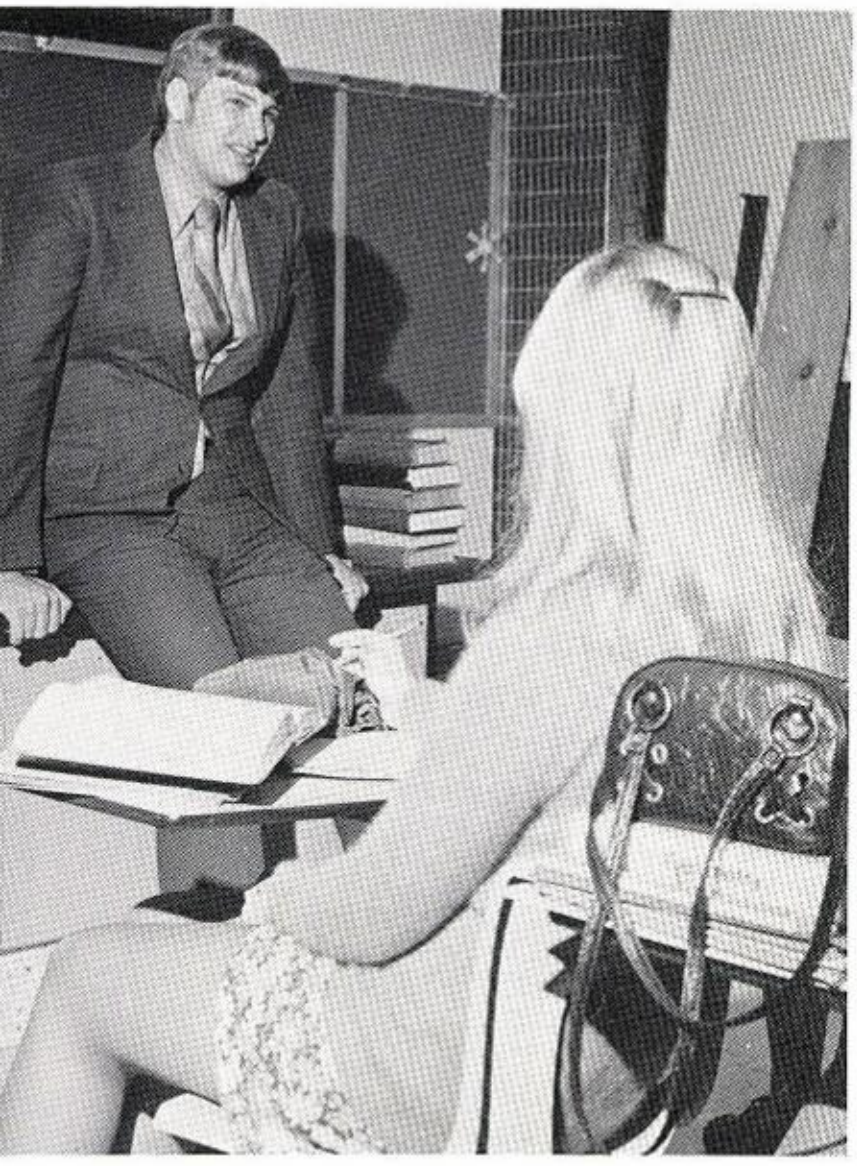
Mr. Halm







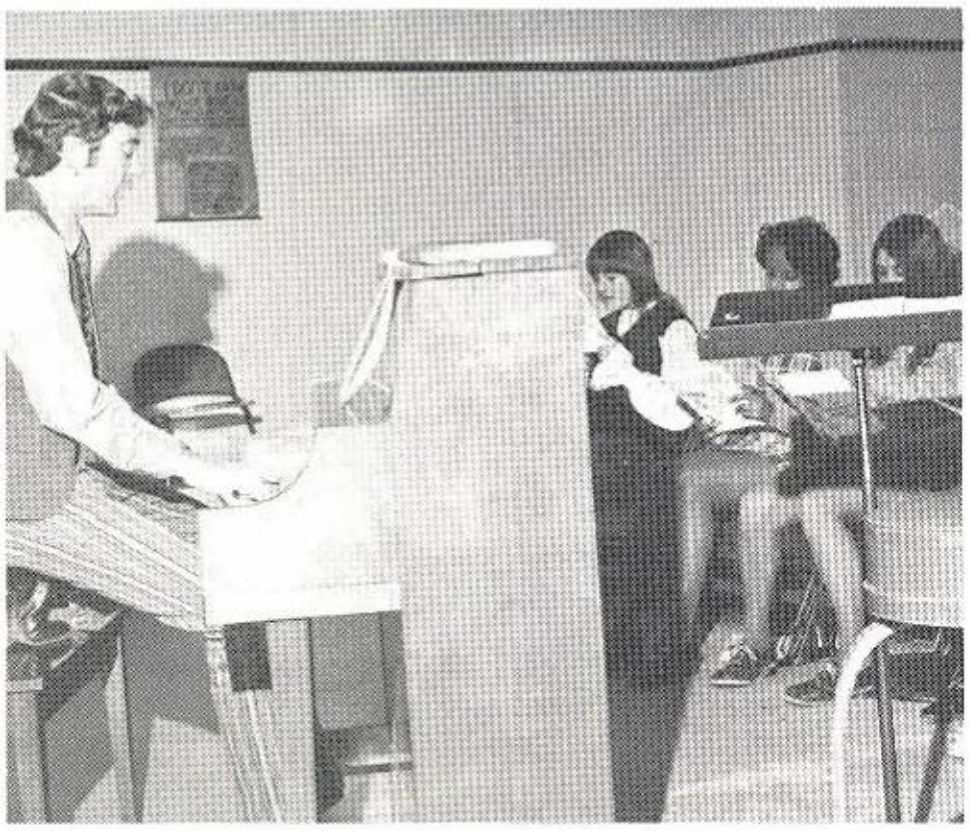
Social Science

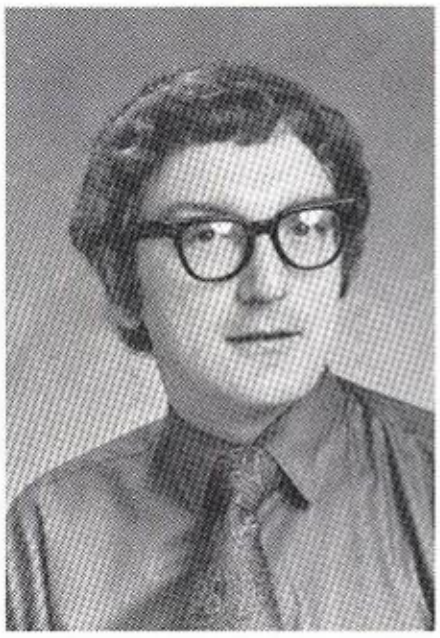


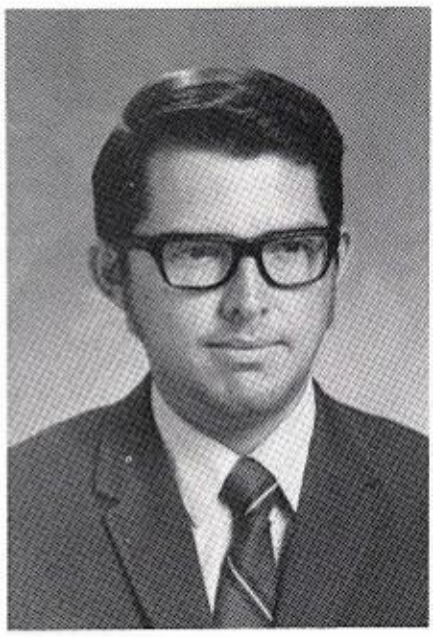
"In the past century the transportation and communication revolutions have caused the world to shrink smaller and smaller, but, at the same time, the problems of man have grown larger and more complex with each passing year. America can no longer use the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans to isolate itself from 'alien' philosophies and cultures, as we have done in the past when people have begun to question the basic values and beliefs of our society. In short, whether we be liberal or conservative we cannot afford the smug luxury of believing that we are always right and that if people do not totally agree with us, that they are therefore wrong. It is to this task of social re-education that the Martin Luther High School Social Studies Department is dedicated."

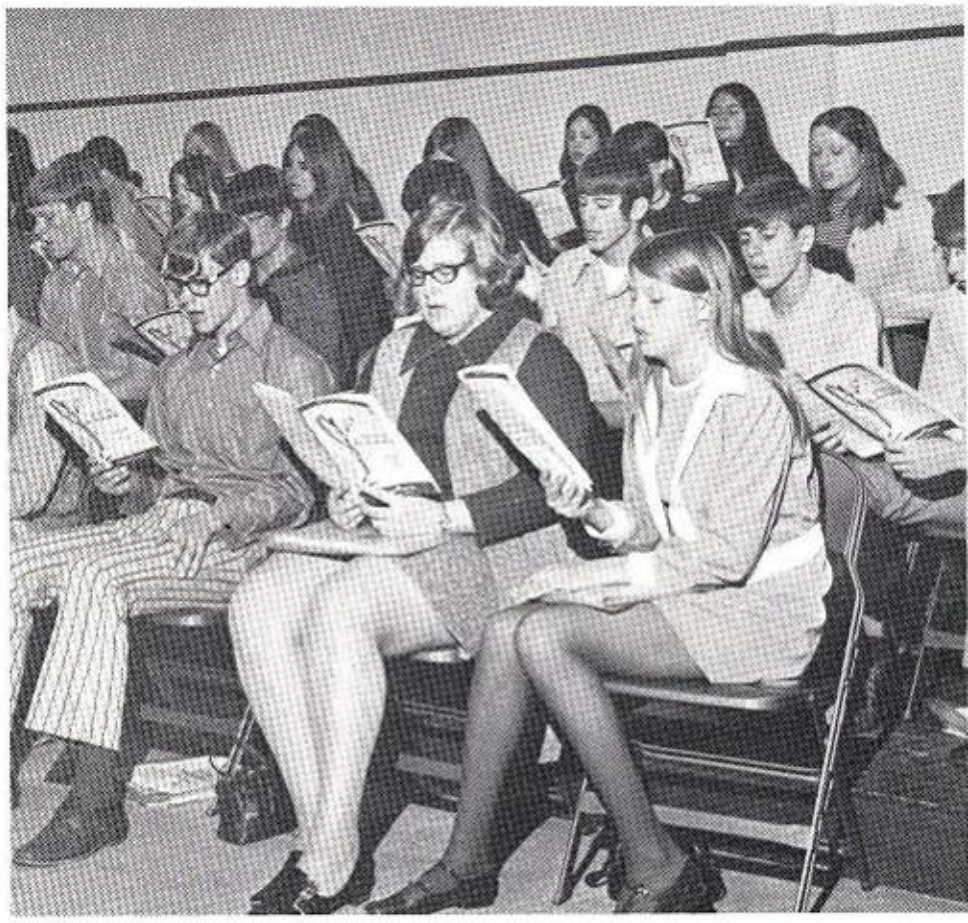
Mr. Heien

Music



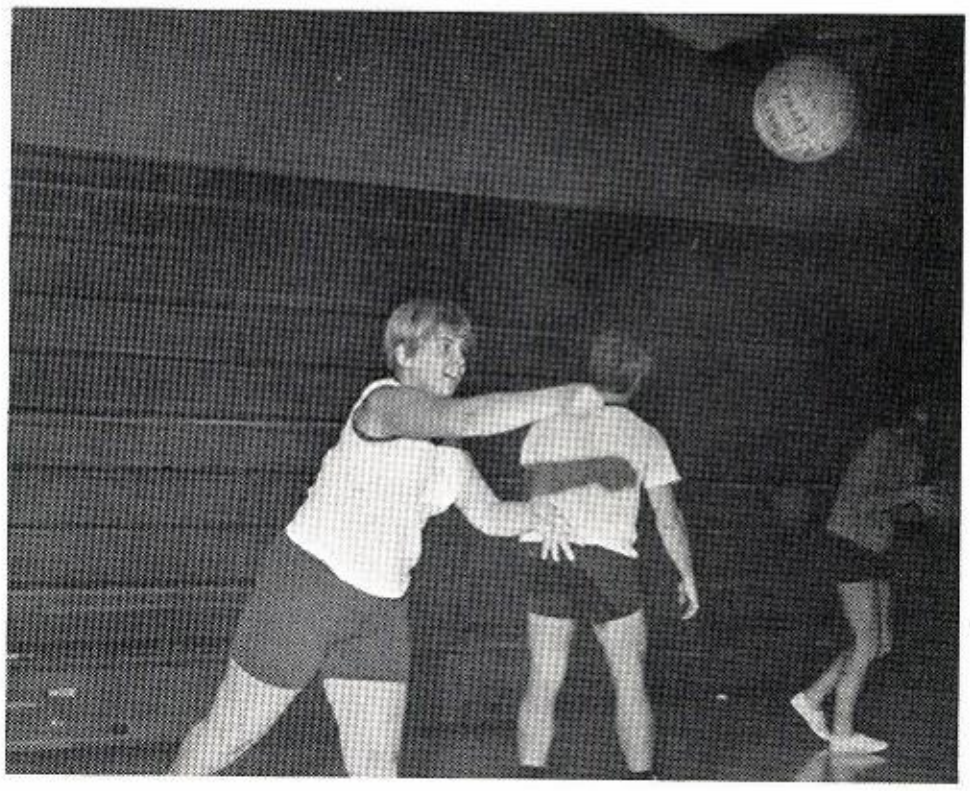


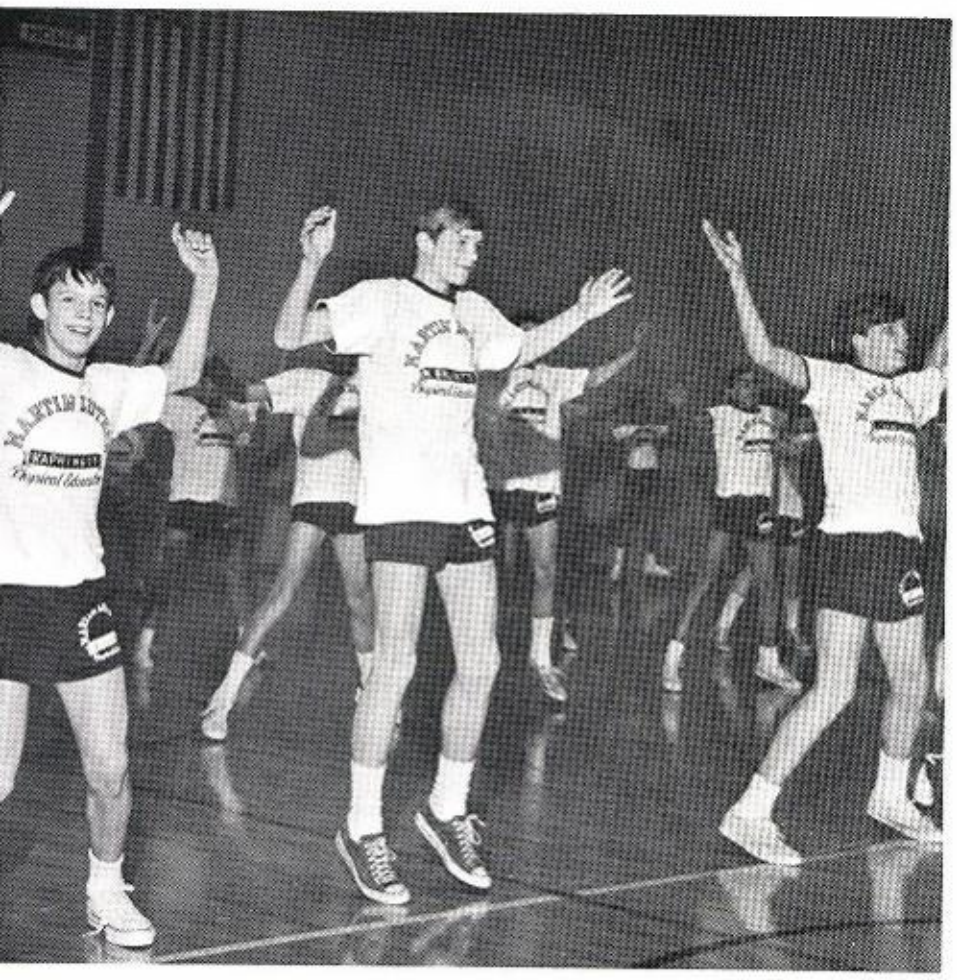




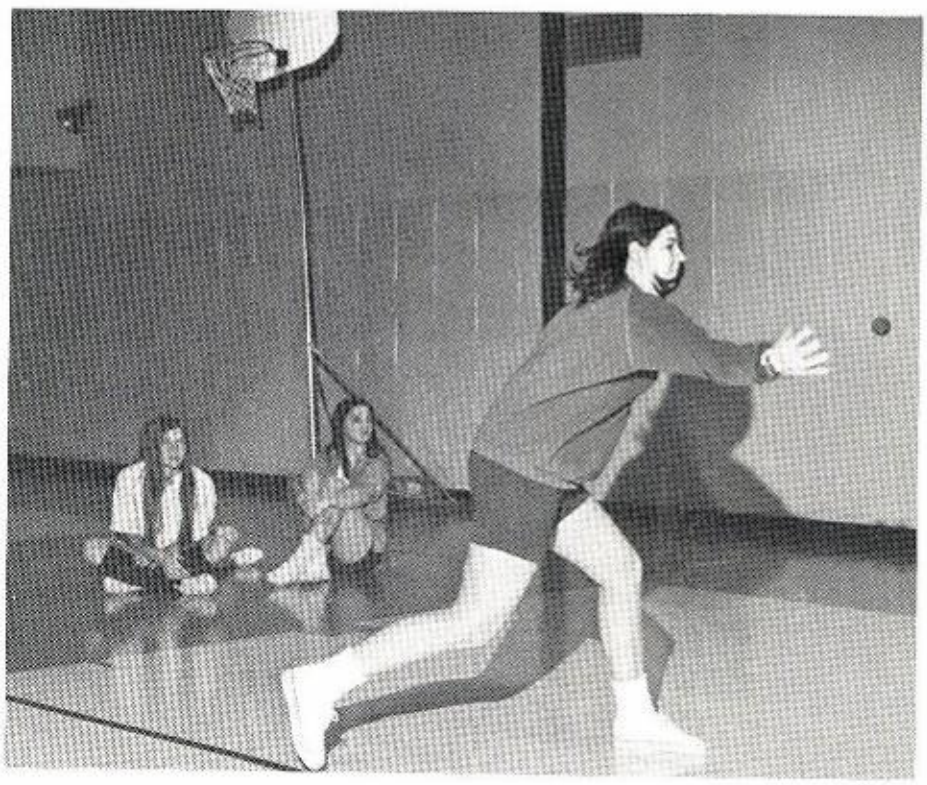
"There are important values in taking a music course in high school, even if you do not plan to make a career in the field of music. Primarily a music course should lead a student to recognize and appreciate music and the musical talent as gifts of God and to glorify Him with the same. Secondly, these talents should be developed through group activities and through creative musical experiences. Another value of a music course is that it can acquaint one with the great works in musical literature and the great works and composers of music history. Finally, a class in music is designed to help each student to become a more knowledgeable, appreciative, and discerning adult in the area of music and the fine arts."

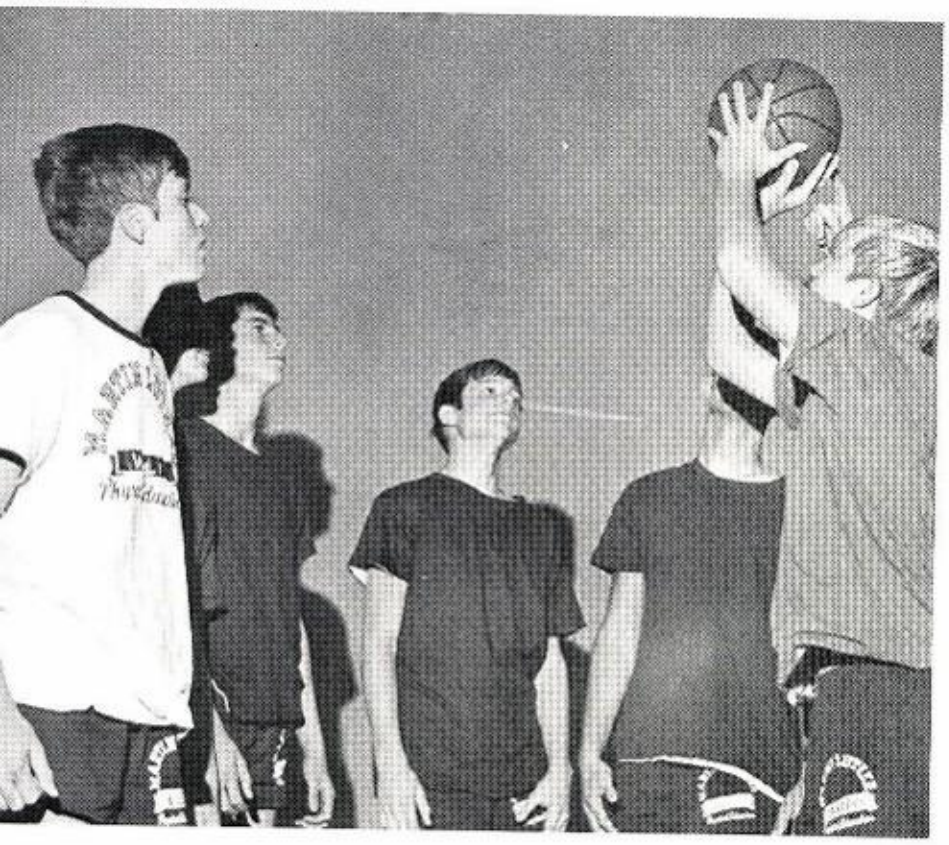
MR. KRUBSACK





Physical Education

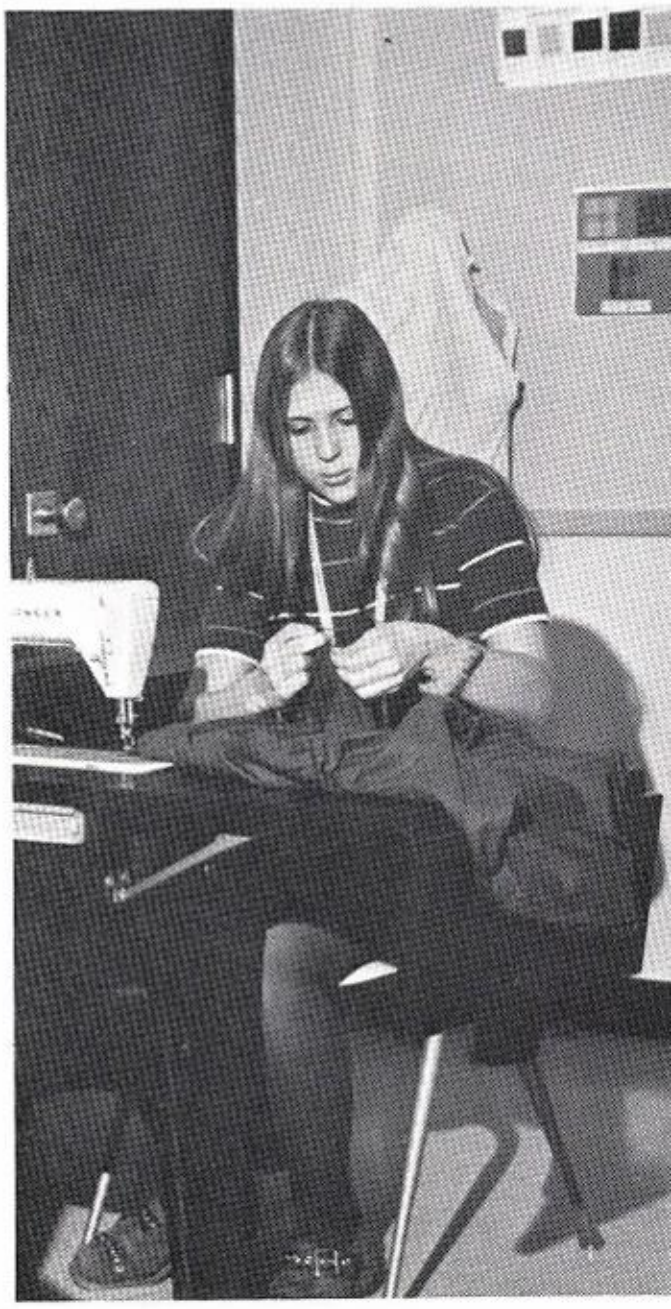




"One of the objectives and aims of physical education here at Martin Luther High School is to develop very early those physical skills that have a high potential carry over value that the student can use during their adult leisure time. It has been proven that students who neglect to be taught or develop these skills never again become exposed to them. It is our hope that our students will acquire recreational experiences and skills for a God-pleasing use of leisure time in adolescence and adult life."

MR. SCHNEIDER

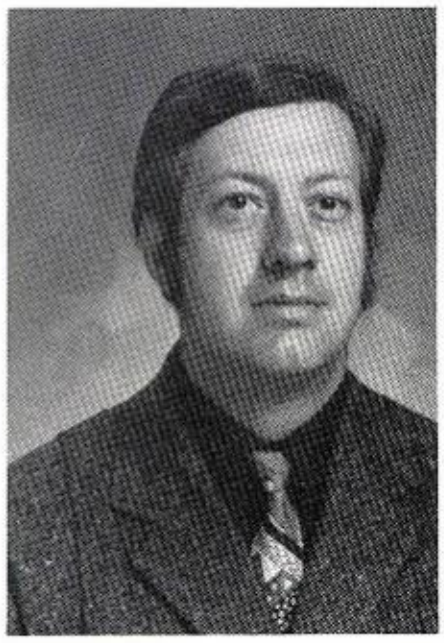
Home Economics

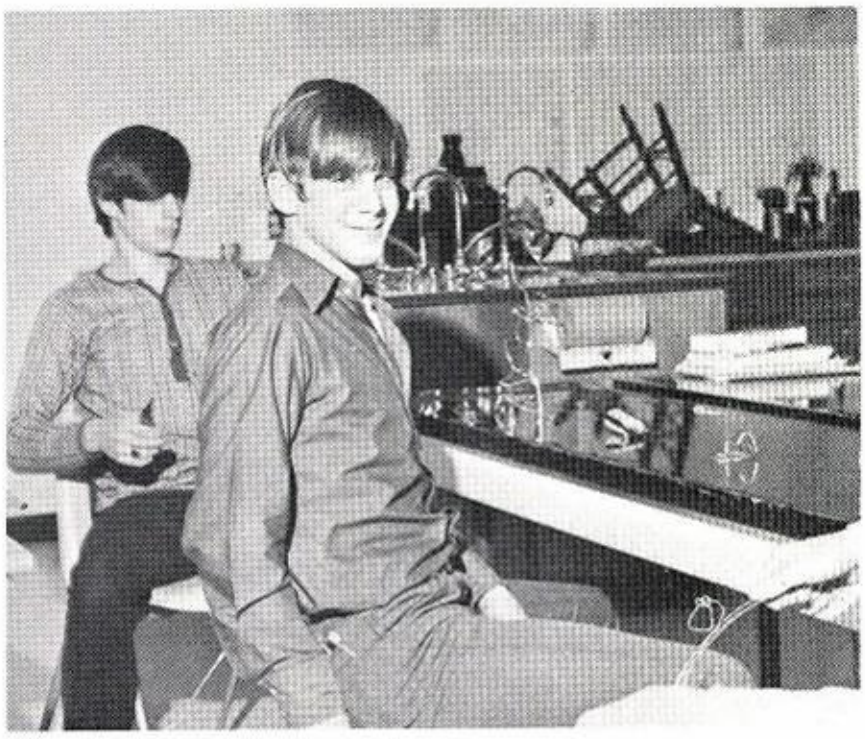


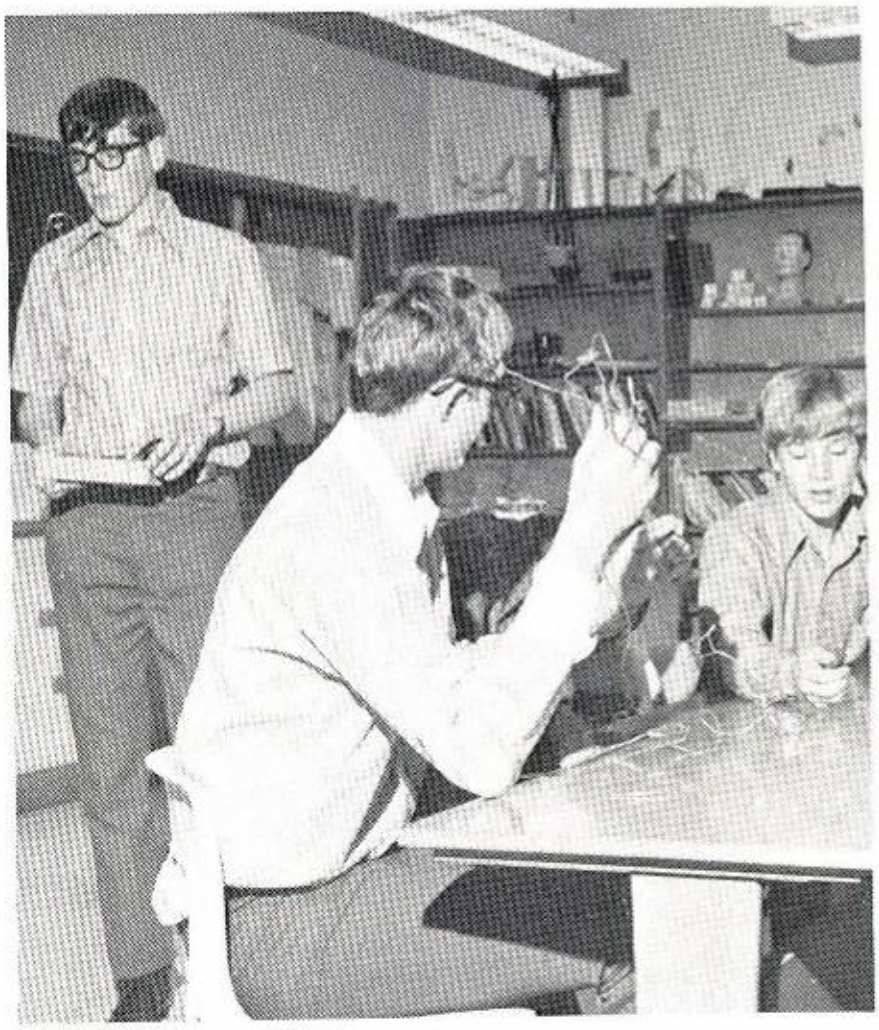
"Home Economics is one course that can be considered very practical. My aim and objective is to give the girls and or boys the incentive to go ahead on their own whether it be in foods or clothing."

MRS. FOTH

Art





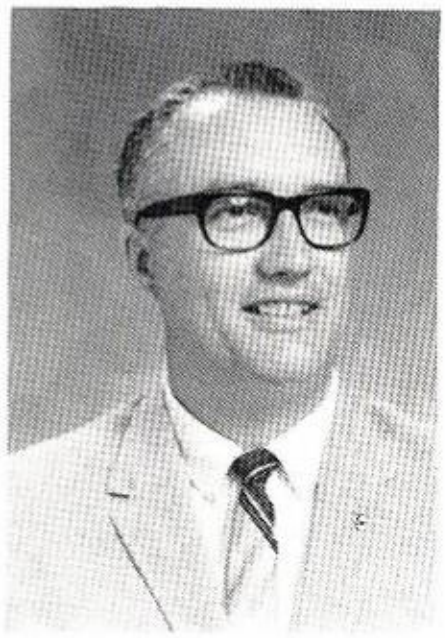


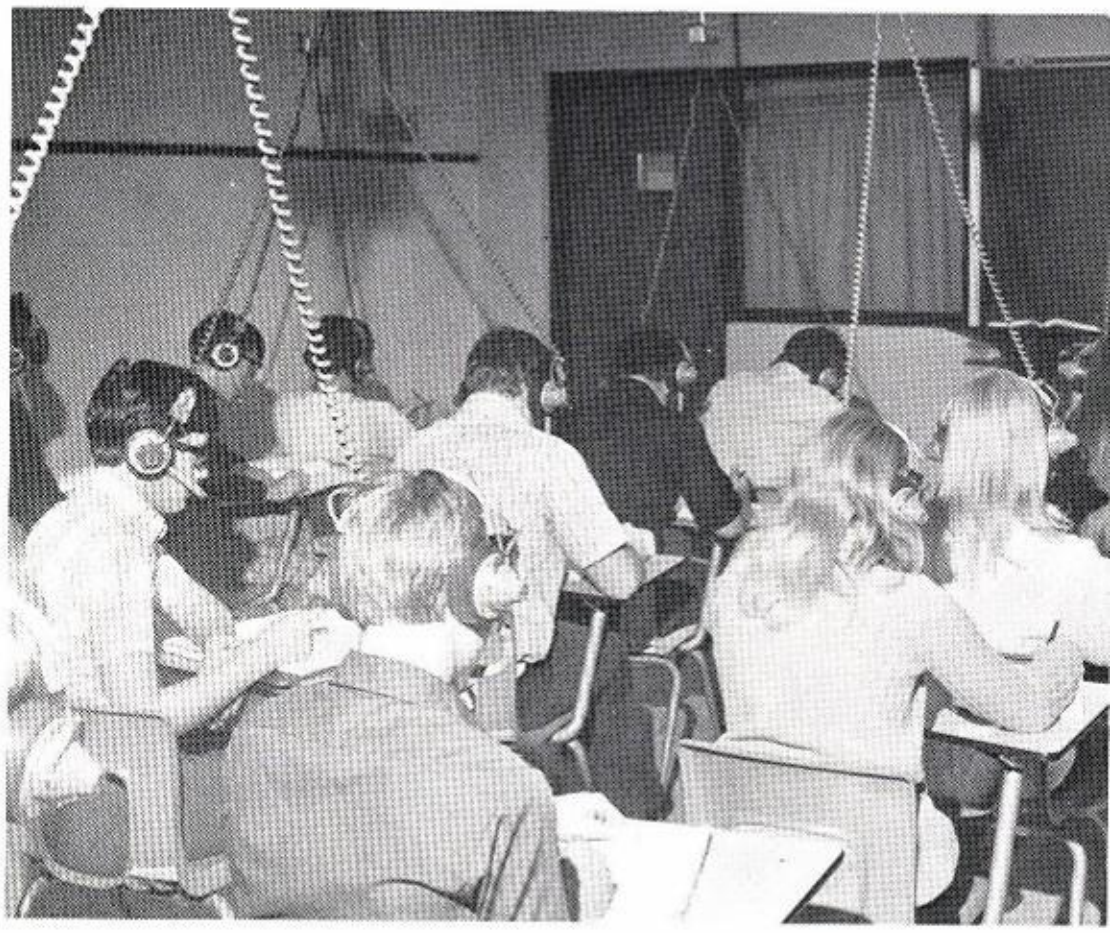
"There are several courses that I feel should be taken by all students. These include art, Home Economics, and Shop. There are things learned in these courses which are valuable to the individual for his everyday life."

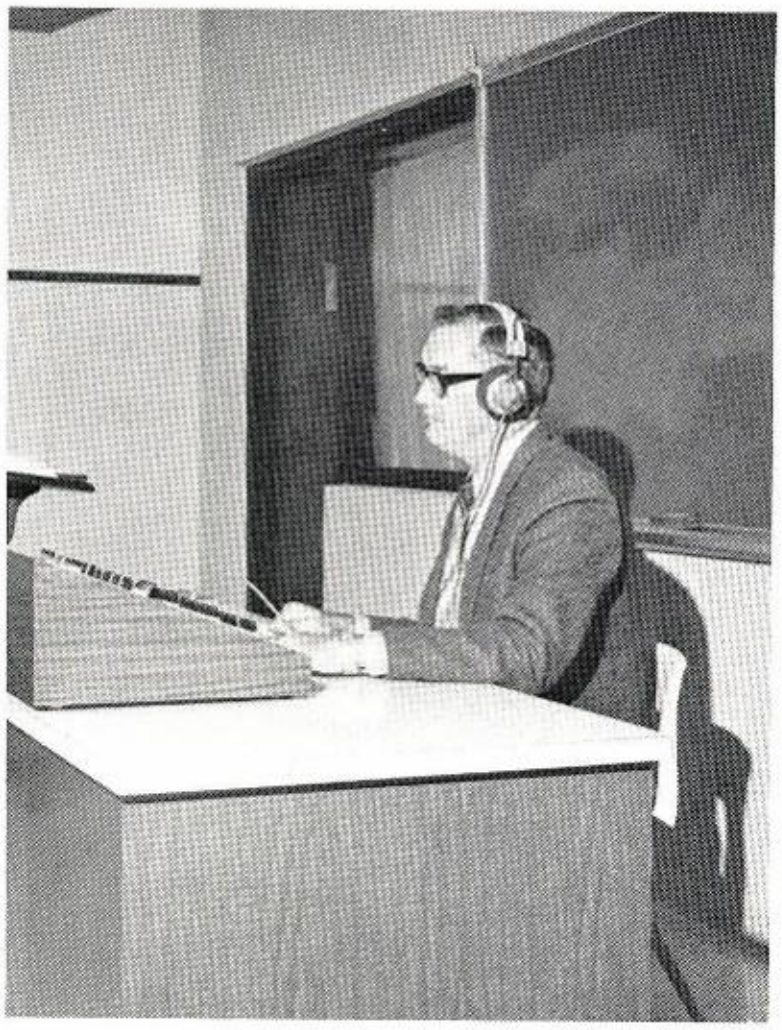
"God has given varying abilities to everyone. Artistic ability is present in everyone, in different degrees. It is one of the objectives of the Art Department to attempt to uncover some of these abilities and to help them to expand and become useful and enjoyable in the students life."

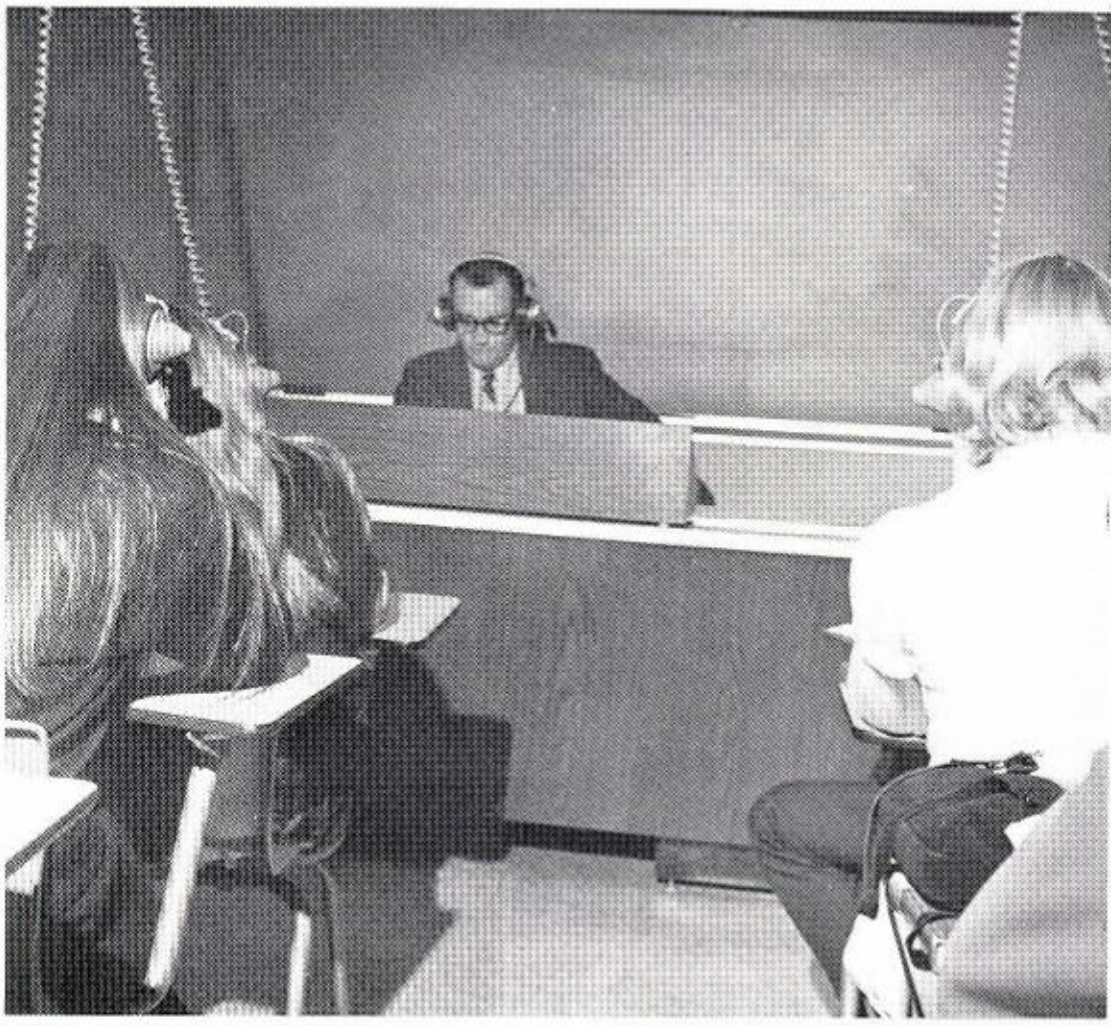
MR. RICHTER

Foreign Language









"To be isolated within the limits of one language is to be locked in one cultural frame, on world view, one set of idea symbols. In view of the increasing importance of communication in our shrinking world, and comments about the 'communication gap', it is of great value and importance to experience another language. The genius of one's own language becomes clear only in the light of another's. For those students able and willing to meet the demands of the learning process, a new language can open horizons, which can be found nowhere else in the high school setting."

A TIME TO PARTICIPATE

Band

UPPER RIGHT - Martin Luther's Concert Band.
LOWER RIGHT - Brass Choir.

The Concert Band has really increased in number this year. They continue to be a top quality band. They have performed at several concerts and worship services. The entire band took a tour to Rockford, Illinois which was a great success. Both the Jazz Lab and the Brass Choir have practices after school hours and have achieved success in playing great music. All members of the groups and their fantastic Director Mr. Krubsack deserve a big pat on the back for doing a good job.

Choir

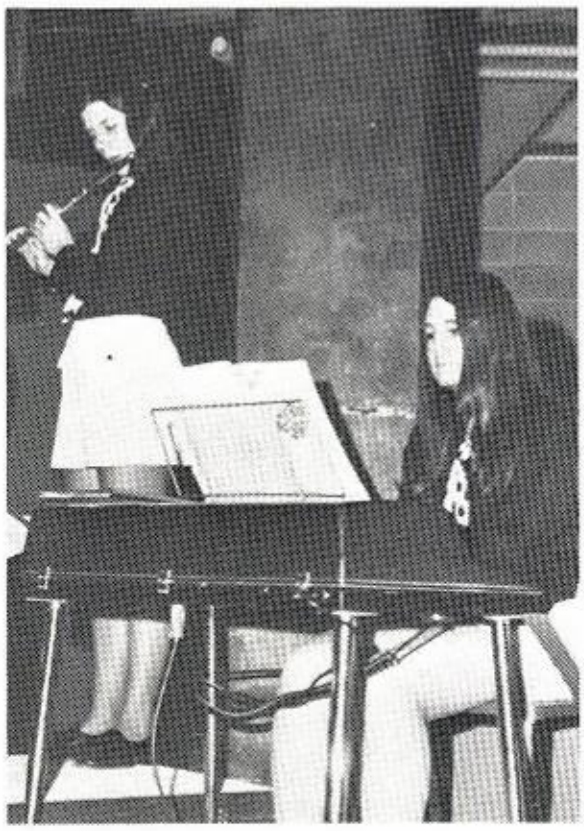
LEFT - Freshmen Chorus from first semester singing at the Christmas Concert.

The Choirs have also put in alot of hard work and many practice hours to perfect their singing ability and in preparation for concerts and worship services. Mr. Lohmeyer, their director, has also put in many hours in his work with the choirs. They have done an admirable act of praising God in heart and song.

Troubadours



"Presenting the joy of forgiveness in Christ Jesus" is the objective of Martin Luther's Troubadors. Under the direction of Mr. Lohmeyer, the singers and musicians spread the message of Christ at various worship services, church affairs and school functions. Dedication and hard work have made the group successful.

Cheerleading

The varsity cheerleaders really did a great job this year. They deserve a lot of credit for getting the school song started, selling homecoming mums and buttons, planning the "different" skits seen at our pep assemblies. Neither the teams or the fans will forget their encouraging spirit, smiles, and pep which they never gave up on.

The JV cheerleading squad included a lot of new faces this year. Nobody will deny that it wasn't easy working to get those cheers to look just right, but they practiced hard enough to make it all work. No matter what any of the crowds screamed, they always came through with their loyal smiles and cheers.

Pom-Pom Squad

Pride, happy faces, and a variety of great routines were bound to lead our pom-pom girls to a successful season. Put together their interest and the fans' approval and the result is a rewarding experience.

The Student Council's main responsibility is to plan and support the social activities of the school. They held several dances, a winter carnival, and perhaps the biggest event was Homecoming. The money made from two pizza sales was put into a savings account and some was put into special projects. The yearbook staff gives a big thanks to the Student Council for the six hundred dollars donated to help pay off our past debts.

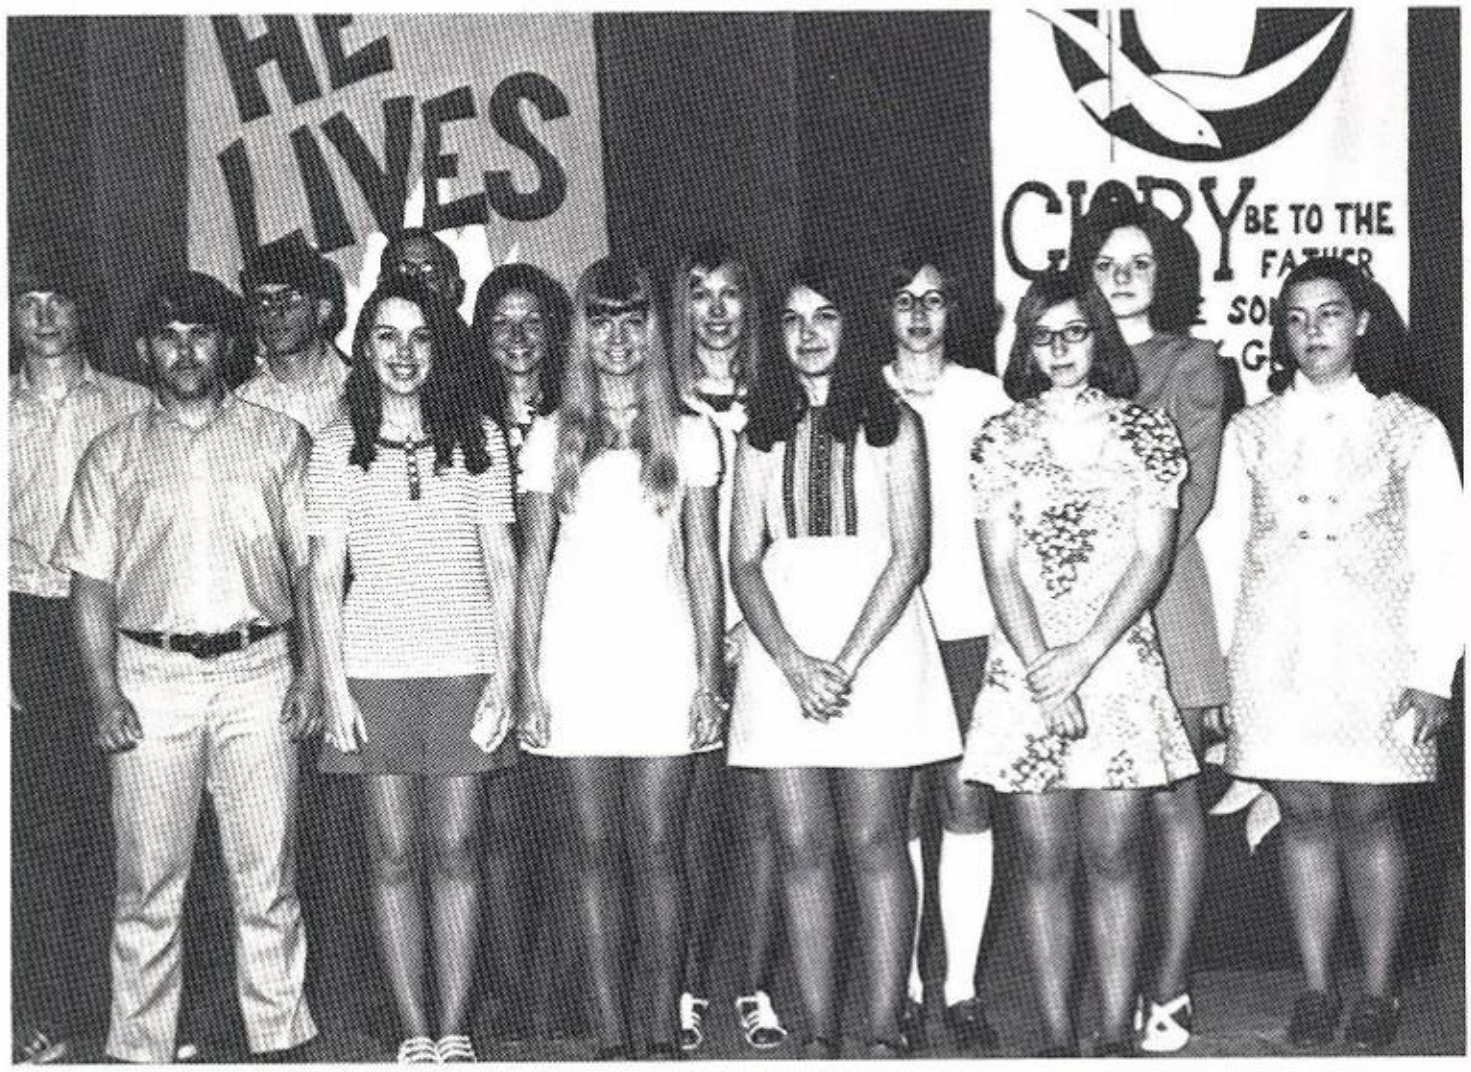
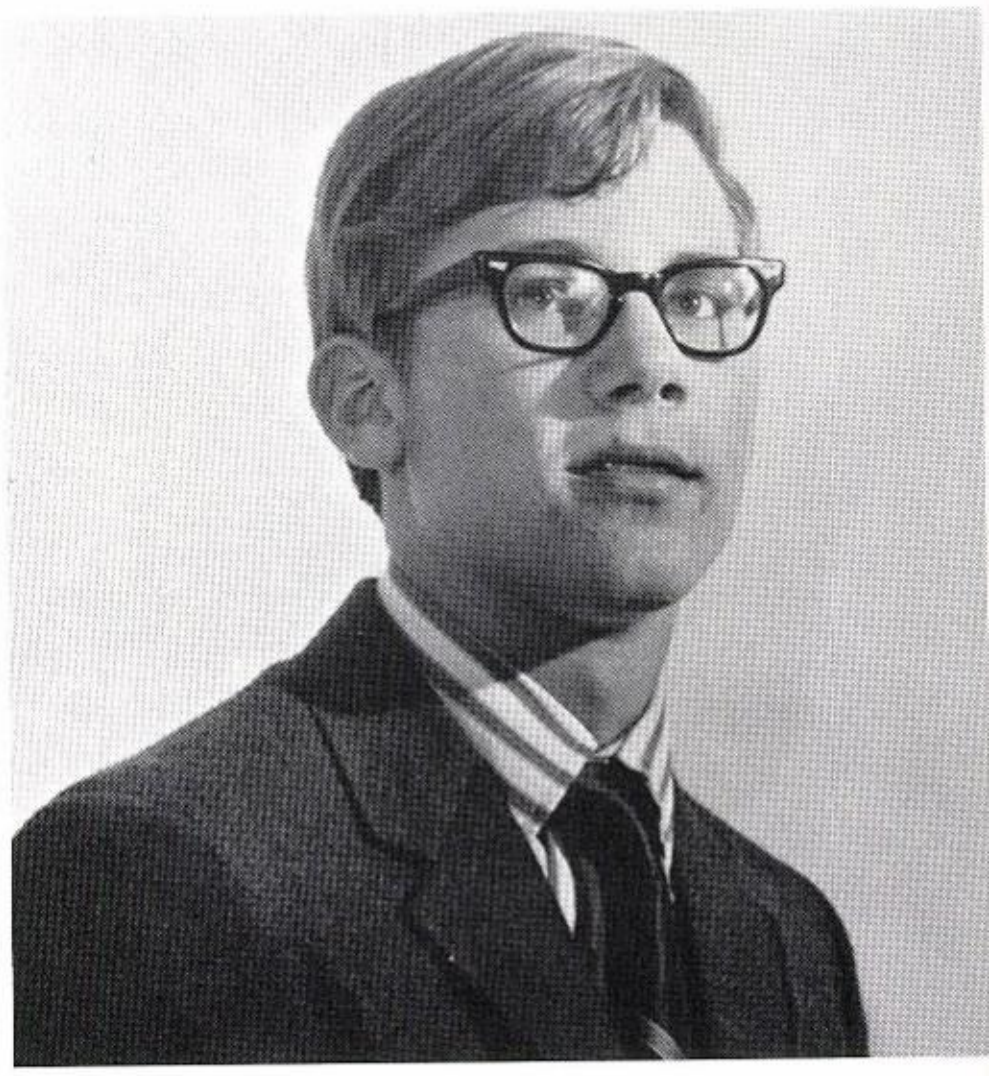
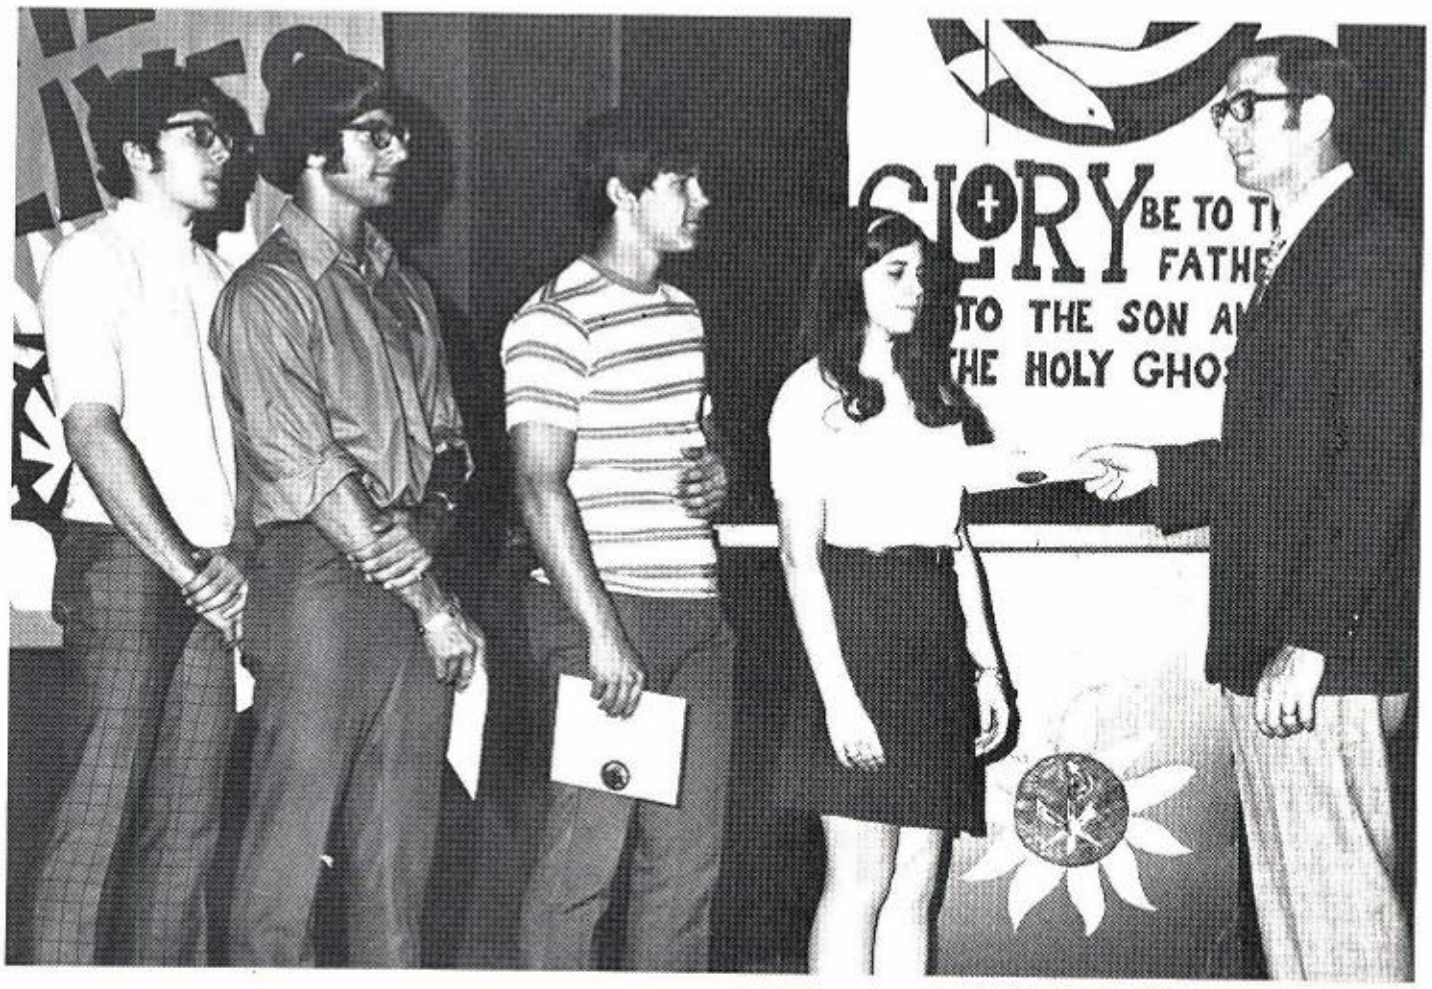
The staff works together during the summer and throughout the school year to prepare the yearbook for final delivery. All agree that it is alot of work getting pictures, designing layouts, and writing copy, but the finished book makes it all worthwhile.

Awards Service







On June 2, many students were given recognition for their academic work in their past years at Martin Luther. Upper left is a picture of those inducted into the National Honor Society. Those inducted last year were also the top four students in the senior class (ABOVE). Dave Schneider was announced valedictorian, and Nancy Mueller was named salutatorian (FAR LEFT). The "WClub" award went to "Mr. Martin Luther"-Mike Klug. Also receiving recognition were juniors- Lynn Gourley and Dan Schneider who will be atteding Badger Girls and Boys State during the beginning of summer. Their were many other seniors who were awarded scholarships for their college tuition next year.

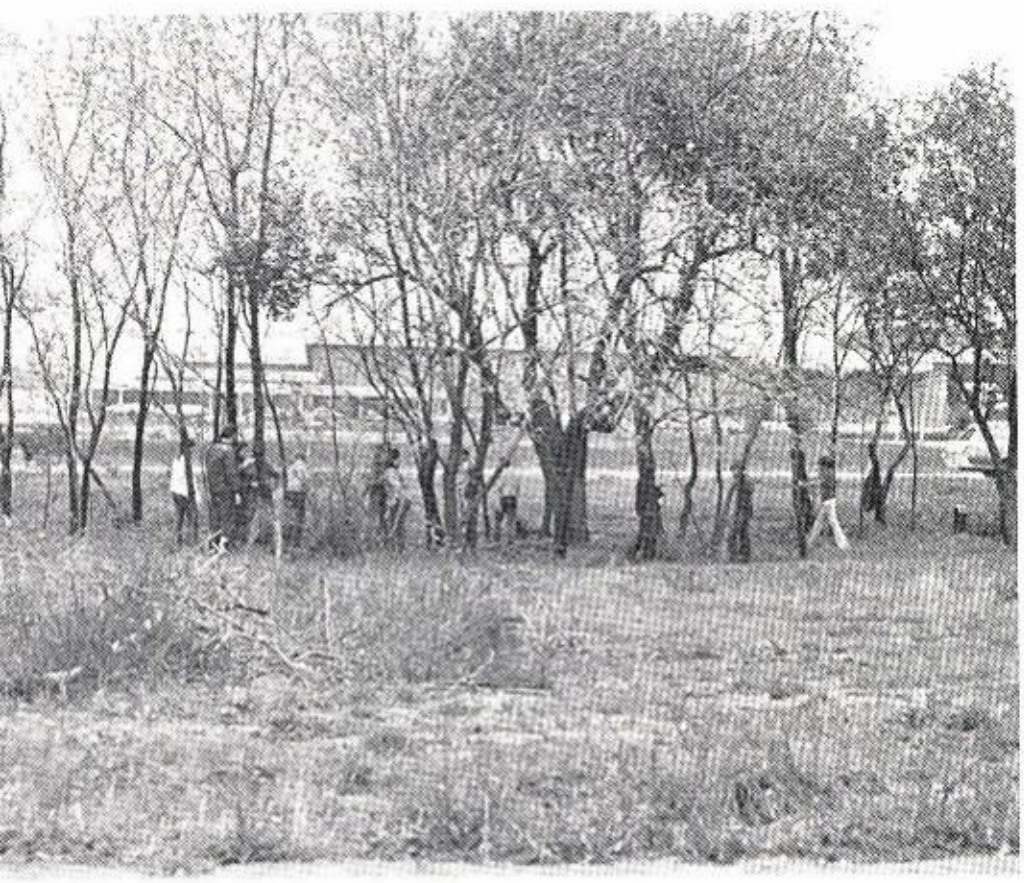
Arbor Day

When the question was asked - "How was Arbor Day?", the most general comment was - "It was a lot of work, but it was a lot of fun too." The day included working on the driveways, cutting weeds, tilling soil, dirt fights, finding dead rats, and many other assigned jobs and unplanned activities. It was a Student Council sponsored event but Mr. Schneider and his Plant Science Class were responsible for the planning. With the combination of hard work and fun, the result had to be successful.



UPPER LEFT: The teachers and students really worked together to accomplish the job well.
MIDDLE LEFT: The American History Class was assigned to repair the driveways.
UPPER RIGHT: Some of the "frosh" were assigned to the gulley. It was one of the messiest jobs but they sure picked the right class to assign it to.

Homecoming

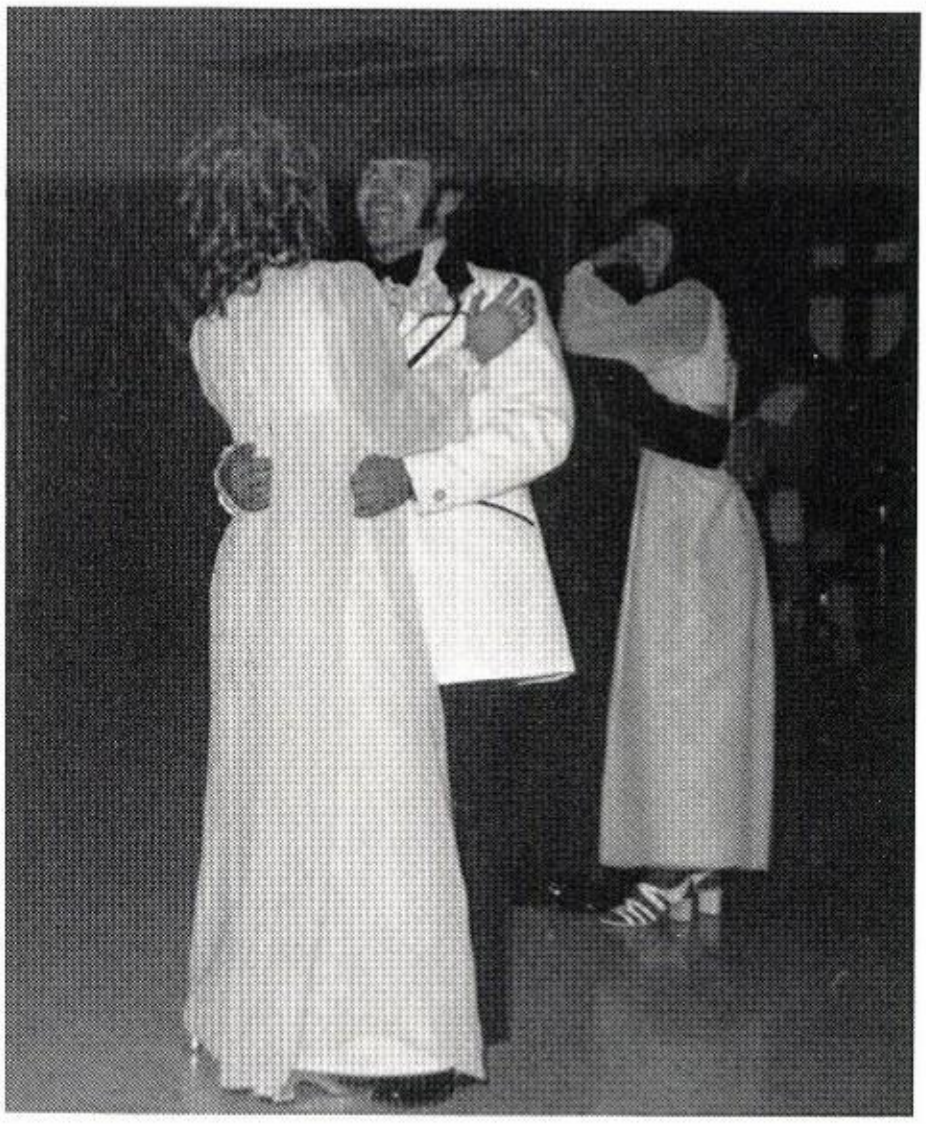
Remember the weekend of October 15 and 16, 1971? If you have a good memory for great times you'll recall that it was this weekend that Martin Luther held it's first annual Homecoming. This occasion really got the student body involved and aroused many exciting ideas which totaled for the weekend's success. The cheerleaders ordered school mums and made Homecoming buttons, the school song was composed, the court was selected, the team practiced hard for the game, decorations were made, alumni were contacted and spirits were high. Friday night was fantastic-the cheering at the pep rally, the anticipation and final beauty of the coronation, the hilarious faculty skit, and the reception with the Troubadours. Saturday carried over the enthusiasm with all the fans, team work, and the final victory at the football game. Everyone returned home to prepare for the big dance and then the first let down-the band didn't show. But, all and all, Homecoming was a very happy and memorable experience.

The following are comments recorded during the weekend-"Everything was great!", "It was a blast, it was just as much fun as it would have been if the band did come.", "What a dud!", "The worst thing was the boys were scared to ask the girls who were waiting for an invitation.", "Things were going just great until the band didn't show, something unusual had to happen!", "It was fair.", "I had a great time!"

Prom!

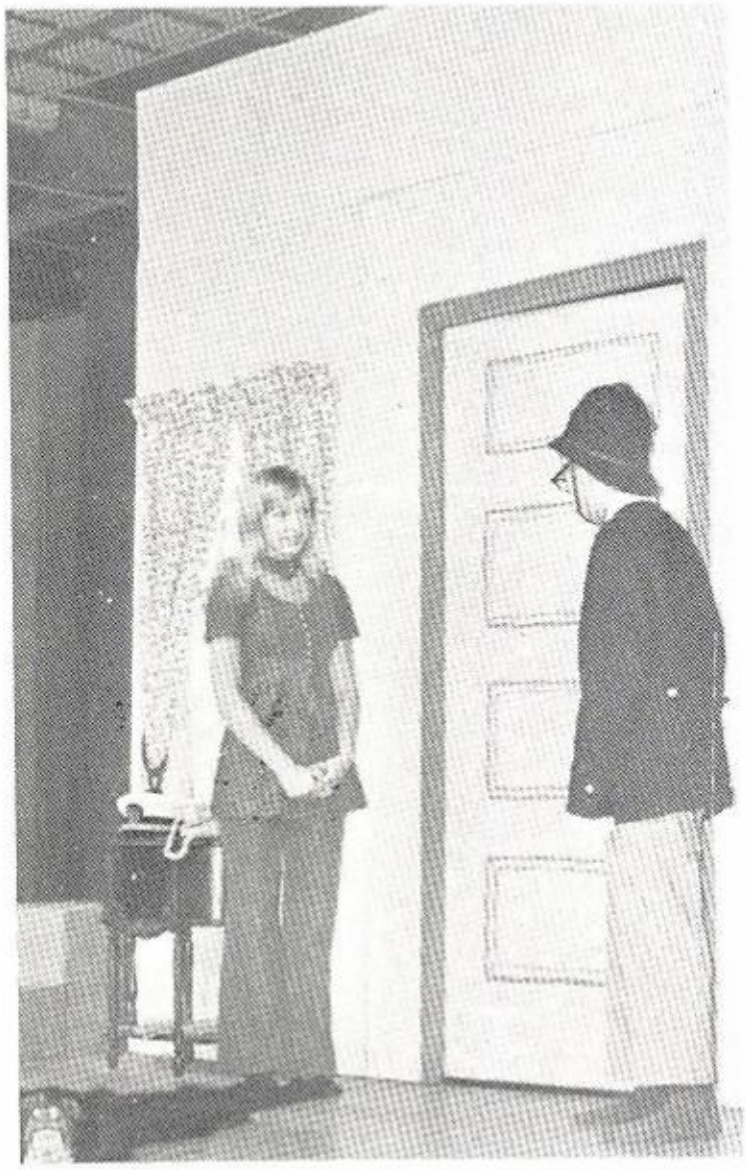
The "Junior Class" did it again! This time it was the successful Prom. It was a bit expensive for just about everyone who went, but they will admit that it was well worth it. "Camelot" was a very exciting theme and the atmosphere was made to fit it perfectly. The evening included refreshments served by "pages", dancing to the music of "The Creators", and the highlight of the evening was the announcement of the court. The King and Queen were seniors, Mike Klug and Jodi Meka. Attendants were: Kathy Grebe and Steve Nibbe, Liz Allwardt and Jeff Dey, Kay Triggs and Dan Schneider, and Jayne Kaphingst and Bill Dahl. The picnic on Sunday was dulled a little by rain, but everyone still had a good time.

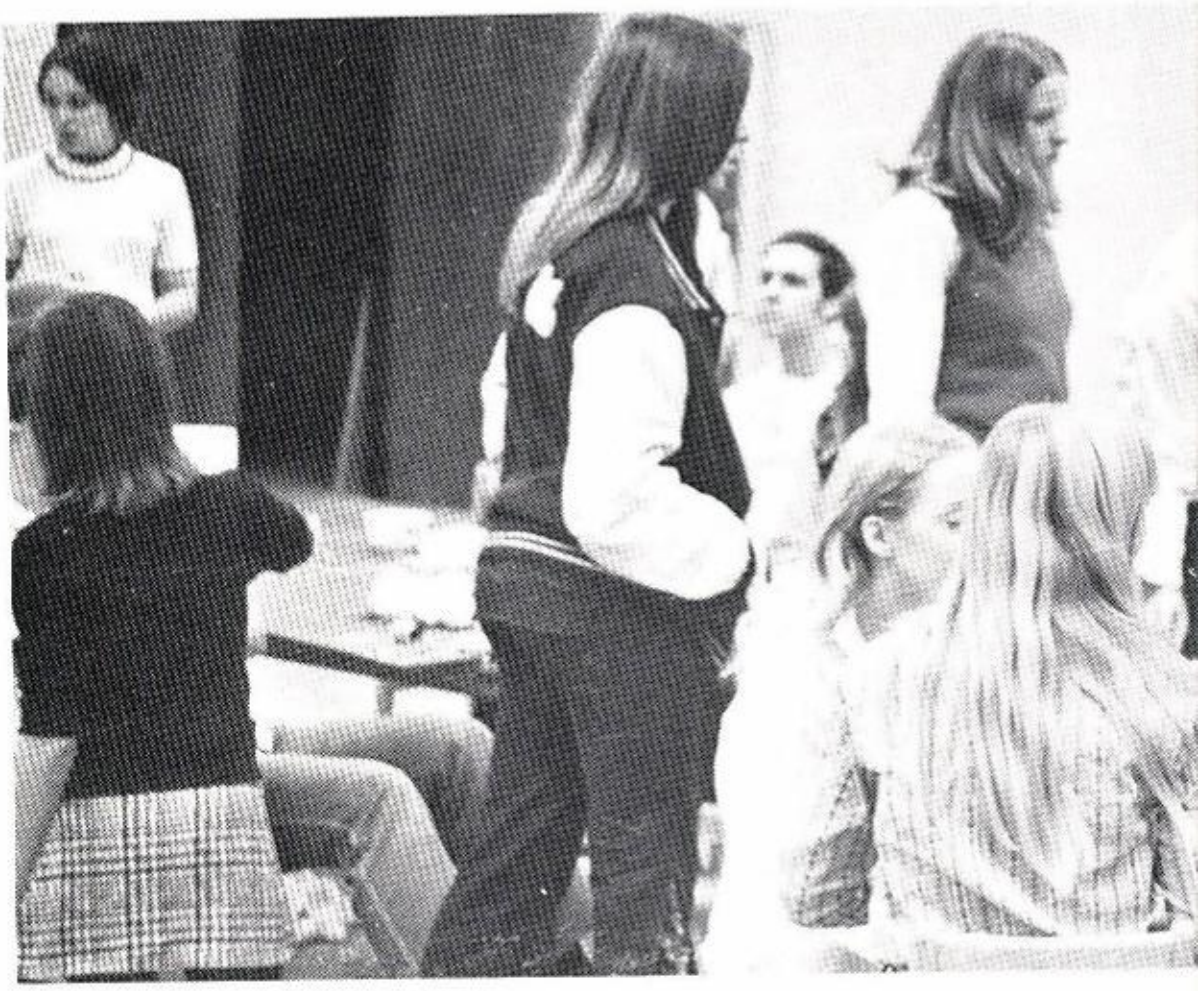


Fine Arts Festival

This Fine Arts Festival was really a good show this year. Art students displayed their work as did the music department, and Home Ec classes served refreshments. The short play "The Lottery" was performed, and several students with musical talents were involved with selections of their choice, and of course the Brass Choir gave a short concert. The Festival was a fantastic success as far as talent is concerned, and it was attended fairly well too. Those who have a special interest in the fine arts had a good opportunity to satisfy their interest and it was a nice chance for enjoyment and fellowship.

Drama





"Chase Me, Comrade"

With a combination of a gushy, attractive, British balerina; a dense, Russian ballet dancer; a scatterbrained, lively, teen-age girl and her fiance; a typical, confused father and a few more, CHASE ME, COMRADE turned out to be a wacky comedy. We'll never forget Mr. Halm's great directing and when he laughed so hard at dress rehearsal that he cried. The play, the first theatrical production of the year, had a full house at both of its performances and was termed a great success.

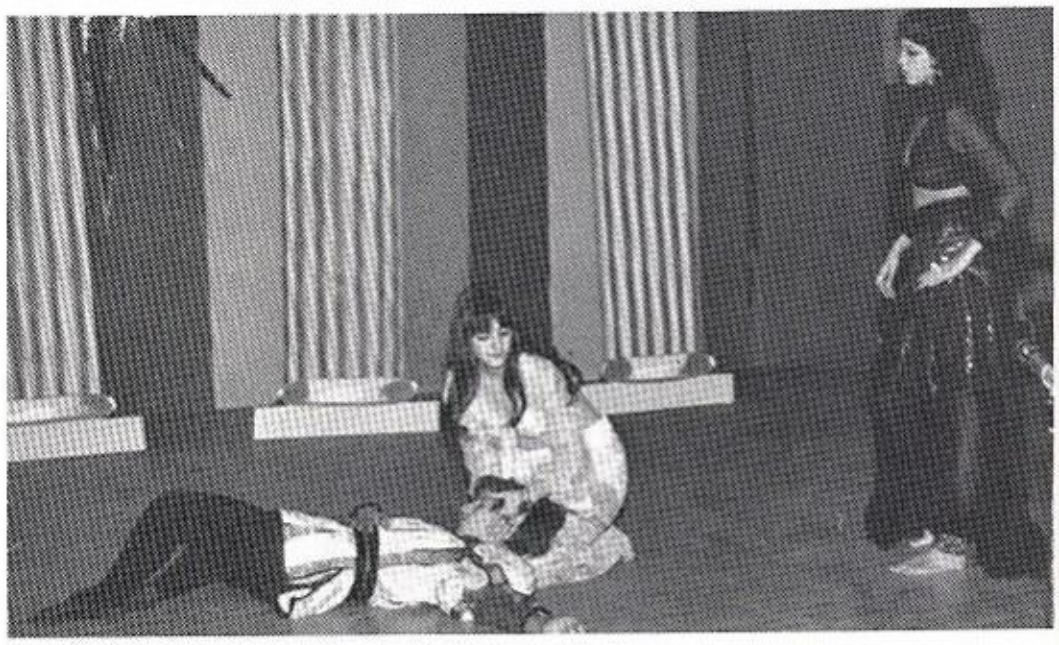
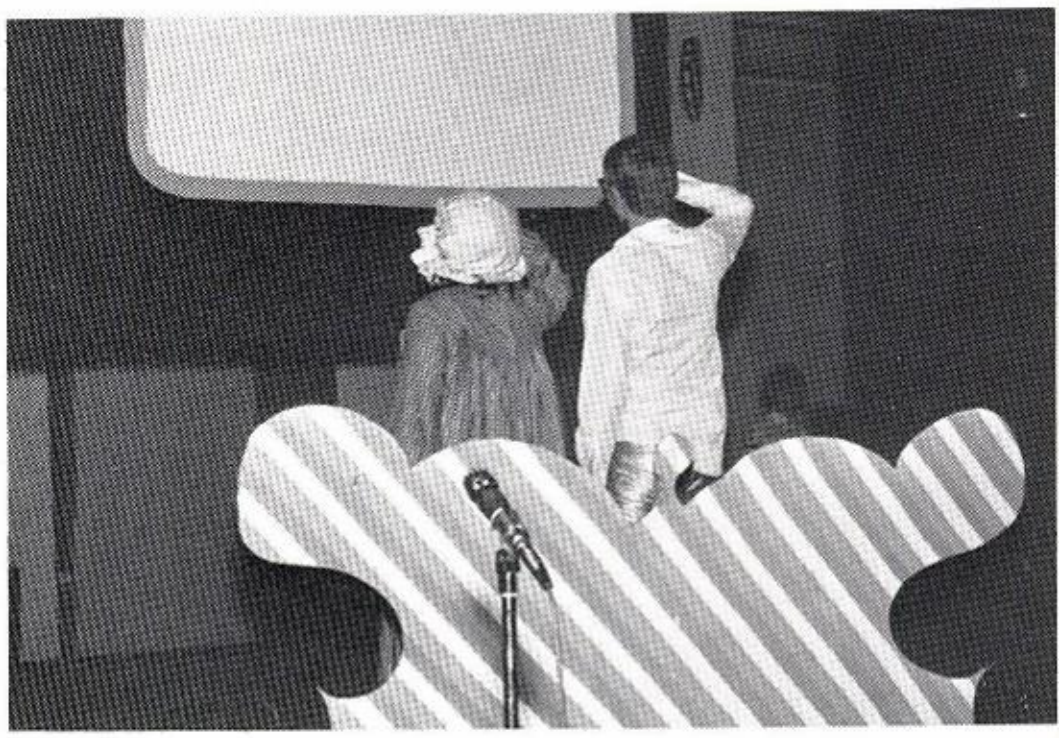
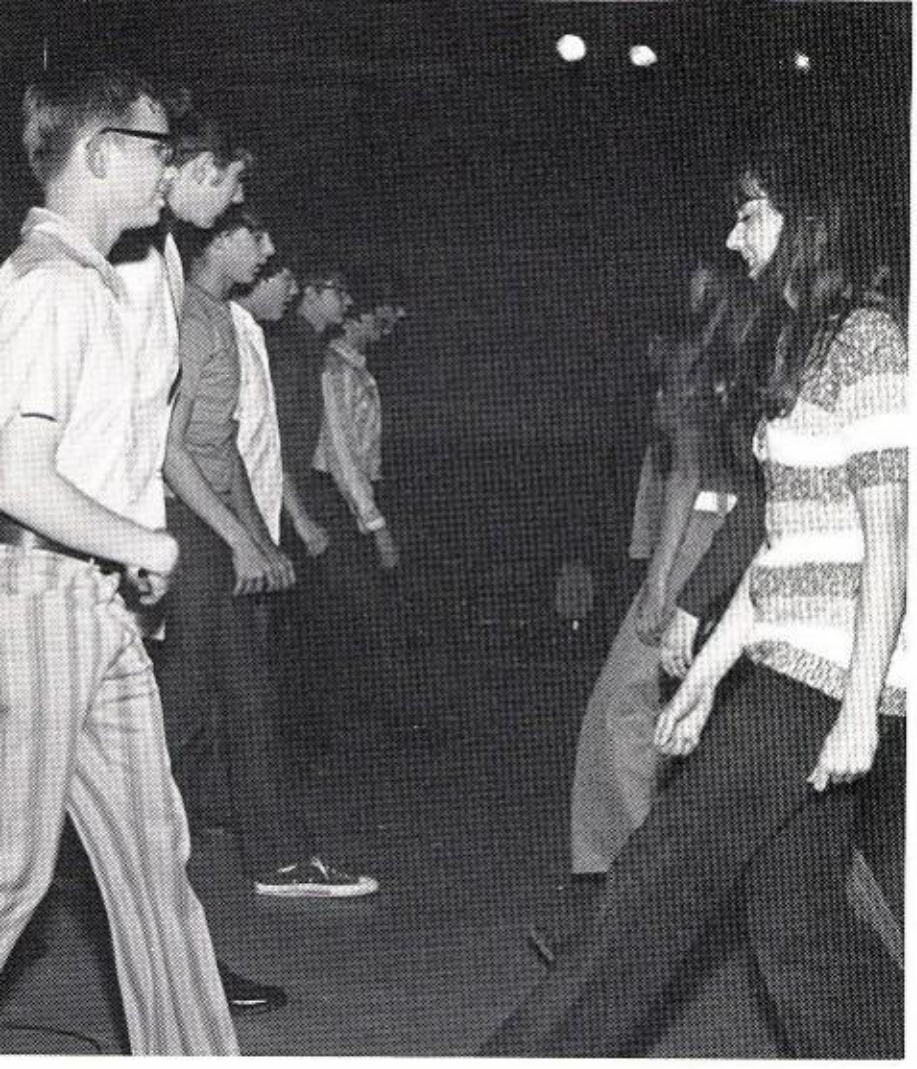
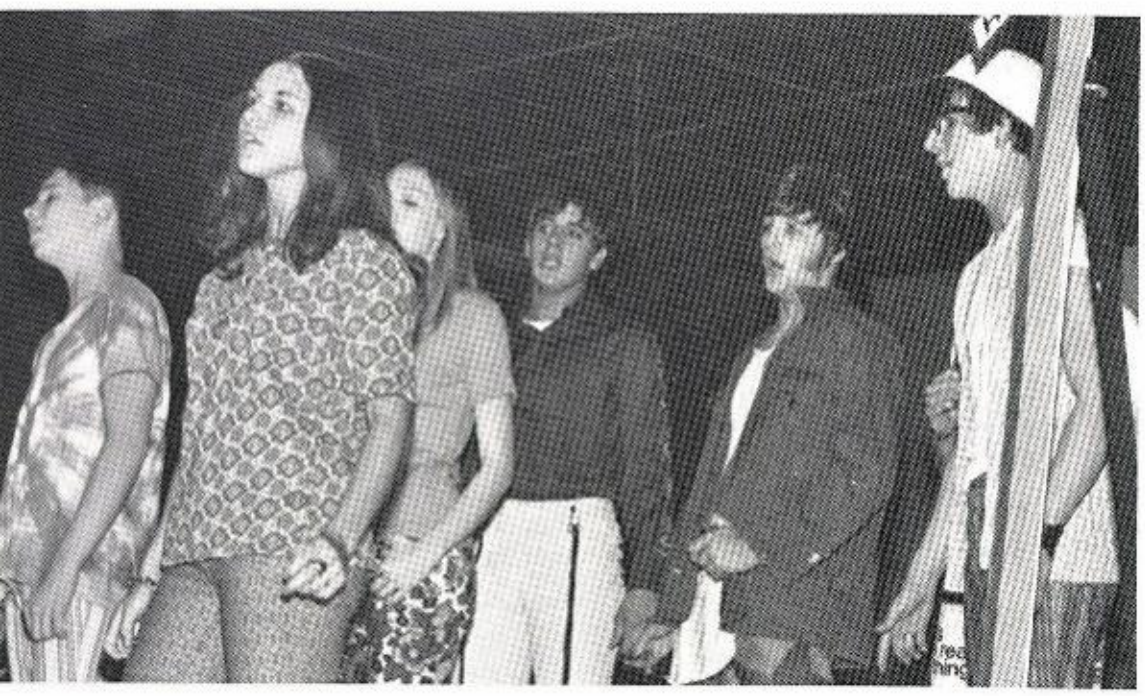
Musical





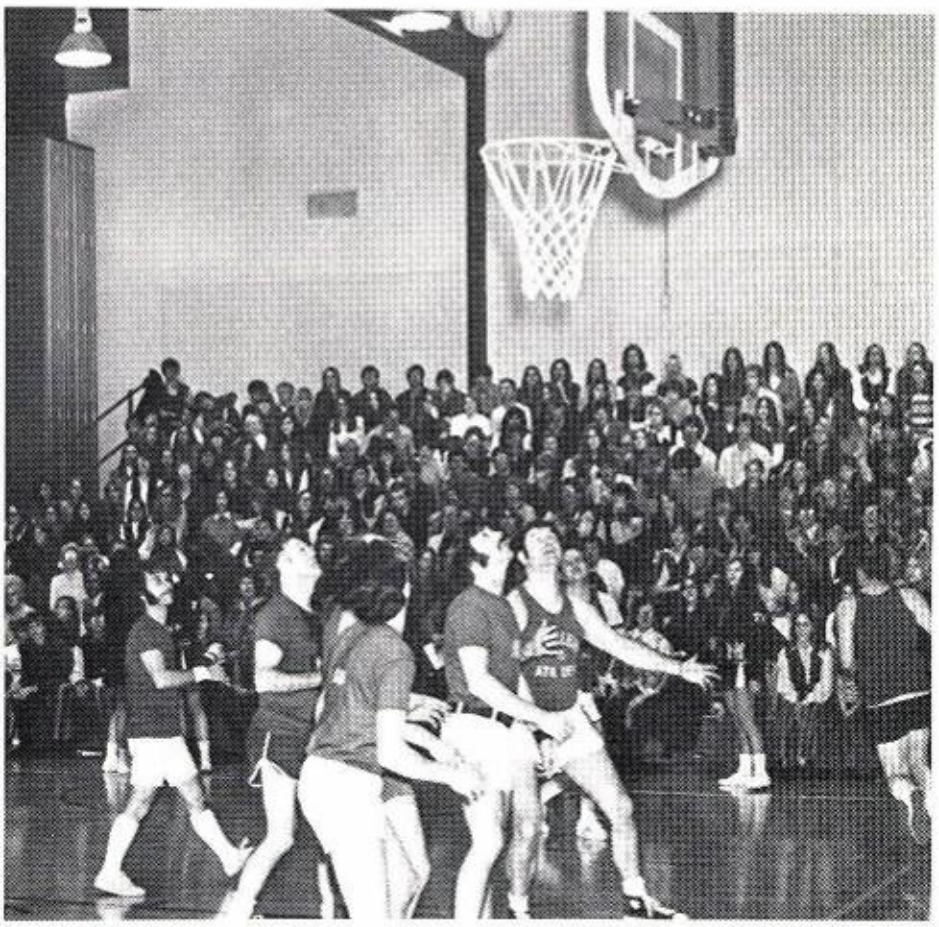


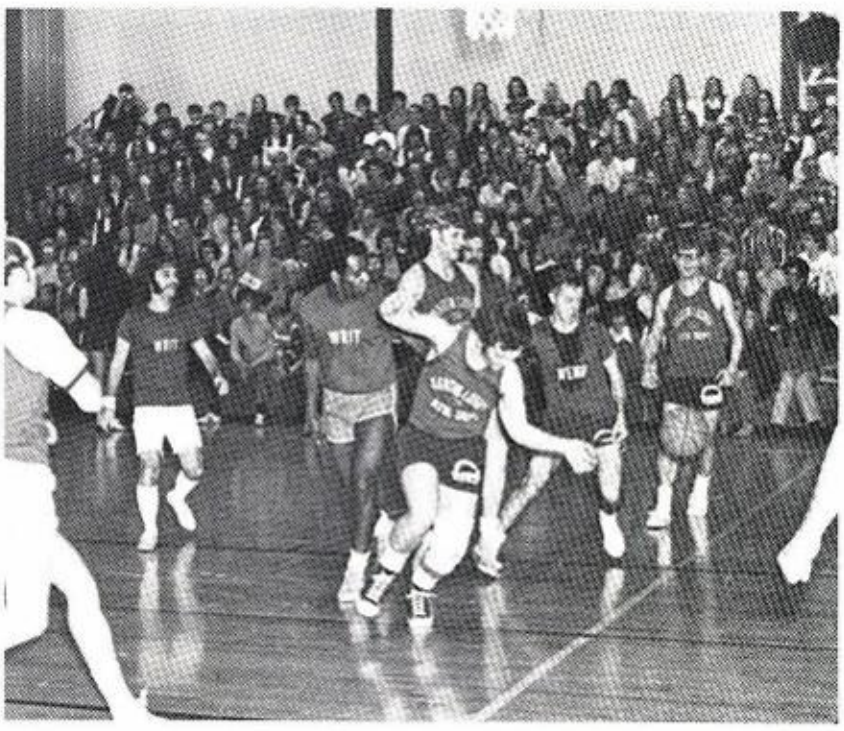
ACT III was the musical selected to be performed this year. It was just what it says-three acts. The first was a Troubadour performance which included a selection sung by former Troubadour-Cherie Freyberg. Next came the well known short play-THE LADY OR THE TIGER. The costumes were fantastic and so was the acting of many talented students. Along with memories of the play goes those of knocking down the pillars in the middle of the performance. Finally, came the light, comical play-PASSIONELLA. The students chosen to play the leading roles were perfect and everyone involved did a great job.



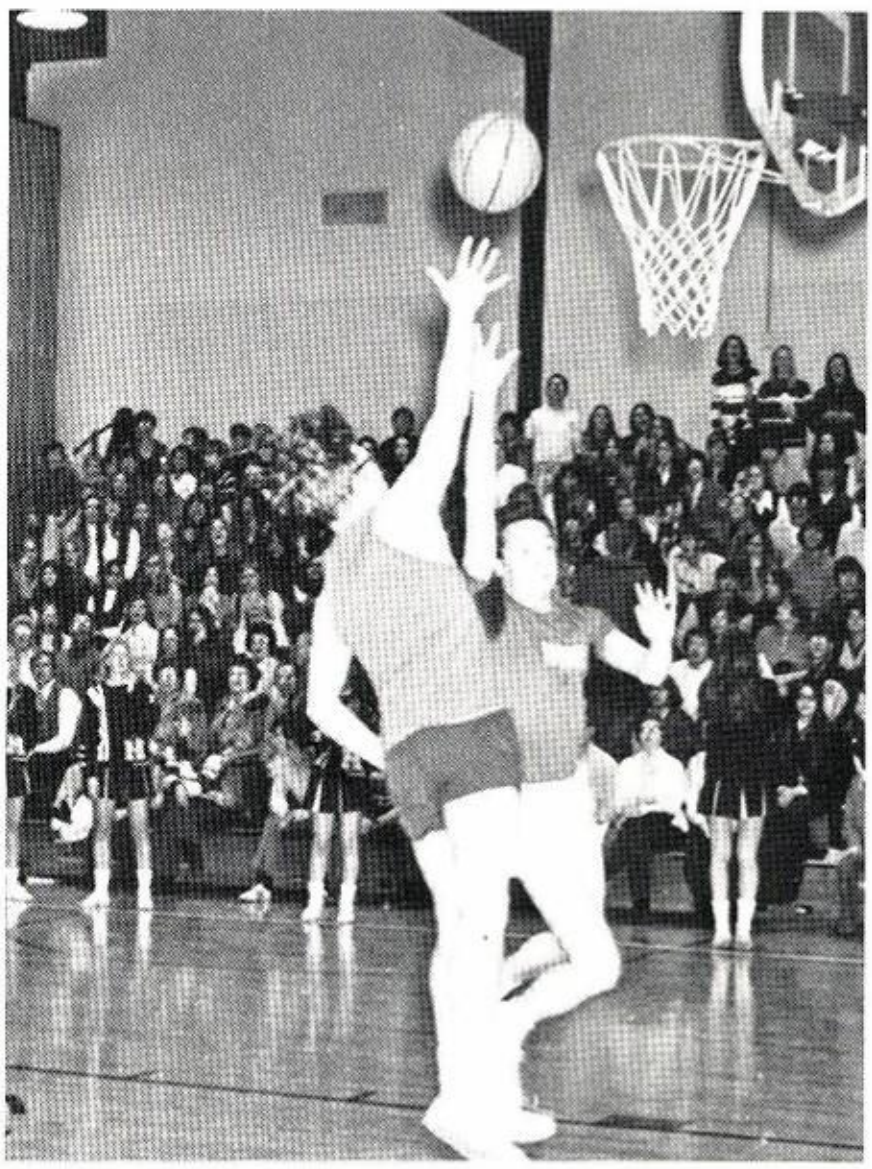
Christmas Concert

The Christmas Concert this year once again displayed the talent and hard work involved in Martin Luther's Music Department. Those who attended heard alot of beautiful music from all four groups involved. Students and directors involved deserve credit for a well-done job and encouragement to do the same next year.



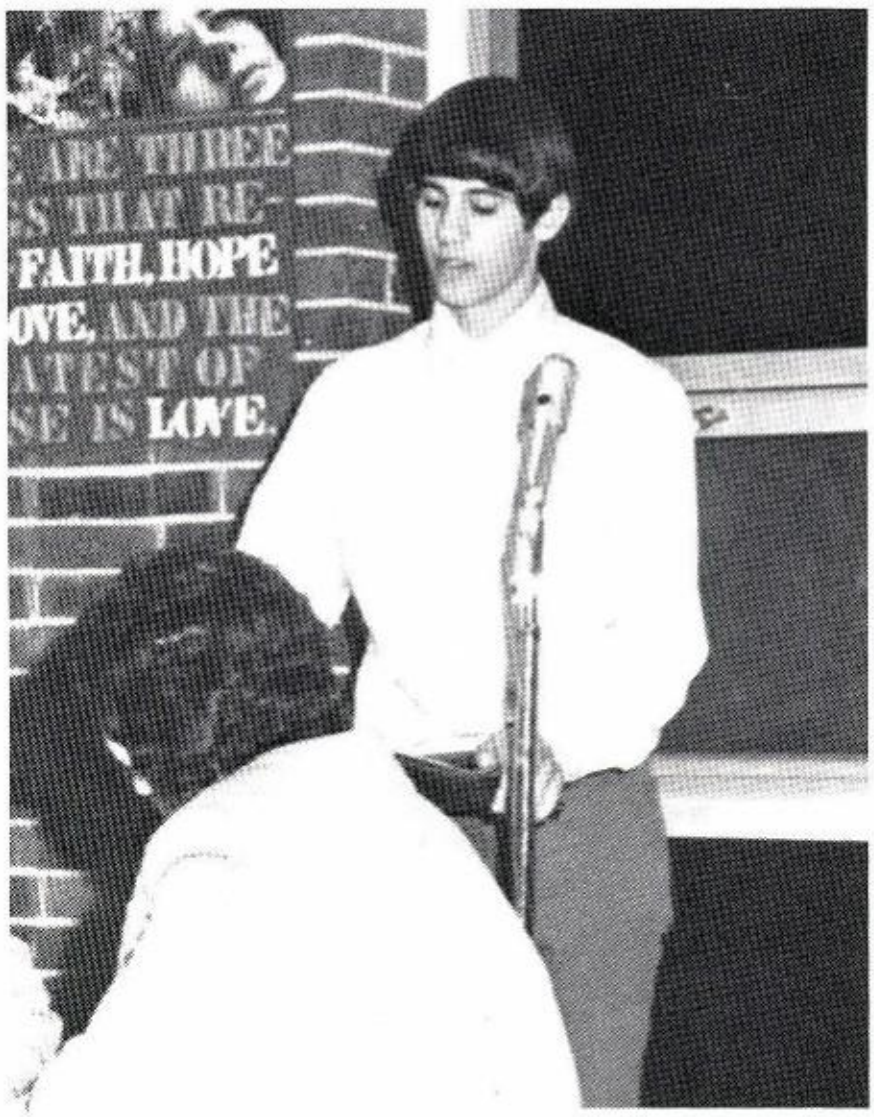


Sports Fun Night

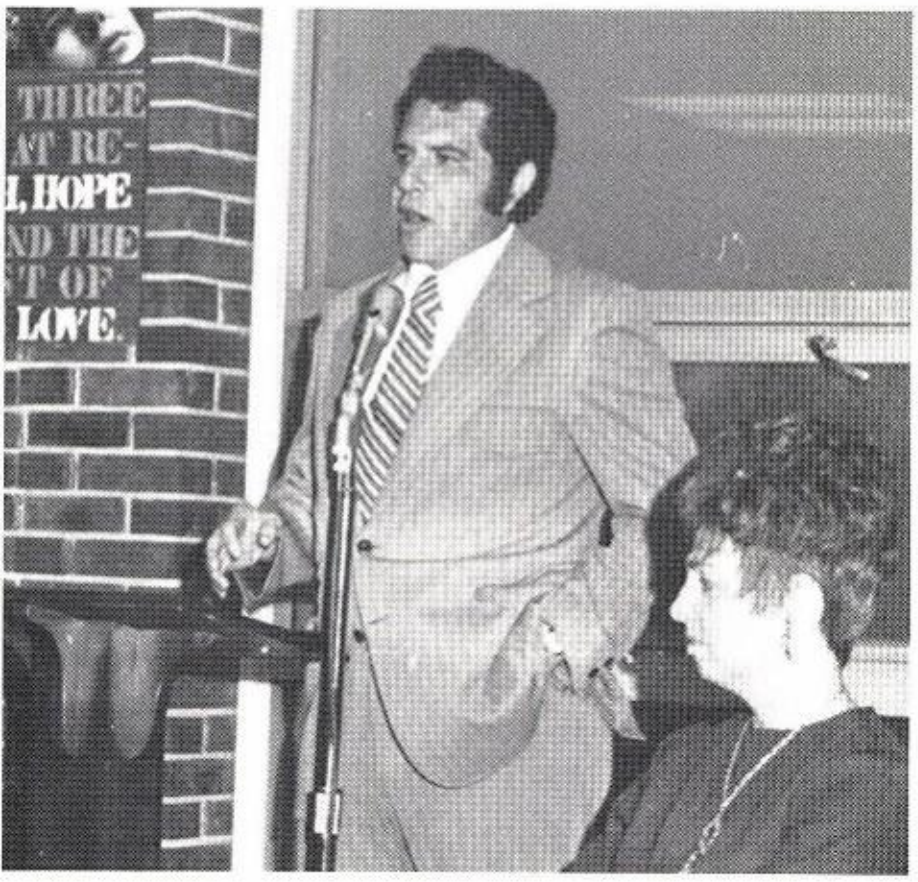


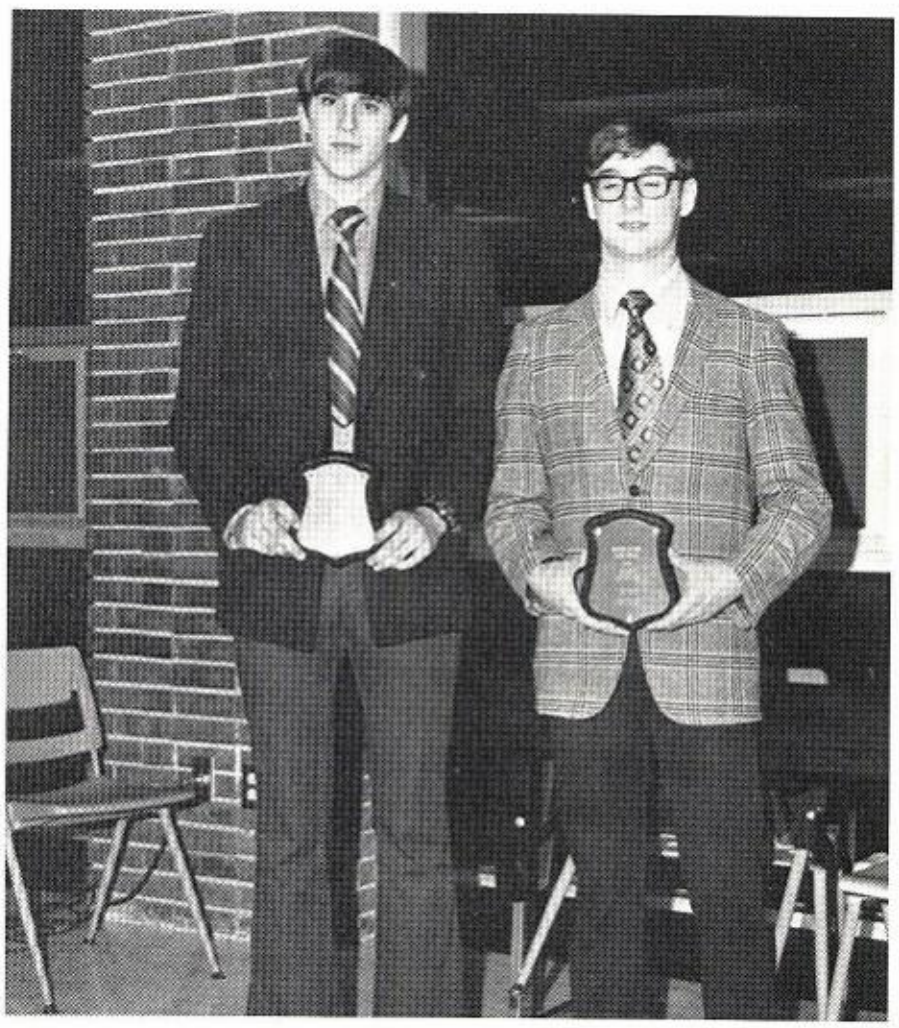
At the end of January a benefit basketball game was held sponsored by the Runge Bros. VFW and the Zion's Men's Club. It was held in the gym and involved the Martin Luther Faculty, grade school coaches, and last but not least, disc jockeys from the Milwaukee area. There were alot of laughs and a good deal of fun for a good cause.

Athletic Banquet



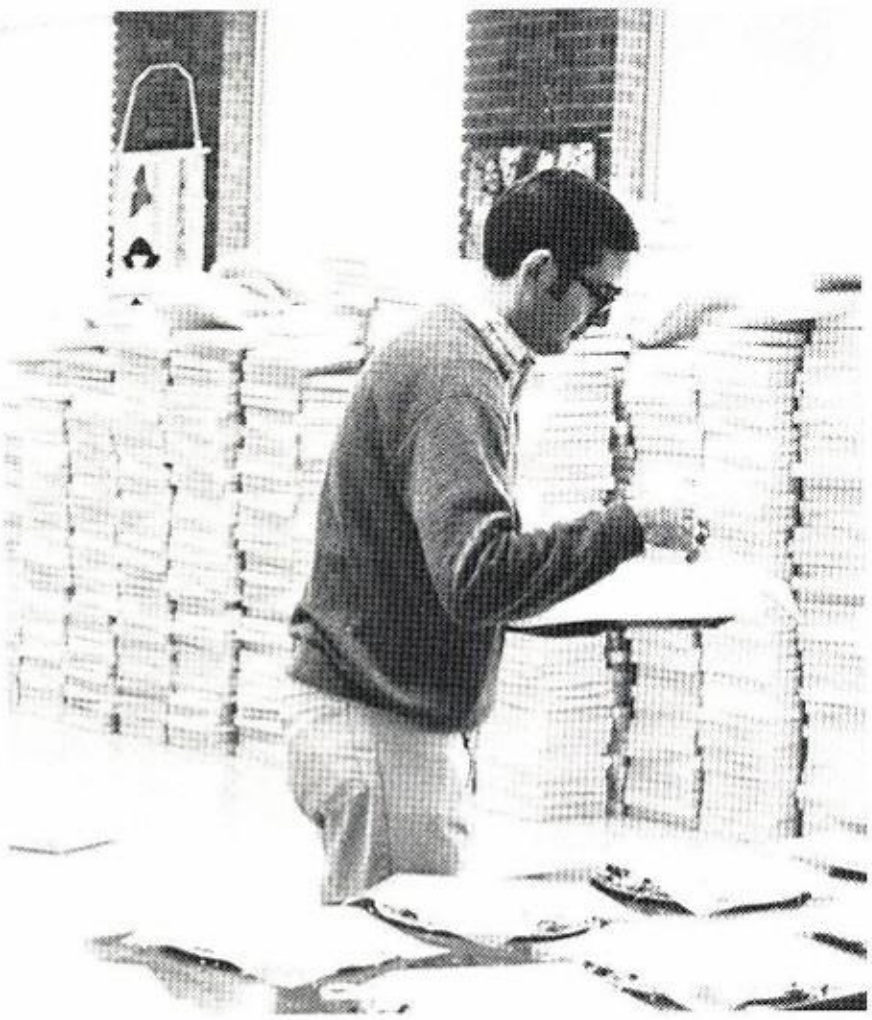
The Athletic Banquet was quite different and successful this year. It is impossible to forget our master of ceremonies and his rare jokes and "magic." The award for outstanding speaker of the evening would have to go to "sophomore" Steve Schneider, for making a 2-minute speech last 10 minutes.





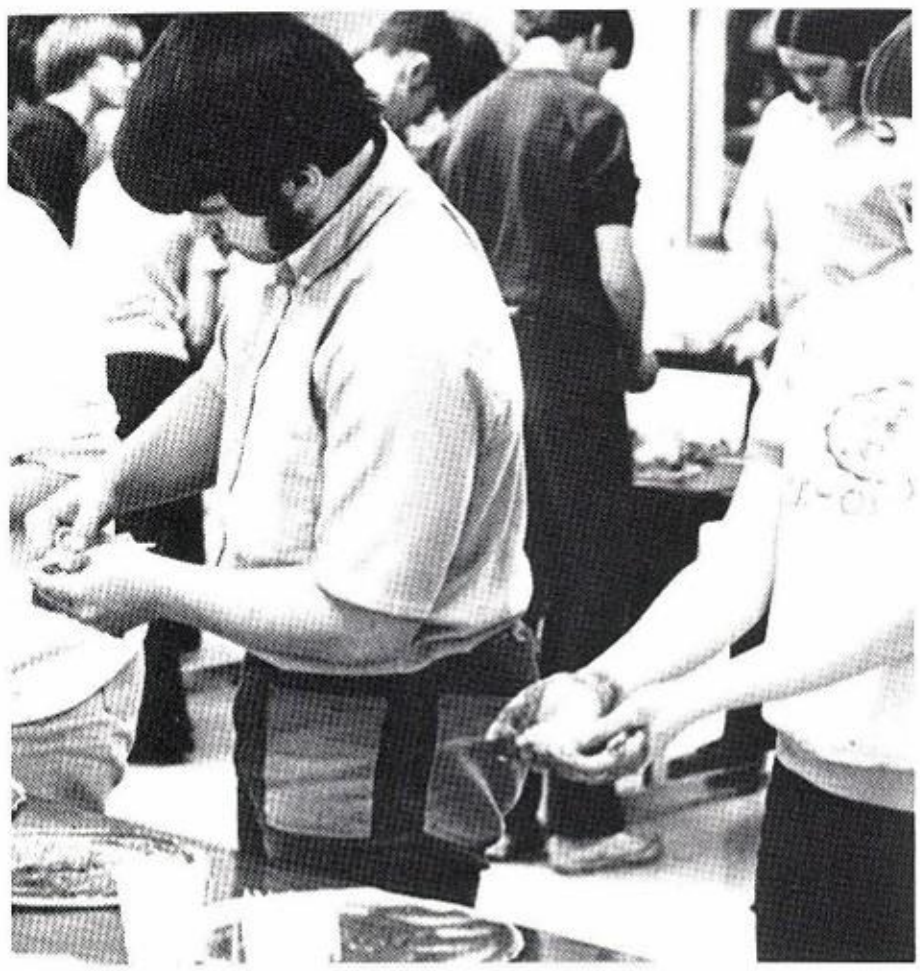
The guest speakers for the evening, Mr. Dick Weiss and Don Fondow, really encouraged the Christian athlete. They really emphasized the importance of Christ in our lives and especially in sports. Congratulations go to all seniors and especially Mike Klug and Tim Schneider for their athlete of the year awards. Those who who received special recognition from their particular teams also deserve a word of encouragement and congratulations. The ladies who prepared the meal also should get a big Thank-You.

Pizza Sale

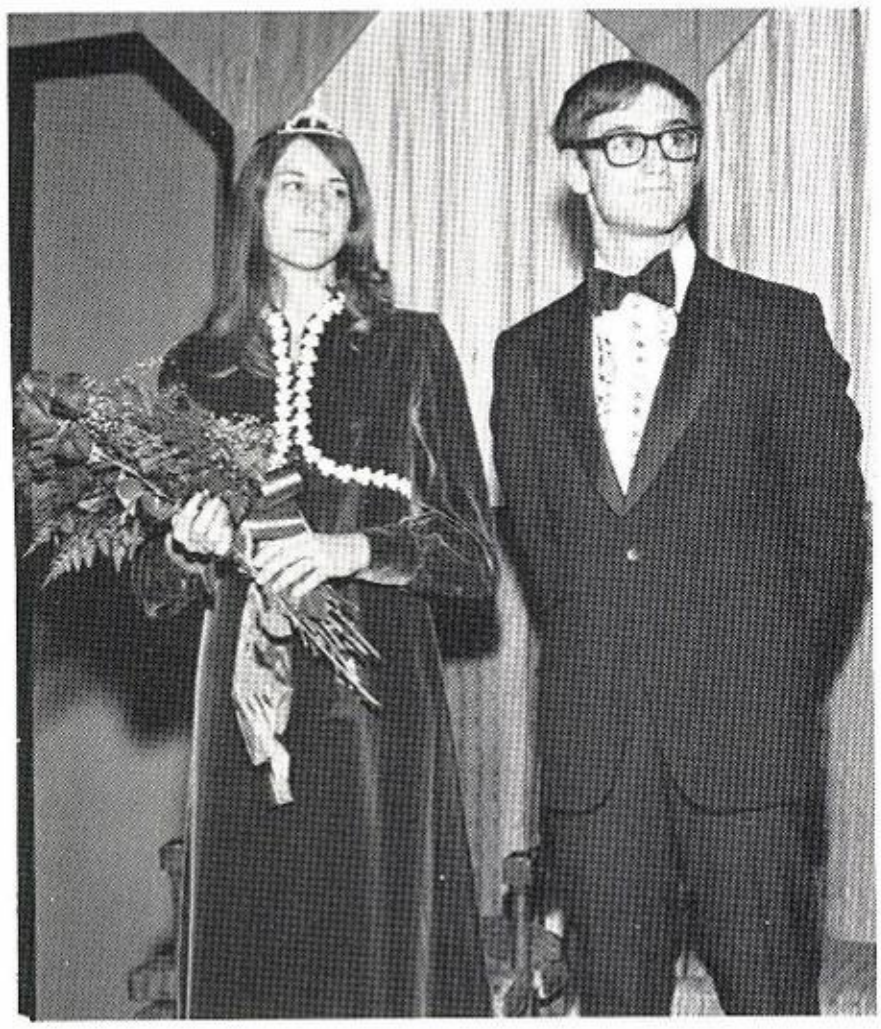


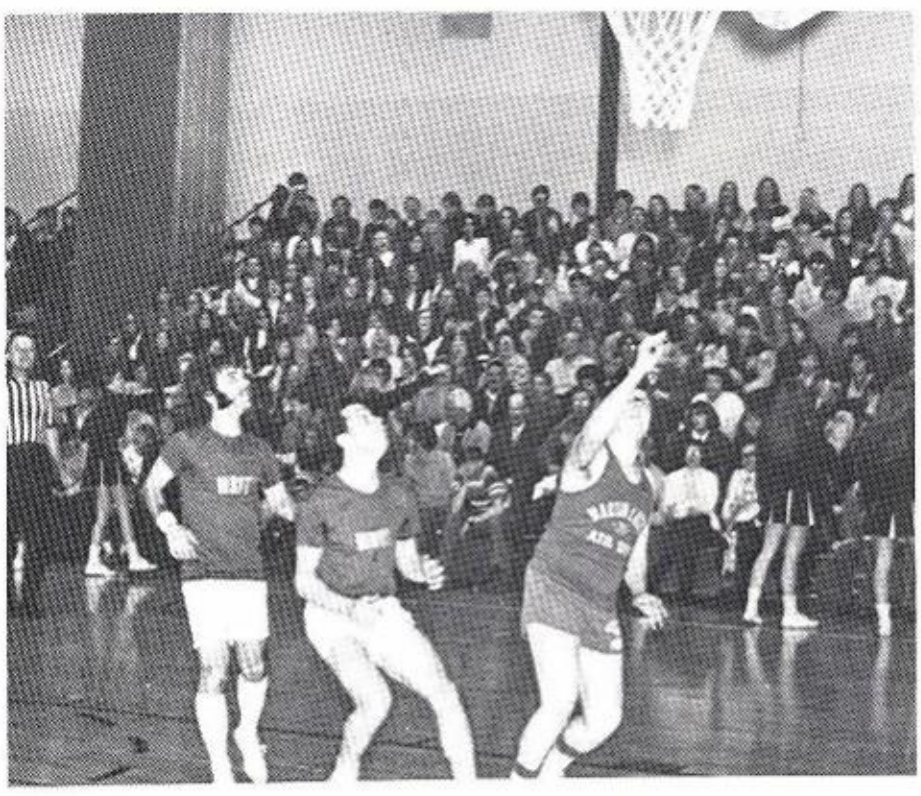
Pizza sauce, cheese, meat, stacks of boxes, gooky hands, and alot of hard work mixed together make $4,800. That's what seemed to make it all worthwhile. Everyone who was at either of the pizza sales knows that it is alot of hard work, but it was plenty of fun too. With the money made from the pizza sales, the Student Council will purchase some "extras" needed for different departments of the school.

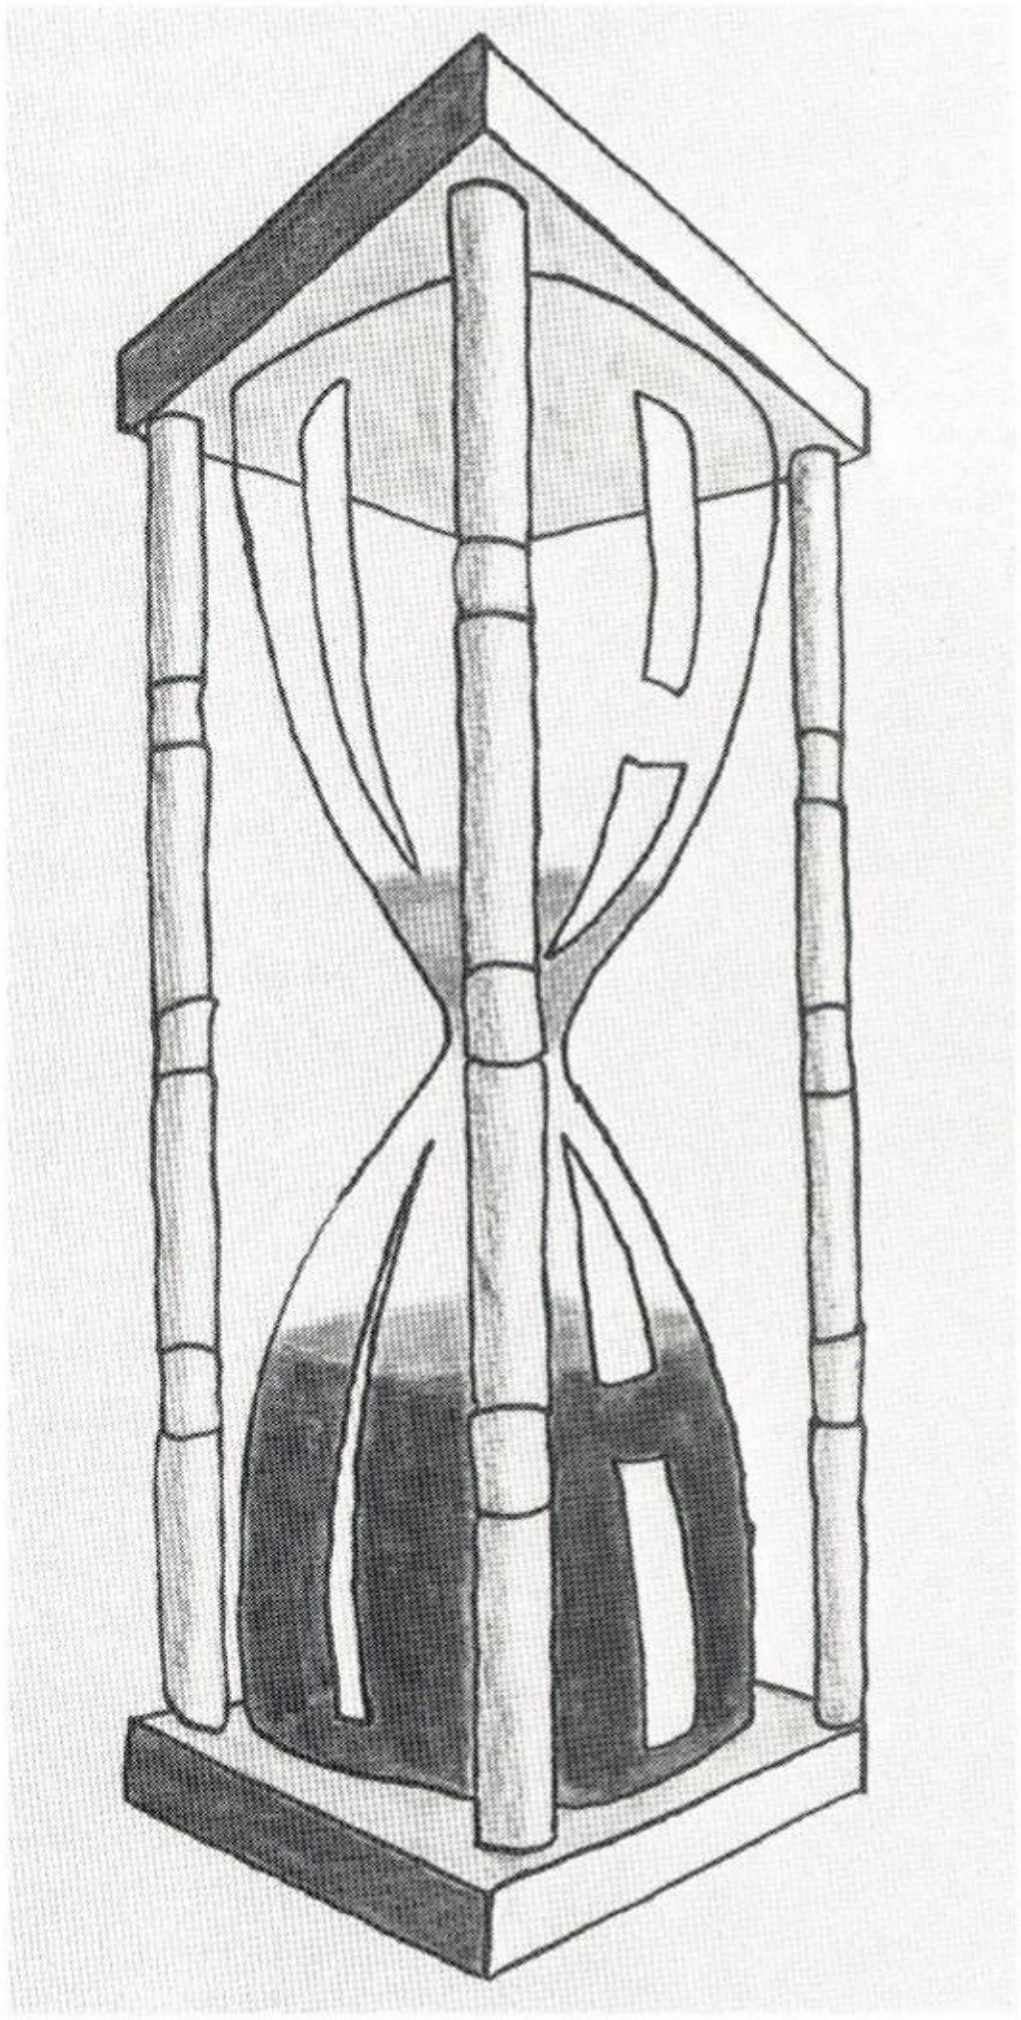
Next time we should have the support of the whole student body and the pizza sales will be twice as successful.



Etc.







A TIME TO COMPETE

The purpose of athletics at Martin Luther is to promote the Spiritual, Physical, Mental, Moral, Social, and Emotional well-being of the individual players and the Student body.

Our hope is emphasizing the proper ideals of Sportsmanship, which is the quality of honor that desires always to be courteous, fair, respectful, and is interpreted in the conduct of players, spectators, and coaches.

May all of us together share in fun, enjoy the exciting competition, and conduct ourselves to the glory of God.

This year's football team, in its second year of varsity competition in the Midwest Prep Conference, finished in a tie for second place with a 4-2 record. The team started out strong with three wins in a row and then lost to Wisconsin Lutheran. Although we played a very good game, and had many scoring possibilities, we couldn't defeat the strong Viking team which took first place in the conference. The Spartans, however, came back to defeat Milwaukee Lutheran on our First Homecoming. The season concluded with a stuning victory over Racine Lutheran.

This year, three seniors, were named to the Midwest Prep All Conference Team. The three are Mike Klug, Scott Hildebrand, and Dave Schneider. Junior Bill Dahl was also named to the team along with being given Honorable Mention to All State.

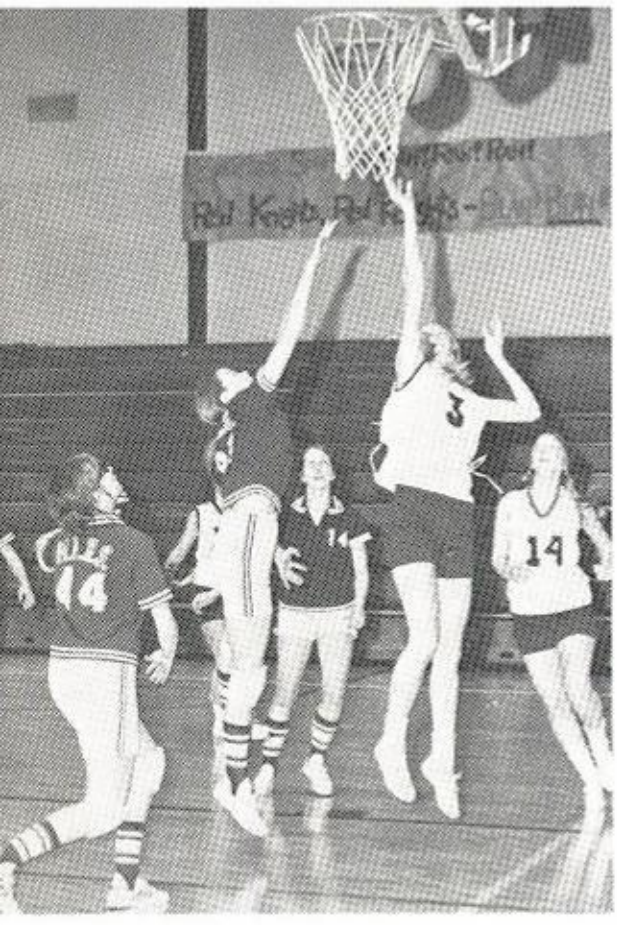
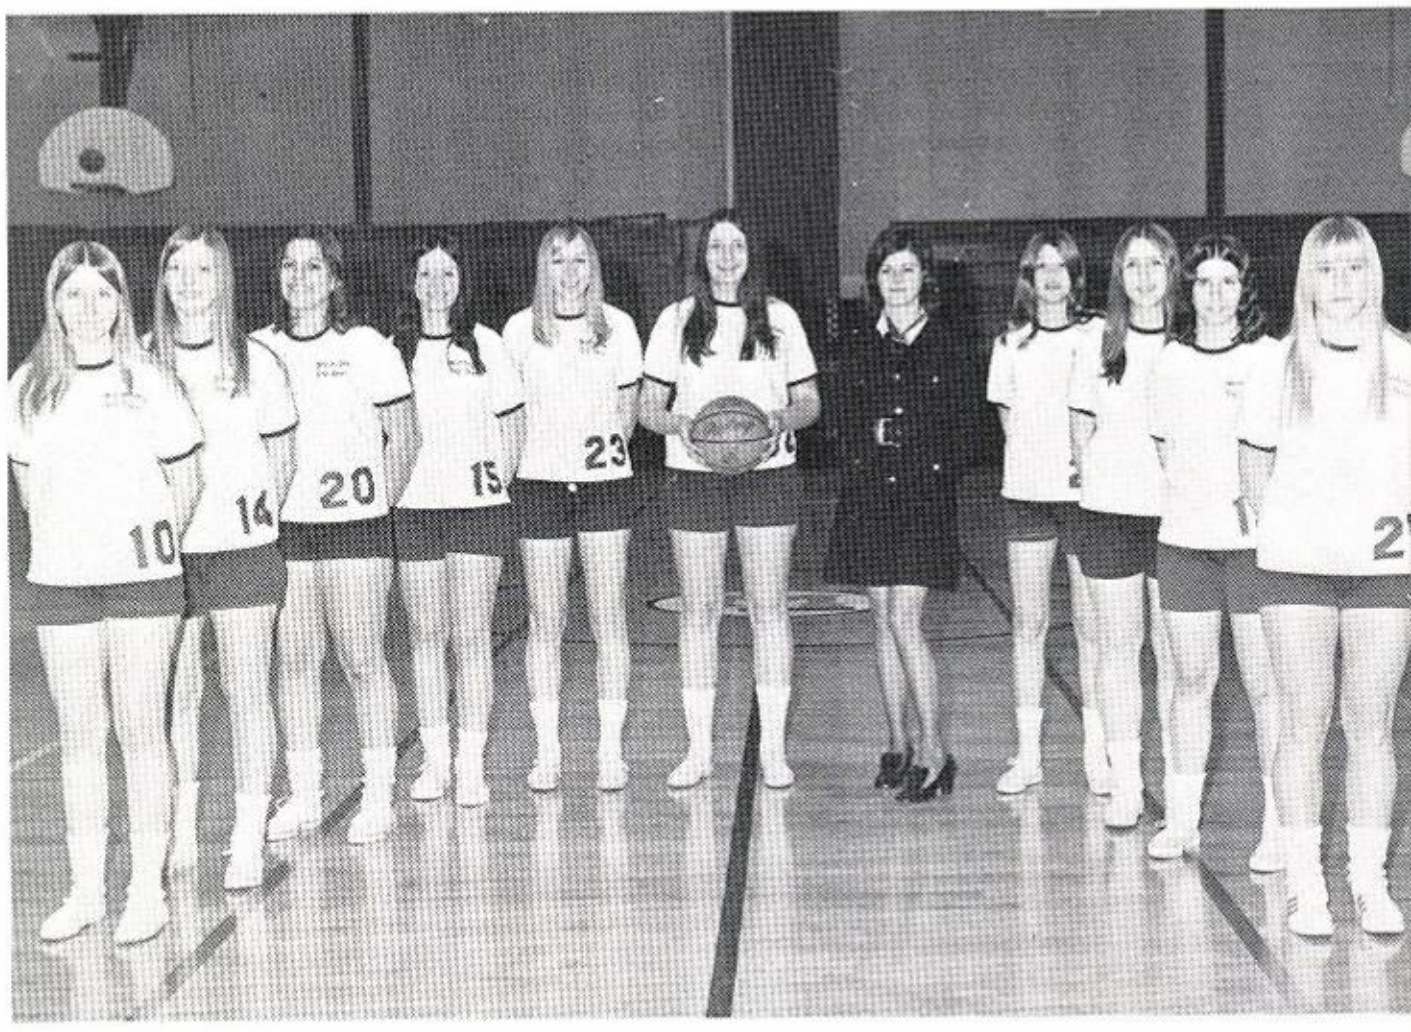
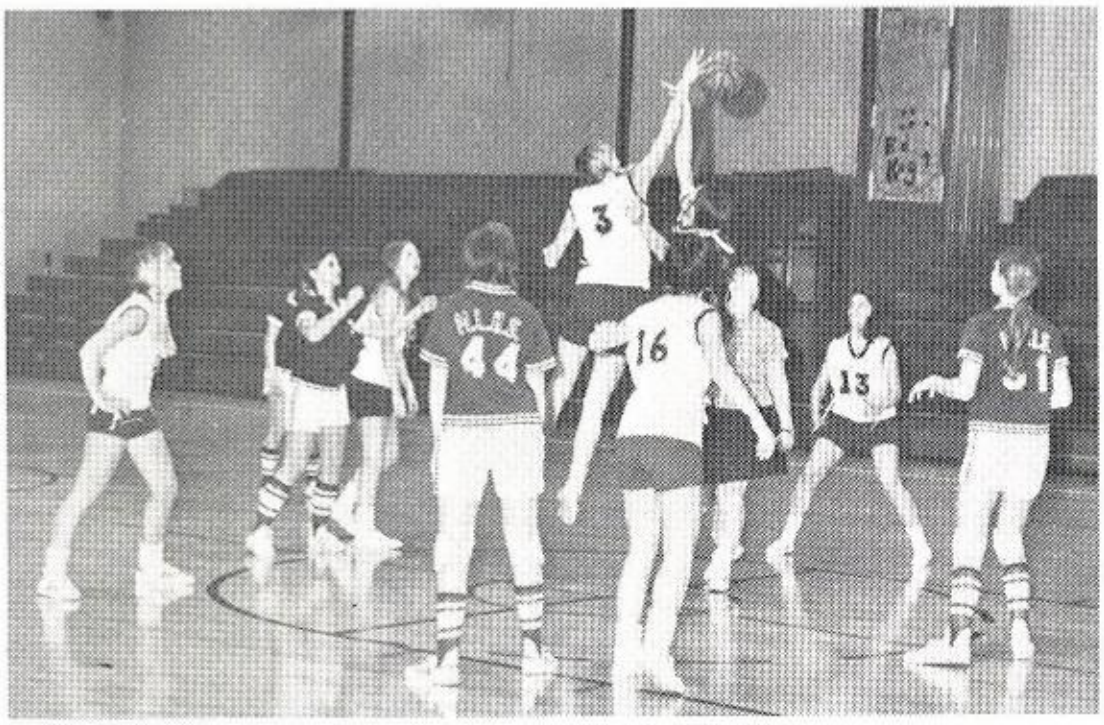
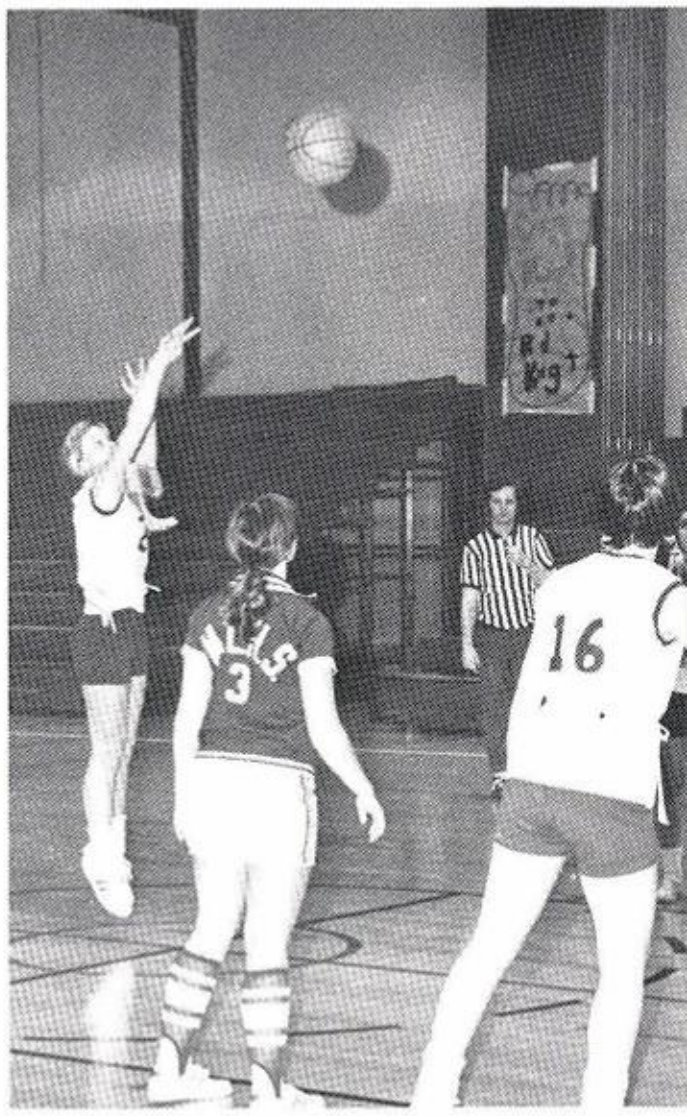
The JV Volleyball team had a very successful season. They took first place in their league with a 18-6 record. The Championship was in doubt until the final match. The Spartanettes won an exciting third game 16-14 to claim the victory. The girls had an overall record of 27-11. Mary Long and Michelle Orth were voted Most Valuable Player, while Cindy Joiner was selected as Most Improved Player. Other team members were Vicki McGill, Barb Bruss, Jeri Franz, Nancy Reinke, Ramona Helm, Lisa Hafeman, Margaret Gunka, Kim Hovie, Sandy Bublitz, Mary Christiansen, Lorie Hafeman, and Pat Egan.

Girl's Basketball









The Varsity Basketball team captured first place in their division with an overall record of 10-6. The Spartanettes participate in the South Division league, and brought home a league record of 8-2. The team also plays schools outside their league such as West Allis Central, Mercy High School, St. Mary's, Milwaukee Lutheran, and Wisconsin Lutheran. A TIME TO COMMENCE

Class of 1972

TO THE 1972 GRADUATING CLASS:
Time - the element of life...the mark of our humanness...the measure of our earthly wait for our eternal promise.
Time - the span of a high school education...the bridge between youth and age...the mark of growth. You, the class of 1972, are the first to spend a full four years at Martin Luther. You are the second group of graduates to join the ranks of Martin Luther's alumni family. You join thousands in Milwaukee who have graduated from a "Lutheran High" in the nearly three quarters of a century of Milwaukee's Lutheran high school history.
You share with the countless host of Christians through the centuries the eternal heritage of the Good News, the joy of the knowledge of the Savior. You have been given four years of time to share this message of God's Son, our Savior, is the heart of your life; it is the hope of your future.
Time passes, and now you move on. You have changed from 8th graders beginning an adolescent life to young adults moving into the years of your continuing maturity. You have given to us, your teachers, counselors, and Christian friends, much of yourselves. We have been priviledged to share your successes and your failures, your times of great joy and your times of great sorrow. Some of you have seen a mother or father taken from you to an eternal home. Some of you have passed through serious illness or injury. Some of you have brought the happinesses in your families to us to share with you...a wedding, a new brother or sister...an honor or recognition. Of what we have been able to give to you in love, you have given so much in return. The greatest return, however, has been the growth of our faith in Christ - together...the many hours of worship we have shared...the many hours of study in the Word of God.
Time gives us tomorrow. God's coming is our goal...and so we wait and work. Continue to dedicate your lives to this purpose, for in a world with serious vision problems, you have the view of eternity in Christ that saves man. Share it with all around you.

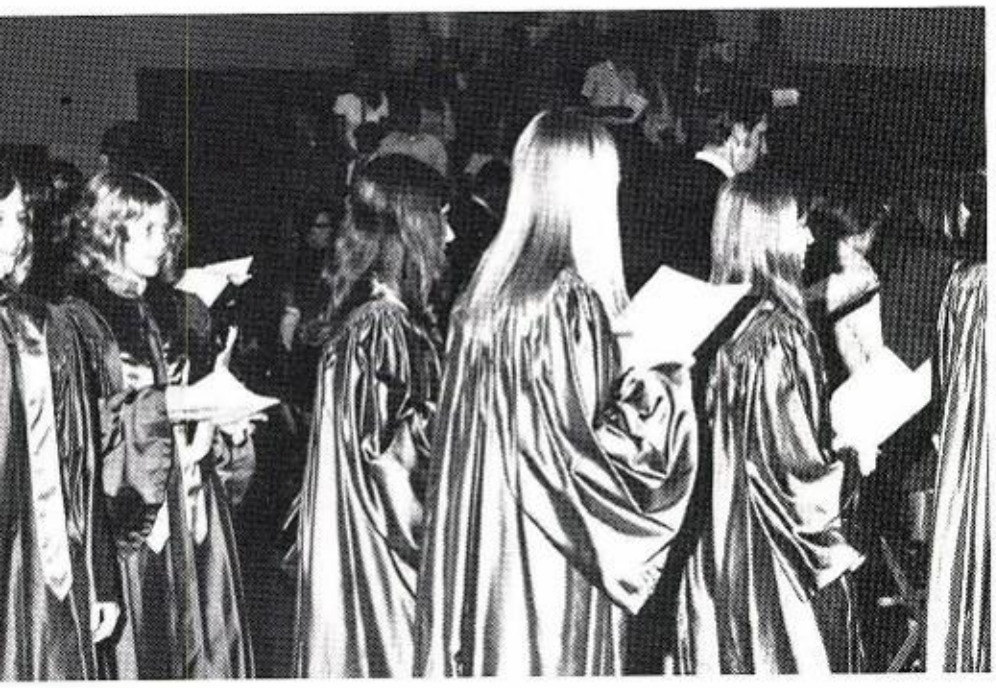
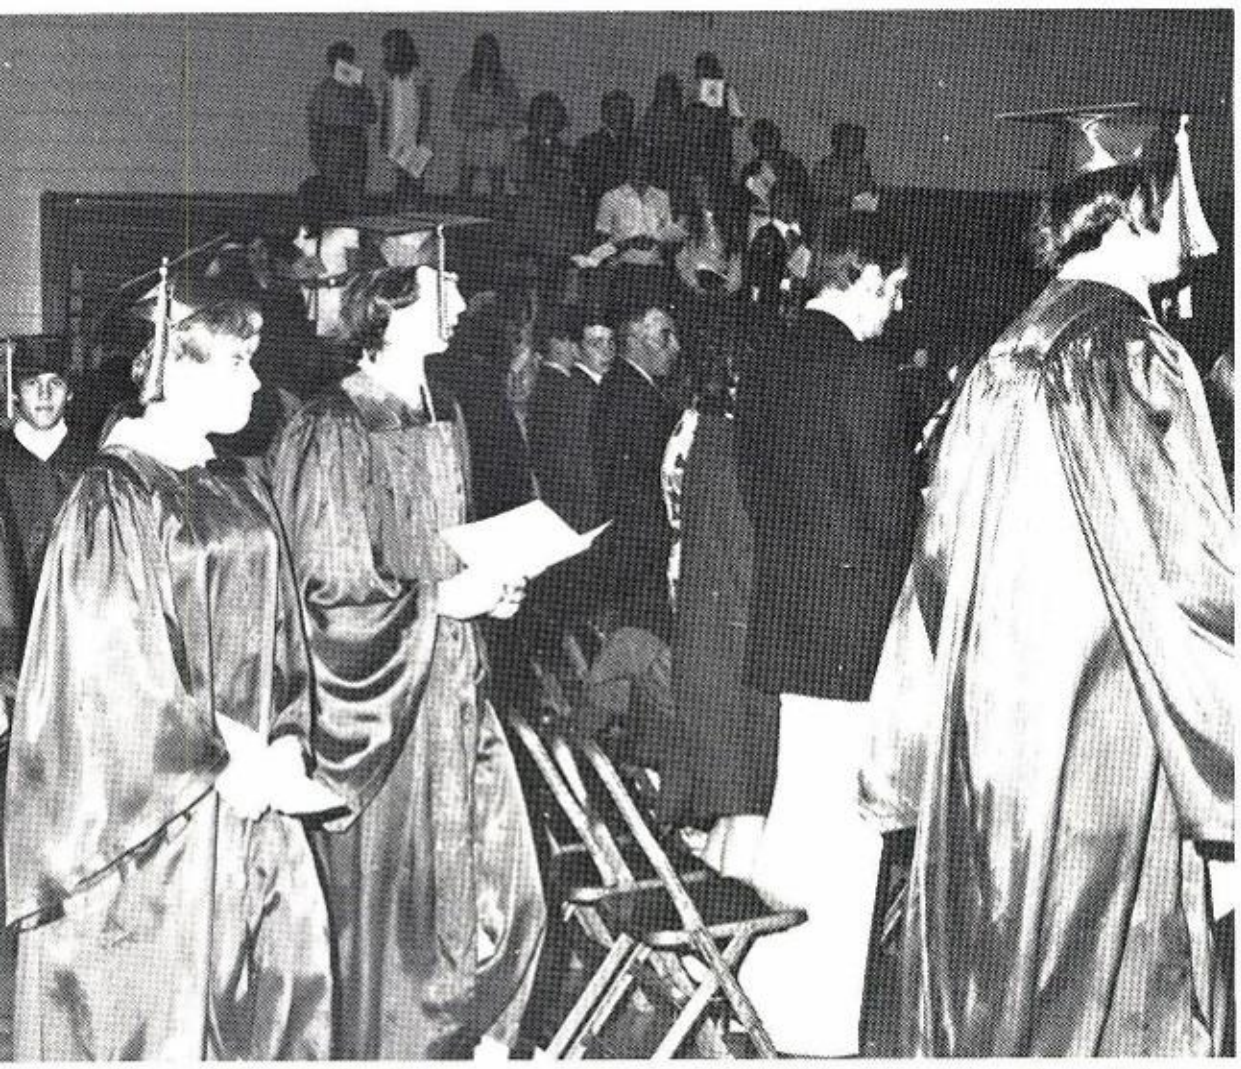
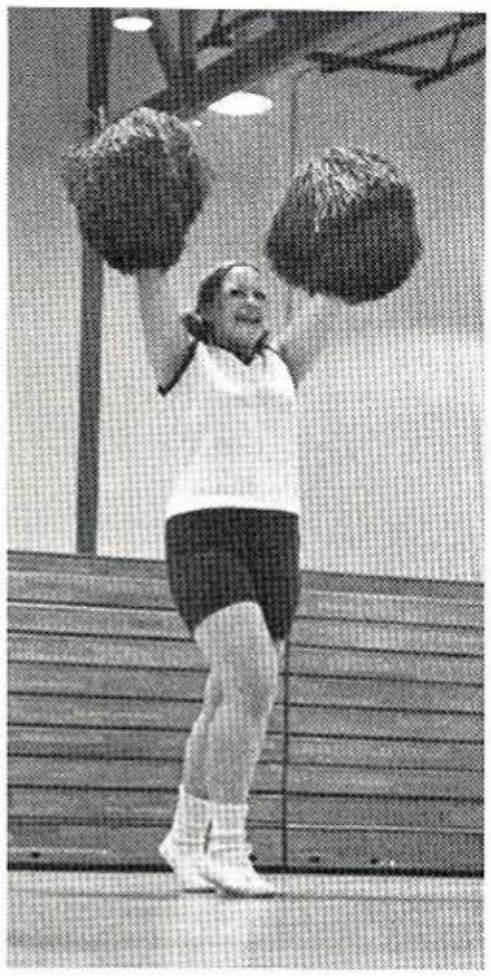
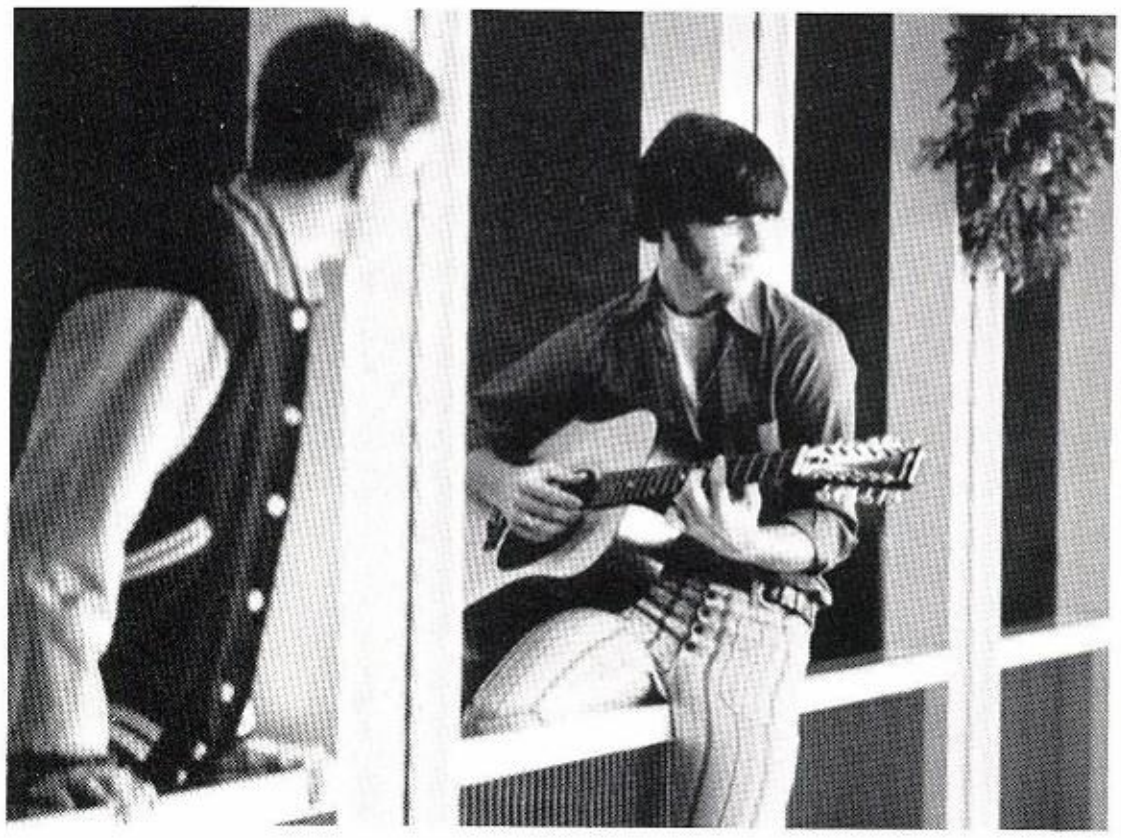
Graduation

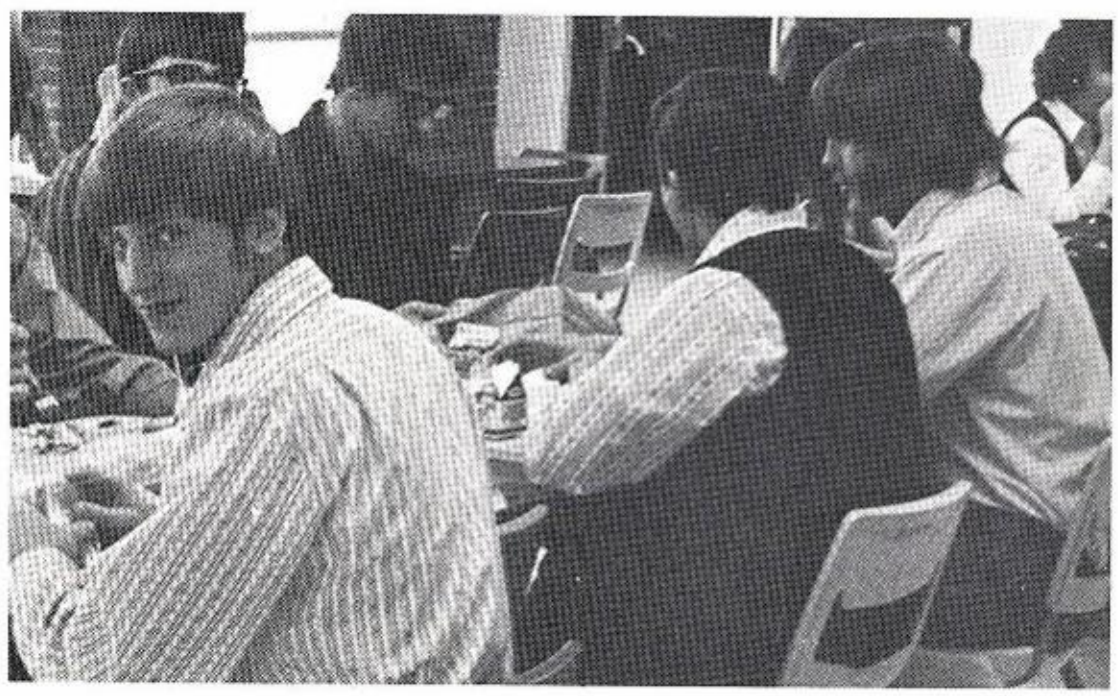




The graduation of the class of 1972 took place with all the grandure and pomp that accompanies any graduation. "O Worship the King", a favorite hymn of the student body, was sung as the graduating class processed in. Dr. W. Th. Janzow, President of Concordia Teacher's College in Seward, gave the Commencement Address. Nancy Mueller a and Dave Schneider gave their messages as Salutatorian and Valedictorian. As the 55 graduates stepped forth, Mr. Storm and Dr. Wessler presented the diplomas. "Morning Has Broken" was chosen as the class hymn. Rev. Hinz from St. Paul's, West Allis was the liturgist. With the help of the band and choir, the service will long be remembered.







TIMOTHY HEINE; Intramurals 1, 2.

SEVENTH HOUR ALGEBRA CLASS*
(ROOM 205)

This is a practical lesson in the misuse of $50.00.

We have gone through almost a whole year of Algebra and we have successfully learned?????

We collected the $50.00 through NO inspiration of Wilbur Trimpe and despite of our Campaign Managers BARBELLS.

*(The Class That Is Better Than First Hour)

FIRST HOUR ALGEBRA

(The Superior Algebra Class)
Presents
"LOVE OF FEE"

Which asks the question

"Can a big class in a small room find happiness as a square root in a round hole and still pay Mr. Gabler for their pencils?"

Today we see the class standing. They are standing behind the chairs. The class is smiling. The class likes standing behind the chairs.

Will the class keep standing? Will the class keep smiling? Will you keep smiling? (And what about Mr. Gabler?)

For the answer to these and other questions, buy next year's PHALANX with "LOVE OF FEE!"

The 1972 Phalanx Staff wishes to thank:
Seventh Hour Algebra for $50.00
First Hour Algebra for $30.00

Their efforts greatly aided the production of the 1972 Phalanx.
